"You shall die soon nothing Human can prevent Your Death."

"The Enemy's of Ireland shall get a terrible blow soon."

"George Bellamy Esqr."

"Mayor"

"Plymouth"

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in writing and sending such letters, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually wrote the same) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Mayor and Commonalty of Plymouth to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

BREACH OF PAROLE.

Whitehall, September 18, 1812.

Whereas the French General of Brigade Maurin, and his brother, Captain Maurin, did, on the 1st of this month, abscond from Abergavenny, in violation of their parole of honour, and there is every reason to suppose that they were aided in their escape by the same British subject, or subjects, who had formerly aided in the escape of the French General Le Febvre from Cheltenham.

A reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons who shall give such information as may lead to the conviction of the British subject or subjects who aided the said General Maurin and his brother in their escape from this kingdom.—The said reward to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

The said prisoners are supposed to have embarked at Deal, or its neighbourhood, on board a boat named the Star, of Deal, John Lewis, Master, and to have been landed at Boulogne on or about Friday the 4th instant. The said boat is supposed to be the property of a man named Richard Waddle, of Dunchurch, and was seized in the Channel a few days since, on her return from the opposite coast, with a cargo of spirits.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a bill to divide, allot, and inclose all such commonable lands and waste grounds as lie within the manor of Fawley, and within or which belong to that part of the manor of Bitterne which is within the parish of Fawley or elsewhere, on the Fawley side of the Southampton water, being part of or belonging to the said manor of Bitterne, in the county of Southampton.—Dated this 4th day of September 1812.

Notice is hereby given, that an application is about to be made to Parliament in the ensuing sessions, for leave to bring in a bill to enable certain persons to form themselves into a Joint Stock Company, for the purpose of purchasing of, or accepting and taking a lease, from the Right Reverend Lord Bishop of London, of certain waters and springs, and their conduits and appurtenances, in the several parishes of Mary-le-Bone and Paddington, in the county of Middlesex, for better supplying the inhabitants of the cities of London and Westminster, and the suburbs thereof, with spring water.

Notice is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a bill for erecting a parish church, with a vicarage-house and out offices, in the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex; for purchasing land for those purposes; and for enlarging or rebuilding the chapel at Kentish Town, in the said parish; and for commutting the vicarial tythes and Easter offerings; and for raising money, by a rate or rates on the inhabitants, for the purposes aforesaid; and also for powers to appropriate the present church and church lands in the said parish, to such purposes as may be thought most proper and expedient.—Dated this 19th day of September 1812.

Rose and Munnings, Solicitors.

Notice is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a bill for making and maintaining a road from the Westminster-Bridge-Road, at or near to Amphitheatre-Row, to Vauxhall-Turnpike; and for widening, amending, and improving the said row called Amphitheatre-Row, all which said intended road will be in the parish of St. Mary, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey.—Dated this 19th day of September 1812.

Sam. Taylor, Solicitor, Craven-Street, Strand.

Notice is hereby given, that, at the next sessions of Parliament, a petition will be presented to the Honourable the House of Commons, for leave to bring in a bill, in order to obtain an Act of Parliament, for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the common called Penge Common, situate in the hamlet of Penge, in the parish of Battersea, in the county of Surrey, and all other the commonable lands and waste grounds, situate in the said hamlet.—September 12, 1812.

Turnpike Roads in Devon and Cornwall, leading to Launceston.

Notice is hereby given, that in the next session of Parliament, application will be made to the Honourable the House of Commons, for a bill for repealing three several Acts passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the second, and in the twenty-first and forty-first years of His present Majesty, for repair-
