WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, September 24, 1812.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are extracts and copies, have been this day received at Earl Bathurst's Office, addressed to his Lordship by General the Marquess of Wellington, dated Madrid, 25th and 30th August, and Valladolid, 7th and 8th September.

Madrid, 25th August 1812:

JOSEPH BUONAPARTE has continued his march towards Valencia, and according to the last accounts which I have received, his rear guard was on the 19th at La Roda.

I have received a letter of the 17th from Lieutenant-General Maitland, who had marched from Alicante, and was at Montforte. General Roche was at Alcoy, from whence Suchet had retired to St. Felipe; and it was supposed he was about to cross the Xucar. General O'Donnell was on the same day at Yecla, in Murcia.

The enemy's troops from Valladolid drove in Major-General Anson's picquets at Tudela, on the 18th. The Major-General however still maintains them on the left of the Douro.

The enemy have moved a body of troops from the neighbourhood of Valladolid, consisting of about six thousand infantry and twelve hundred cavalry, under General Foy, which, on the 17th, carried off the garrison of Toro.

They then were joined by a body of infantry of the same strength, which had likewise marched from the Pisuegra on the Rio Seco, and the whole were, on the 20th, about two leagues distant from Benevente, the Gallician troops, with the exception of the cavalry, which still remained at Benevente, having marched towards Astorga. The enemy had left the garrison of Zamora still blockaded by the Conde d'Amarante; but I have reason to believe that they will relieve that garrison on their return from their expedition towards Astorga.

By accounts from Cadiz of the 9th, I learn that General Cruz had returned to that port with the detachment which had been sent to the eastward for the relief of General Ballasteros. Another expedition had immediately been fitted out. These troops had been landed at Huelva on the 14th and 15th instant, but the enemy evacuated and destroyed the castle of Niebla on the 12th.

Madrid, August 30, 1812.

SINCE I wrote to your Lordship on the 25th instant, I have received reports that the garrison of Astorga had surrendered by capitulation on the 19th to the number of one thousand two hundred men. General Foy arrived at La Bañeza for their relief on the 21st, with the detachment which I informed you was in march for that purpose; and his parties found the place abandoned by the Spanish troops, the French garrison having been carried away as prisoners.

My LORD, Valladolid, Sept. 7, 1812.

UPON referring to my dispatch to your Lordship of the 24th of July, as printed in the London Gazette of the 16th August, I observe that, although I reported my sense of the conduct of the German brigade of heavy cavalry under Major-General Baron Bock, on the 23d July, I omitted to include the name of the Major-General in the enumeration which the dispatch contains of officers who had opportunities of distinguishing themselves.

[1936]

I beg to take this opportunity of rectifying this omission, and of assuring your Lordship that the Major-General distinguished himself in the operations which led to the charge, and in the charge made by the gallant troops under his command, as he has upon every occasion which has offered since he has been under my command.

From my personal observation and the reports which I have received since the action of the 22d of July, I am afraid that I have omitted the names of many other officers who had opportunities of distinguishing themselves; and in a case in which all did their duty in a manner so honourable to themselves and their country, the limits of a dispatch do not permit the mention of the names of all who have drawn the notice of their superiors by their conduct: I must, however, correct the omission of which I have been guilty in the case of Lieutenant-Colonel Arentschildt, and the 1st hussars of the King's German legion, who were distinguished by their conduct throughout the whole of the day of the 22d July; and likewise in that of Lieutenant-Colonel Elley, the Assistant Adjutant-General, who attended Lieutenant-General Sir Stapleton Cotton throughout the action, was wounded by a bayonet in the charge made by Major-General Le Marchant's brigade, and had two horses killed under him.

I have the honour to be, &c.

Valladolid, September 7, 1812.

I QUITTED Madrid on the 1st instant, in order to direct the movements of the troops ordered to be collected at Arevalo, as reported in my dispatch of the 30th August.

We moved from Arevalo on the 4th, and passed the Douro on the 6th, at the fords of Herrera and El Abrojo.

After General Foy had found that the garrison of Astorga had surrendered, by capitulation, he returned to the Esla, and marched upon Carvajales, with a view to surprise and cut off the Portuguese militia which had been employed under Lieutenant-General the Conde D'Amarante, in the blockade of Zamora. The Lieutenant-General, however, made good his retreat, without loss, to the frontiers of Portugal; and General Foy carried off the garrison of Zamora on the 29th of August, and marched for Tordesillas.

I cannot avoid to draw your Lordship's attention to the conduct of the Conde D'Amarante, and of the militia under his command, in these operations. The zeal of the militia of the province of Tras-los-Montes in voluntarily serving beyond the frontiers of the kingdom, deserves the highest commendation.

The whole remains of the army of Portugal having been thus collected between this place and Tordesillas, we found their advanced guard yesterday strongly posted on the heights of La Cisterniga; and I know that there was a considerable body of troops in and about this town.

As it was late in the day before our troops had crossed the Douro, we did not move forward till this morning. The enemy retired from La Cisterniga during the night; and they abandoned the town on our approach to it in the morning, and crossed the Pisuerga, and blew up the bridge. They were closely followed by the Honourable Lieutenant-Colonel Frederick Rousonby with a detachment of the 12th light dragoons through the town; but some time having elapsed before the infantry could come up, the enemy could not be prevented from destroying the bridge.

They then retired along the right of the Pisuerga to Dueñas, where their rear will probably halt this night.

When General Foy moved towards Astorga, the army of Galicia retired; and since his march to the Douro, they have again advanced to the Esla.

The Empecinado has informed me that General Villa Campa had taken prisoners the troops which had been the garrison, and had evacuated Cuéncza after the surrender of the Retiro. These troops amounted to one thousand men, with two guns, and belonged to Suchet's army. My last accounts from Lieutenant-General Maitland are of the 24th.

My Lord, Valladolid, Sept. 8, 1812.

SINCE I wrote my dispatch of the 7th, I have received a dispatch of the 29th from Lieutenant-General Sir Rowland Hill, from Llerena, to which place the General had moved in pursuit of the troops under General Drouet.

He sends me the enclosed letter from Colonel Skerrett*, who commands the British and Portuguese troops, which compose part of the detachment under General Cruz, from which I learn that the allies had entered Seville on the 27th. I conclude that the blockade of Cadiz is raised, as I have received several accounts of the destruction of military stores at Seville by the enemy, before they withdrew their force from thence, but I have received no authentic account of the raising of the blockade.

* Already published.

I beg to congratulate your Lordship upon these events.

I have halted here this day to give rest to the troops, which have marched for several days.

I have the honour to be, &c.

WELLINGTON.

Carlton-House, September 22, 1812.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon His Royal Highness the Prince Regent (being introduced by the Marquess of Hertford) with the following Address, which was read by John Silvester, Esq. the Recorder.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, with reverential awe and gratitude to the Supreme Giver of all Victory, humbly approach your Royal Highness, to express our joy and exultation on the important and splendid victory, obtained by the valour and intrepidity of the allied army under the command of the Marquess of Wellington, over the hostile army of France, led by Marshal Marmont, at the battle of Salamanca.

To appreciate the heroism of the noble Marquess and his brave army, would be to recount a series of as brilliant achievements as have adorned the pages of British history; and we indulge a hope, that these glorious exploits will animate the Spanish nation to persevere in the noble contest for the recovery of their liberties, and preservation of their country.

We humbly beg your Royal Highness will accept our warmest congratulations on these splendid events, obtained by the superior talents of His Majesty's magnanimous commander, and the bravery of the allied army.

Permit us to assure your Royal Highness, that His Majesty's faithful citizens of London hail with gratitude every event that may, by perseverance, and the adoption of wise and vigorous measures, seconded by the ardour, emulation, and gallantry of His Majesty's army and navy, afford to your Royal Highness the opportunity of giving suffering Europe the blessings of peace.

Signed by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to return the following most gracious answer.

"I thank you for this loyal and dutiful Address.

"Your congratulations on the successes which, by the favour of Divine Providence, have attended the operations of the allied army in Spain and Portugal, under the conduct of its illustrious commander the Marquess of Wellington, and more especially on the signal and decisive victory recently obtained at Salamanca, cannot fail to afford me the greatest satisfaction.

"The exultation which has been displayed in consequence of these splendid events by all descriptions of His Majesty's subjects, your participation in which is expressed in a manner so worthy of the City of London, is highly honourable to the feelings and character of the nation, and fully manifests the importance attached by the people of this country to a cause, which equally involves the independence of the Peninsula, and the best interests of the United Kingdom.

"It is only from unabated vigour, and steady perseverance in the exertions which the present crisis demands, that we can derive a well-founded hope of being enabled to surmount the difficulties with which we have to contend, and to accomplish the ultimate object of our wishes and efforts—a secure and honourable peace."

They were all received very graciously, and had the honour of kissing the hand of the Prince Regent.

Whitehall, September 26, 1812.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to nominate and appoint Major-General the Honourable Charles William Stewart to be an Extra Knight of the most Honourable Military Order of the Bath.

Admiralty-Office, September 26, 1812.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Harper, of His Majesty's Sloop Saracen, to Admiral Sir Richard Bickerton, Bart. dated Spithead, 23d instant, and transmitted by the last-mentioned Officer to J. W. Croker, Esq.

WHILST proceeding, in pursuance of your orders of the 21st instant, last evening at sun-set, thick hazy weather, Beachy Head bearing N. by W. distant seven or eight miles, I observed in the S. S. E. two large luggers, in chase of, and very near, three deep-laden English vessels.

I instantly made all sail for their protection, and, after a short but anxious chase, succeeded in capturing Le Courier, French lugger privateer, of fourteen guns and fifty men, commanded by Mr. Juan, and belonging to Calais. The French Captain, and two of the crew, were desperately wounded before they surrendered.

The other lugger, named L'Honore, of equal force, having got at a great distance whilst securing the one I boarded, and dark night coming on, I am sorry it was not in my power to capture; but I completely drove her off the coast, and I have every reason to believe that the three vessels they were in chase of, escaped.

Foreign-Office, September 23, 1812.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint Richard Allen, Esq. to be His Majesty's Consul in the kingdom of Galicia, the principality of Asturias, and the territory of Saint Amand.

Whitehall, September 17, 1812.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the following anonymous threatening letters have lately been received by George Bellamy, Esq. Mayor of the borough of Plymouth, of which the following are copies, viz.

To the Mayor of Plymouth
Beware of your Life
Bellamy

You must inevitably die

“ Dont be too secure”
“ tis doubtful if the £500 reward will save
“ your Life! the Plot is deep and resolutely de“ termined upon—When you go from the Guild“ hall, after tis dark, take care how you pass by “ the Lane that leads down to Courtis’s Waggon-“ Warehouse—And be sure to avoid going through
“ the Old Church Yard after Nine o’Clock”!!!

“ This Comes from one who Repents
“ having been Concerned in the Plot, who “ now Wishes to preserve your Life but
“ who being Sworn will not betray.”

“ The Mayor”

“ Plymouth”

“ Dublin Augt. 27. 1812.”

“ George Bellamy Esqr.”
“ You shall die soon nothing Human
“ can prevent Your Death.”

“ The Enemy’s of Ireland shall get a “ terrible blow soon.”
“ George Bellamy Esqr.”
“ Mayor”
“ Plymouth”

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in writing and sending such letters, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty’s most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually wrote the same) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Mayor and Commonalty of Plymouth to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

BREACH OF PAROLE.

Whitehall, September 18, 1812.

Whereas the French General of Brigade Maurin, and his brother, Captain Maurin, did, on the 1st of this month, abscond from Abergeany, in violation of their parole of honour, and there is every reason to suppose that they were aided in their escape by the same British subject, or subjects, who had formerly aided in the escape of the French General Le Febvre from Cheltenham.

A reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons who shall give such information as may lead to the conviction of the British subject or subjects who aided the said General Maurin and his brother in their escape from this kingdom.—The said reward to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury.

The said prisoners are supposed to have embarked at Deal, or its neighbourhood, on board a boat named the Star, of Deal, John Lewis, Master, and to have been landed at Boulogne on or about Friday the 4th instant. The said boat is supposed to be the property of a man named Richard Waddle, of Dynchurch, and was seized in the Channel a few days since, on her return from the opposite coast, with a cargo of spirits.

Admiralty-Office, September 23, 1812.

WIDOWS’ PENSIONS.

Notice is hereby given, that the Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, receiving pensions from the Charity established for their relief, will be paid their pensions due on the 31st of August last, at No. 10, New-Square, Lincoln’s-Inn, London, by Edward Finch Hatton, Esq. the Paymaster of the said Charity, viz. the Widows of Captains, Lieutenants, and Masters, on Saturday the 10th of next month; the Widows of Boatswains and Gunners, on Monday the 12th; and the Widows of Carpenters, Pursers, Surgeons, and Second Masters, on Tuesday the 13th; and on every succeeding Thursday, between the hours of ten and twelve.

And notice is further given, that remittance bills will be sent on the 10th of next month, to those Widows resident in the country, who have requested to be paid their pensions near the respective places of their residence.

J. W. CROKER.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a bill to divide, allot, and inclose all such commonable lands and waste grounds as lie within the manor of Fawley, and within or which belong to that part of the manor of Bitterne which is within the parish of Fawley or elsewhere, on the Fawley side of the Southampton water, being part of or belonging to the said manor of Bitterne, in the county of Southampton.—Dated this 4th day of September 1812.

John Barney, Solicitor.

Notice is hereby given, that an application is about to be made to Parliament in the ensuing sessions, for leave to bring in a bill to enable certain persons to form themselves into a Joint Stock Company, for the purpose of purchasing of, or accepting and taking a lease, from the Right Reverend Lord Bishop of London, of certain waters and springs, and their conduits and appurtenances, in the several parishes of Mary-le-Bone and Paddington, in the county of Middlesex, for better supplying the inhabitants of the cities of London and Westminster, and the suburbs thereof, with spring water.

and occupiers of the land through which the said navigable cut or canal is intended to pass, will be deposited for public inspection at the offices of the Clerks of the Peace for the said county and liberty of Havering atte Bower, pursuant to the orders of the said Honourable House of Commons.—24th August 1812.

Wasey Sterry, Solicitor, Romford.

BANKERS' LICENCES.

Stamp-Office, London, September 19, 1812.

Notice is hereby given, that, by the Stamp Act, 48 Geo. 3, c. 149, all licences granted to Bankers or others, to issue promissory notes, payable to the bearer on demand, and allowed to be re-issued, will expire on the 10th of October next, and that they must be renewed within one month from that day, or penalties will be incurred.

That a separate licence must be taken out for every place where the notes shall be issued, unless the persons to be licensed had issued their notes at several places before the 2d July 1808, and originally obtained one licence for all such places; in which case only, they will be again included in one licence.

That every licence must specify the names and places of abode of the persons to be licensed, and the name of the place or places where, and the name of the bank, firm, or title under which, the notes are to be issued; and licences to persons in partnership must specify the names, and places of abode, of all the persons concerned in the partnership, whether all their names appear in the notes or not; and in default thereof the licences will be void. With these particulars a specimen of the notes must also be left at this Office, by the persons applying for such licences.

That a penalty of 100l. for every offence is imposed on the issuing of promissory notes, of the description aforesaid, without a licence, or at any other place, or under any other firm or title, than is specified in the licence; and a penalty of 50l. for every offence is imposed on the issuing of promissory notes of any description, or bills of exchange, not duly stamped, and on the re-issuing of promissory notes not allowed to be re-issued, as well as on the re-issuing of notes allowed to be re-issued after the period fixed for that purpose.

The Commissioners of Stamps having had occasion to prosecute several country Bankers, for the penalties incurred by their disregard of the provisions of the Act, this notice is given that all persons concerned may in future conform thereto, and avoid the penalties for which they will otherwise be prosecuted; and that persons applying for licences, may come prepared with all the requisite particulars to be inserted therein, without which the licences cannot be filled up, so as to protect the parties against the penalties of the Act.

By order of the Commissioners,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

The theatre will open on the 10th of October next.

Theatre Royal, Drury-Lane.

THE Sub-Committee of Management having taken into consideration the best and most effectual method of discharging that part of the duties imposed upon them by the Act of the last session, whereby they are authorised and enjoined to establish regulations and conditions relative to all free admissions to the said theatre; for the prevention of frauds relative to the said admissions, as they shall from time to time deem necessary or expedient, and all such free admissions having been by the said Act made subject to such regulations and conditions; do hereby give notice, that all persons claiming right of free admission to the said theatre, whether personal, transferable, or by nomination, must, three days at the least previous to the exercise of such right, personally attend at the Treasury-Office in Drury-Lane, between the hours of ten in the morning and four in the afternoon, for the purpose of inscribing in a book, to be kept by the Secretary for that purpose, his or her name and place of residence; and it is required of every person so attending for the purpose of inscribing his or her name and place of residence, to produce to the Secretary his or her right or title to such privilege of free admission, unless evidence of such right or title shall have been previously sent to the Secretary.

And notice is hereby given, that no person whatever claiming right of free admission will be admitted the exercise of such right of free admission, unless he or she shall have complied with such regulation and condition heretofore described.

By order of the Committee,

C. W. Ward, Secretary.

Drury-Lane, September 18, 1812.

Attendance at the Old Treasury-Office in Drury-Lane, from ten till four daily.

Published by Authority of Parliament,

JOHN JAMES CATHERWOOD, Receiver of Corn Returns.

THE

AVERAGE PRICE OF BROWN OR MUSCOVADO SUGAR,

Computed from the RETURNS made in the Week ending the 23d day of September 1812,

Is Forty-six Shillings and Nine Pence Farthing per Hundred

Weight,

Exclusive of the Duties of Customs paid or payable thereon on the IMPORTATION thereof into GREAT BRITAIN.

Grocers' Hall,
September 26, 1812.

By Authority of Parliament,

THOMAS NETTLESHIFF, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
June 13, 1812.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give notice, that at Salter's-Hall, in London, on Wednesday the 30th day of December next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undernamed farm will be let on lease, to commence upon the 12th day of May next, for the term of fourteen years, that is to say, Thornbrough High Barns Farm, in the parish of Corbridge, in the county of Northumberland.

Such persons as may be desirous of taking the said farm, are requested to deliver or send their proposals in writing to John Dyer, Esq. at Greenwich Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof at that place shall not be later than on Tuesday the 29th day of December next; and all such proposals as shall be received after that day will be returned as inadmissible.

Such alterations and additional buildings as may be thought essentially necessary by the Receivers, and approved by the Directors of Greenwich Hospital, will be made as soon as conveniently can be after the commencement of the term, the tenant being at the expence of leading all materials.

In the present and all future lettings by the Commissioners and Governors of Greenwich Hospital, the tenants will be required to pay one moiety of the expence of the leases.

Mr. Anthony Wailes, of Bearl, will shew the farm; and Messrs. Forster and Wailes, upon being applied to at their office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give any further particulars which it may be necessary to require.

Guildhall, London, September 22, 1812.

SUNDAY TOLLS.

THE Commissioners appointed to carry into execution an Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of His present Majesty, for consolidating, &c. the several Acts of Parliament for paving, cleansing, and lighting the City of London and liberties thereof, do hereby give notice, that they will meet in the Council Chamber of the Guildhall of the said City, on Tuesday the 29th day of September instant, at five o'clock in the afternoon, to receive proposals (sealed up) for a lease, for three years from Michaelmas Day next, of the tolls directed by the said Act to be paid before any cattle or carriage shall be permitted to pass on a Sunday through any or either of the turnpikes hereafter mentioned, or through any turnpike to be erected by virtue of the said Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, near the same, viz.

The turnpike at Mile-End,
Bethnal-Green,
Hackney,
Kingsland,
Ball's Pond, or Pound, near
Islington,
Holloway,
St. John's-Street,
Goswell-Street,
And the New Road, commonly called the City-Road;

That is to say, for every coach, chariot, berlin, chair, chaise, calash, or other carriage, drawn by six or more horses or mules, the sum of ten pence;

For every coach, chariot, berlin, chaise, chair, calash, or other carriage, drawn by four horses or mules, the sum of eight pence;

For every coach, chariot, berlin, chaise, chair, calash, or other carriage, drawn by three or two horses or mules, the sum of six pence;

For every chaise, chair, calash, or other carriage, drawn by one horse or mule, the sum of three pence;

And for every horse, mule, or ass, not drawing, one penny;

Subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of the said Act, that persons shall not be liable to the payment of the said tolls more than once a day for passing or re-passing with the same cattle or carriage.

The lessee is to pay down 100*l.* as a deposit in part of the first quarter's rent, which is to be paid in advance before the execution of the lease; and also to continue to pay one quarter in advance during the term of the said lease.

The proposals (sealed up) are to be delivered at the Sewer's Office, Guildhall, before twelve o'clock on Tuesday next, which will not be read unless the proposer attends the said Commissioners at their public meeting.

William Bond, Principal Clerk.

N. B. The said tolls for the present year were let at the sum of 1475*l.*

Plymouth, September 19, 1812.

Notice is hereby given, that an Account Sales and Proceeds of the Fortuna and cargo, Jan Daene, jun. late Master, captured by His Majesty's ship Semiramis, Charles Richardson, Esq. Captain, on the 6th July 1811, will be deposited in the Registry of the High Court of Admiralty, agreeable to Act of Parliament.

James Sykes, of London, and Thos. Cole, of Plymouth, Agents.

London, September 22, 1812.

Notice is hereby given to the officers and men of the following regiments, corps, detachments, and departments, civil and military, who were actually present at the surrender of Flushing, on the 16th of August 1809, that on account of the proportion of the proceeds awarded to the Army by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, for the value of the stores of war, ordnance, arms, ammunition, and other booty, captured in the island of Walcheren and its dependencies, a distribution of such proceeds will be made on Wednesday the 21st day of October next, to the officers and men belonging to the said regiments, corps, &c. at the Savoy-Square, Strand, London, between the hours of half-past ten in the morning and half-past three in the afternoon; and to be recalled for three months on every succeeding Wednesday and Thursday, pursuant to Act of Parliament.
