WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, August 23, 1812.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an extract, has been this day received at the Earl Bathurst's Office from General the Marquess of Wellington, K. B. dated Cuellar, 4th August 1812.

THE French army of the centre, after having passed through the Guadarrama pass, and after its head had arrived at the Venta de San Raphael, returned to Segovia, where Joseph Buonaparte arrived on the 27th July, at night. The object of this movement was apparently to divert the allied troops from the pursuit of the army of Portugal, and to enable the latter to maintain themselves upon the Douro; in which, however, the enemy did not succeed. Their rear-guard remained in some strength on the left of the Douro, during the 28th and 29th; but the light and 1st divisions, and the cavalry, having crossed the Eresma and Cega rivers on the latter day, the enemy's rear-guard retired during the night across the Douro, and thence followed the movements of the main body towards Villa Vanez, abandoning Valladolid, and leaving there seventeen pieces of cannon, a large quantity of shot and shells and other stores, and their hospital, with about eight hundred sick and wounded.

The General in Chief Macquinez took three hundred prisoners in the neighbourhood of Valladolid, on the 30th; our advanced-guard crossed the Douro, and our parties entered Valladolid on the same day; and I had the satisfaction of being received by the people in that city with the same enthusiastic joy, as I had been in all other parts of the country.

The army of Portugal having thus crossed and quitted the Douro, it was necessary to attend to the movements of the army of the centre, and to prevent a junction between the two on the Upper Douro, which, it was reported, was intended.

While, therefore, the advanced-guard and left continued the pursuit of the army of Portugal, I moved the right along the Cega to Cuellar, where I arrived on the 1st instant.

Joseph Buonaparte retired from Segovia on the morning of the 1st, and marched through the Guadarrama; and he left at Segovia an advanced-guard, principally of cavalry, under General Espert; having destroyed the cannon and ammunition which were in the castle, having carried off the church plate and other valuable property, and having levied a considerable contribution on the inhabitants of the town.

I have not yet heard whether a detachment, which I sent to Segovia yesterday under Brigadier-General D'Urban, had entered the town.

The enemy have continued to increase their force in Estremadura.

I enclose Lieutenant-General Sir Rowland Hill's report of a very handsome affair with the enemy's cavalry, on the 24th July, by the division under the command of Lieutenant-General Sir William Erskine.

I have received no further accounts of the operations under Sir Home Popham.

P. S. I have just heard that the French troops under General Espert, have withdrawn from Segovia by San Ildefonso.

MY LORD, Zafra, July 27, 1812.

I HAVE the honour to transmit to your Lordship, a copy of a letter from Lieutenant-General Sir William Erskine, and one from Major-General Long, reporting an affair between some of our cavalry and three regiments of the enemy's cavalry, in the neighbourhood of Ribera, on the 24th instant.

I am, &c.

(Signed) R. HILL.

To General the Earl of Wellington,

K. B. &c. &c. &c.

SIR, Los Santos, July 25, 1812.

I HAVE the honour to report to you, that a body of the enemy's cavalry, consisting of two regiments of dragoons and one of chasseurs, under the command of General of Brigade Almand, attacked yesterday morning the Portuguese piquet at Hinojosa, which they drove in as far as Ribera, where four squadrons of Portuguese cavalry were stationed, under the command of Colonel Campbell.

The force under Colonel Campbell being greatly inferior to that of the enemy, he was under the necessity of retiring upon Villa Franca, which he did in the best order. Major-General Long advancing at the same time from Villa Franca with the brigade of British cavalry under his command, and Captain Lefebue's troop of horse artillery to support him.

The enemy, on perceiving the advance of General Long's brigade, halted on the high ground between Ribera and Villa Franca. General Long also halting until joined by a part of his brigade that had been detached in the morning to observe the enemy on the side of Usagre. During this interval, I directed Major-General Slade, with two regiments of his brigade, to move from Los Santos, and direct his march on the left flank and rear of the enemy.

As soon as General Long had collected the whole of his brigade, he moved forward against the enemy, who immediately withdrew beyond the defile at Ribera. General Long passed through the defile to the right and left of the town, and attacked the enemy with much spirit, whilst the artillery fired with great effect from the high ground on the Villa Franca side of the defile. The enemy retired rapidly upon Hinojosa, closely followed; from Hinojosa the enemy retired to Leira, and from thence to Valencia de Torres. They were followed as far as Leira. At Hinojosa the two regiments under Major-General Slade joined Major-General Long's brigade, having made a very rapid march at a trot from Los Santos, but from the great distance could not arrive in sufficient time to cut off the enemy's retreat upon Leira.

Major-General Long speaks in the highest terms of all the troops under his command, particularly the horse artillery, who displayed great activity in their movements and precision in their fire, by which the enemy suffered very considerably.

The loss of the enemy on this occasion has been about thirty men and a great many horses killed, eleven men and about thirty horses taken. The loss upon our side has been only one man killed and seven wounded.

I have the honour, &c.

(Signed) WILLIAM ERSKINE,

Lieutenant-General.

Lieutenant-General Sir Rowland Hill,

K. B. &c. &c. &c.

SIR, Villa Franca, July 25, 1812.

I HAVE the honour to enclose Colonel Campbell's report upon the proceedings of yesterday*, at the point where he was more immediately engaged; and his report is sufficiently circumstantial, and, as far as I can judge, correct, to render it unnecessary for me to expatiate on the subject.

I received the report of the enemy's advance upon Ribera too late to admit of my preventing his occupying that town, and the commanding heights on this side. The accounts of his force were so differently represented, that, having three troops of the brigade absent, I thought it not advisable to act against him until they could be recalled; and as the attempt to dislodge him might bring on a serious affair, on ground of which all the advantages were on the enemy's side, I was anxious to secure the support of the 3d dragoon guards stationed at Fuente del Maestre, and to wait for the report of what might be passing on the side of Usagre, before I commenced any offensive movement.

Finding, upon the arrival of the patrolle from Usagre, that no enemy was in that neighbourhood, I directed the troops under my command (without waiting longer for the 3d dragoon guards) to proceed against the enemy. They retired across the river, which enabled me to bring up the artillery upon the heights they had relinquished, and to employ it with evident and very great effect; and I continued my advance upon and pursuit of the enemy, as rapidly as I thought consistent with the preservation of order and regularity, beyond the defile of Hinojosa; where, from the lateness of the hour, the fatigue sustained by the Portuguese troops, the artillery, and one squadron of hussars, I judged it proper to halt.

Nothing could exceed the steadiness of the 9th and 13th dragoons, the activity of the artillery, and the precision of their fire, or the good countenance and gallantry displayed by those portions of the Portuguese troops, and of my own brigade, that had the opportunity of closing with and engaging the enemy. And I consider myself justified in estimating the loss of the latter, at the very lowest, at forty-five men killed and prisoners. With respect to the horses, so many were left mutilated and killed on the field, and others caught and carried away by the peasants, that I have no criterion by which to judge of the enemy's loss in this respect, but we have only brought away twenty.

I feel myself particularly indebted to Colonel Campbell for his assistance and co-operation; and I should be wanting in justice, if I omitted to express my admiration of the conduct of the artillery under the immediate orders of Captains Lefebure and Whingates, and my approbation of the spirit displayed by a squadron of the 2d hussars, under Major Wissel, supported by two divisions of the 9th and 13th dragoons, under Lieutenant Handley of the former, and Lieutenant Edwards of the latter regiment.

It is equally my duty to acknowledge the services I received from Captain Wemyss and Lieutenant Strenowitz, two of your personal staff, whose zeal, spirit, and exertions were as usual conspicuous; nor are the officers of my own staff (Brigade-Major Dunbar and Captain Dean) less deserving my notice.

Enclosed is a return of casualties sustained upon this occasion.

I have the honour to be, &c.

Major-General.

And also to command, that this especial mark of His Majesty's royal favour be registered in His College of Arms.

Admiralty-Office, August 25, 1812.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Young to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Impregnable, off West Capel, the 26th instant.

SIR,

I ENCLOSE, for their Lordship's information, a copy of a letter from Lord George Stuart, Captain of His Majesty's ship Horatio, giving an account of the capture, by the boats of that ship, of two Danish armed vessels, and an American ship, their prize, on the coast of Norway, in which their Lordships will perceive a degree of persevering bravery, in the highest degree honourable to all who were engaged; but the more their gallant spirit excites admiration, the more it is to be lamented that so many of such brave officers and seamen should be lost to their country.

I have the honour to be, &c.

W. YOUNG.

His Majesty's Ship Horatio, Tromptsen Sound, SIR, Coast of Norway, 3d August 1812.

I HAVE the honour to make known to you, when in execution of your orders, running down the coast of Norway on the 1st instant, in latitude 70 degrees 40 minutes N. a small sail was seen from the mast-head, close in with the land, which we discovered to be an armed cutter before she disappeared among the rocks. Being anxious to destroy the enemy's cruizers, who have so considerably intercepted our trade in this quarter, I dispatched the barge and three cutters, under the command of my First Lieutenant A. M. Hawkins, who gained information on shore that the cutter had gone to a village on an arm of the sea, thirty-five miles in land, where he immediately proceeded, and, at 8 A. M. on the 2d, she was discovered at anchor, together with a schooner and a large ship, which, on the appearance of the boats, presented their broadsides with springs on their cables. As a strong tide set the boats towards them, Lieutenant Hawkins determined to attack, notwithstanding their advantageous position; at nine the fire commenced on the boats (one of which was dispatched under the directions of Mr. James Crisp, Master's Mate, to disperse some small-armed men collected on shore—this he effected, and returned to the attack before the enemy struck), and after a most sanguinary combat, they were carried in that true and gallant style which far surpasses any comment of mine on its merits, or of the characters of the brave fellows employed. They proved to be His Danish Majesty's schooner No. 114, of six six-pounders and thirty men, and cutter No. 97, of four six-pounders and twenty-two men, commanded by Lieutenant Buderhof, a First Lieutenant in the Danish navy and Commodore of a division of small vessels employed on this coast, in person on board the schooner; and an American ship of about four hundred tons, their prize.

I lament to say that the loss on both sides is severe, and nearly similar. Though I had before had occasion to represent the meritorious conduct of Lieutenant Hawkins, I cannot in this instance sufficiently express my sentiments of his gallantry, as well as that of Lieutenant Masters, Second of the Horatio. Lieutenant Hawkins, who received a severe wound in the right hand when the boats were advancing, and another in the left arm in the act of boarding, represents the spirited and able support he received from Lieutenant Masters, who was also severely wounded in the right arm, and I must also bear testimony to the merits of this officer. The service has lost a valuable officer in First Lieutenant Syder (royal marines), killed in the act of boarding; and that of a most amiable young man, Mr. James Larans, assistant-surgeon, who soon after died of his wounds. I must also represent the high terms Lieutenant Hawkins speaks of Mr. James Crisp, master's-mate, Mr. William Hughes, boatswain, and Mr. Thomas Fowler, midshipman; the two latter are also severely wounded.

The services of Lieutenants Hawkins and Masters, with the petty officers, and the several instances of spirited behaviour of the seamen and marines, well deserve the encomiums already passed. The unwearied, skilful, and humane attention of Mr. Thomas Bishop, Surgeon, to the wounded, demand my warmest acknowledgments. Our loss is to be attributed to the desperate resistance made by the Danish Commodore, (who is severely wounded, as well as the Commander of the cutter) and the excellent position his vessels were placed in.

The prizes I have directed to North Yarmouth. Herewith I beg to enclose the list of killed and wounded.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) G. STUART.
