

CREDITORS OF JOHN ROSE.

ALL persons who had any claims or demands upon John Rose, late of the Parish of St. Sepulchre, London, a Lieutenant in His Majesty's 17th Regiment of Foot, previous to the 28th day of May 1799, are requested to send the particulars of their demands to John Malbrite, at No. 53, Han's-Place, Sloane-Street, on or before the 15th day of July 1813.

Bury Saint Edmunds.—Freehold Mansion, Pleasure Ground, and Garden.

TO be sold by auction, by Messrs. Bullen, Bushell, and Deck, on Tuesday the 8th of September 1812, at the Angel Inn, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, by order of the Assignees, and before the major part of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt, awarded and now in prosecution against Mr. J. T. Patience, now or late of Bury Saint Edmunds, Builder, Timber-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman; A freehold mansion-house and garden, most desirably situated in Westgate-Street, late in the occupation of William Dalton, Esq.; comprising, upon the ground floor, a dining and drawing-room, each 17 feet by 18; breakfast parlour, 12 feet by 16; butler's pantry, store-room, kitchen, and house-keeper's room. The first floor has six good chambers, four of which have dressing closets adjoining, and above them four attics.

The pleasure-ground and garden contain nearly two acres, is tastefully laid out, and planted with shrubs, fruit, and ornamental trees, exhibiting from the drawing and dining-rooms a most beautiful lawn, secluded from the kitchen garden; the whole surrounded by lofty walls, which are luxuriantly clothed with the choicest fruit trees.

The mansion is in an unfinished state, as are the offices; but from the convenient site for erecting them, is capable of being formed the most rural and complete family residence in the town.

Lot 2. A large piece of garden ground, communicating with Whiting-Street, and adjoining the above, containing nearly a quarter of an acre, walled in, excepting a few yards.

Immediate possession will be given of the estates, and may be viewed on application to J. Deck; where, and at the Office of Mr. Wayman, Solicitor, further particulars and conditions of sale may be had.

TO be sold by public auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth and now in prosecution against Edward Perry, of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland, Ironmonger, on Saturday the 3d day of October next, between the hours of ten and twelve in the forenoon of the same day, at the dwelling-house of John Hale, the sign of the Black Lion, in Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland,

All that piece or parcel of ground, on which a foundery and other erections and buildings have lately been erected and built, situate, lying, and being in the New Town, in Whitehaven aforesaid.

Particulars to be had of Mr. Younger, Solicitor, in Whitehaven aforesaid.

From the Marshal's Office.

Sale by Execution.—First Proclamation.

BY authority obtained from His Excellency Robert Gordon, Esq. Captain-General and Governor in Chief of the colony Berbice and its dependencies, Vice-Admiral, and President in all Courts and Colleges within the same; &c. &c. &c. granted upon two petitions, the one presented by Douglas, Reid, and Co. inhabitants of this colony; versus plantation Bloomfield, and the other by J. F. and A. Douglas, of Glasgow, versus John Mac C. McDonald, both under date of 21st October 1811;

I, the undersigned First Marshal of the Courts of this colony, shall expose and sell, at public execution sale, in presence of two Counsellors' Commissaries and their Secretary, in the month of March 1813 (the precise day hereafter to be fixed and notified through the Gazette of this colony), the above-mentioned colon estate called Bloomfield, the property of said John Mac C. McDonald, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, appurtenances, and dependencies thereto belonging; all conformable to an inventory formed thereof, and now lying at the Marshal's Office for the inspection of those whom it may concern.

Whoever should think to have any right, interest, or claim on the above-mentioned estate or cotton plantation called Bloomfield, cum annexes, and wishes to oppose the sale thereof, let such person or persons address themselves to the Marshal's Office of this colony, declaring his reason for such opposition in due time and form; as I hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from every one thereunto qualified, appoint them a day to have his or her claim heard before the Court, and further act therein according to style and law.

This first proclamation made known to the public by beat of drum from the Court-House of this colony.—Berbice, 19th January 1812. K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

From the Marshal's Office.

Sale by Execution.—Second Proclamation.

BY authority obtained from His Excellency Robert Gordon, Esq. Governor-General of the colony Berbice and its dependencies, Vice-Admiral, and President of all Courts and Colleges within the same, &c. &c. &c. granted upon a petition of D. C. Cameron, as Attorney of Douglas, Reid, and Co. of this colony and Demerary, under date of 2d July 1811, versus Joseph McDonald, proprietor of the Western Half of Plantation No. 36, situated in the Correntine Coast division;

I, the undersigned First Marshal of both the Honourable Courts of this colony, shall expose and sell, at public execution sale, in presence of two Counsellors' Commissaries and their Secretary, in the month of November 1812 (the precise day to be fixed and notified through the Gazette of this colony), the above-mentioned Western Half of Plantation No. 36, situated in the Correntine Coast division, the property of the before-mentioned Joseph McDonald, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, appurtenances, and dependencies thereto belonging; all conformable to an inventory thereof, now lying at the Marshal's Office of this colony, for the inspection of those whom it may concern.

Whoever should think to have any right, interest, or claim on the above-mentioned estate or plantation called the Western Half of No. 36, Correntine, cum annexis, and wishes to oppose the sale thereof, let such person or persons address himself to the Marshal's Office of this colony, declaring his reason for such opposition in due time and form; as I hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from every one thereunto qualified, appoint them a day to have his or her claim heard before the Court, and further act therein according to style and law.

This second proclamation made known to the public by beat of drum, from the Court-House of this colony, and further dealt with according to style and custom in such cases.—Berbice, 24th November 1811.
