Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir James Saumarez, Bart. and K. B. to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Victory, in Hawke Road, the 27th August 1812.

SIR,

I HEREWITH enclose a letter I have received from Rear-Admiral Martin, dated the 17th instant, on board the Aboukir, off Riga, conveying information of the movements of the Russian forces to that period; by which their Lordships will observe, that no event of importance had taken place since the letter I transmitted from the Rear-Admiral, dated the 11th instant.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) JAS. SAUMAREZ.

SIR, Aboukir, off Riga Bay, Aug. 17, 1812.

I HAVE to acquaint you that couriers arrived last night from Count Wittgenstein and General Barclay de Tolle, by whom we learn that no important affair has yet occurred.

Count Wittgenstein's letter, is dated the 13th instant, at a small village called Doschoch, about forty miles this side of Polotzk, to which last place he had pursued Oudinot, and leaving a strong advanced post in front of it, in order to deceive him, the Count immediately took a direction with his army towards Druya to meet Macdonald, of whose departure from this neighbourhood he had received early intelligence.

Hearing however that Marshal Oudinot had obtained a reinforcement of eleven thousand men, he halted, and presently moved forward again in the direction of Polotzk, and falling in with a small French division, he attacked them, and took six hundred prisoners, besides baggage. It was conjectured that Oudinot had recrossed the river, and it was ascertained that his loss in the late action had been much more severe than was at first reported.

General Barclay de Tolle's letter is dated the 10th of August, at Smolensko; it speaks only of an attack made by Count Pahlen's cavalry on the enemy's rear guard, which he drove before him, taking two or three hundred prisoners, and General Sebastiani's carriage with all his papers.

Frequent skirmishes take place, and they are represented as invariably favourable to the Russians, and every thing in the army is going on in a satisfactory way. Several small detachments from this garrison have been scouring the country, and have destroyed a magazine and taken some prisoners.

I have the honour to be, &c.

T. M. MARTIN, Rear-Admiral.

Vice-Admiral Sir James Saumarez,

Bart. and K. B. &c. &c. &c.

Admiralty-Office, September 5, 1812.

Extract of a Letter from Commodore Sir Home Popham to Admiral the Right Honourable Lord Keith, K. B. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Venerable, Bilboa Inlet, 16th August 1812, and transmitted by the last-mentioned Officer to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

YESTERDAY morning, at day-dawn, General Renouals attacked the enemy, and his dispositions were so judicious that he drove him out of the town, from whence he retreated on the high road to Zornosa, and his whole force fell back towards Darango. The Spaniards lost ten men killed, and twenty-three wounded; the enemy certainly lost more; and had six prisoners taken.

Major Williams marched with a strong picquet to examine the country; but as the enemy continued to retreat, he returned to the town of Bilboa in the course of the night.

I directed Captain Malcolm to take a proportion of gunpowder, with a party of men, to blow up the Moro, as we had completely destroyed every work at Portugaleta and its neighbourhood; but as General Renovaes preferred doing it himself, I supplied him with powder for that purpose.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

Unto His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh, impressed with the warmest sentiments of duty, and with hearts full of the highest exultation and joy, beg leave to present to your Royal Highness our humble congratulations upon the signal and brilliant success which has crowned the continued and unremitting exertions of His Majesty's forces in Spain, under the command of the Marquis of Wellington, to which no man alive hath witnessed any parallel, and by which the military reputation of these kingdoms has been raised to a height and splendour, that must transmit its superiority to all posterity.

Most of those victories which have reflected lustre upon the British name, have been distinguished by individual merits peculiar to themselves; some have shone conspicuous for the skill of the commander; some for the valour of the soldiers; and others for the great utility or the important consequences with which they have been attended. But the victory of Salamanca is not more remarkable for the transcendent ability of the General, and the undaunted courage of the army, than it is fruitful of solid advantage, and pregnant with undivided glory; and when we reflect upon the whole circumstances which distinguish this great achievement, the inferiority of the British forces in point of numbers to those of the enemy, the reputation of the generals and the character of the soldiers with whom the allies had to contend, and the final and splendid result of the battle, together with the critical moment when this victory has been obtained, and the pre-eminence and security which it guarantees to Great Britain, we feel assured that neither in point of brilliancy, nor of national importance, has it ever been surpassed. Its effect in hastening the deliverance of Spain from her cruel and perfidious invaders, is obvious and unquestionable, and we are no less sanguine in our expectation that, by infusing additional confidence into those nations who have already risen in arms against the common enemy, and by rousing others to shake off the base subjection under which they have been laid prostrate, it will, under the blessing of Almighty God, lead to the final deliverance of Europe.

While we exult however in this blaze of glory which has burst upon our country, and dwell with admiration upon the consummate skill of the illustrious commander, and the persevering intrepidity, and unconquerable valour of the brave men by whom this victory has been achieved, we beg to assure your Royal Highness, that with hearts penetrated with unbounded gratitude, we shall ever recollect ourselves, and impress upon the minds of our children, how entirely the empire has been indebted for this splendid opportunity of transferring to British prowess all the honours of our inveterate foe, to the enlightened policy and magnanimous resolution of your Royal Highness to prosecute with vigour the war in the Peninsula, and to uphold the liberties and independence of the Spanish nation. In that determination, so early avowed after your Royal Highness assumed the administration of the government, and so steadily persevered in under circumstances of unexampled difficulty, we, and the rest of His Majesty's loyal subjects, have with thankfulness recognized the great spirit which has ever so eminently distinguished the character of the House of Brunswick, and have contemplated in your Royal Highness a Prince worthy to rule over a people who by their fortitude in a former age, enabled the immortal founder of our freedom to resist the usurpations of France, to assert the independence of Europe, and to lay the foundation of that barrier against subsequent encroachment, which was afterwards erected chiefly by the glorious exertions of Great Britain, and by which, during the greater part of the last century, the liberties of the continent were so effectually secured.

We remain His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the county of Edinburgh.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment,
by Wm. Rae, Preses,
Edinburgh, 25th August 1812.
