

Whitehall, September 17, 1812.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the following anonymous threatening letters have lately been received by George Bellamy, Esq. Mayor of the borough of Plymouth, of which the following are copies, viz.

To the Mayor of Plymouth
Beware of your Life
Bellamy

You must inevitably die

“ Dont be too secure”

“ tis doubtful if the £500 reward will save your Life! the Plot is deep and resolutely determined upon—When you go from the Guildhall, after tis dark, take care how you pass by the Lane that leads down to Courtis's Waggon-Warehouse—And be sure to avoid going through the Old Church Yard after Nine o'Clock”!!!

“ This Comes from one who Repents having been Concerned in the Plot, who now Wishes to preserve your Life but who being Sworn will not betray.”

“ The Mayor”

“ of ”

“ Plymouth”

“ Dublin Augt. 27. 1812.”

“ George Bellamy Esqr.”

“ You shall die soon nothing Human can prevent Your Death.”

“ The Enemy's of Ireland shall get a

“ terrible blow soon.”

“ George Bellamy Esqr.”

“ Mayor”

“ Plymouth”

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in writing and sending such letters, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually wrote the same) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Mayor and Commonalty of Plymouth to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

BREACH OF PAROLE.

Whitehall, September 18, 1812.

Whereas the French General of Brigade Maurin, and his brother, Captain Maurin, did, on the 1st of this month, abscond from Abergeany, in violation of their parole of honour, and there is every reason to suppose that they were aided in their escape by the same British subject, or subjects, who had formerly aided in the escape of the French General Le Febvre from Cheltenham.

A reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons who shall give such information as may lead to the conviction of the British subject or subjects who aided the said General Maurin and his brother in their escape from this kingdom.—The said reward to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

The said prisoners are supposed to have embarked at Deal, or its neighbourhood, on board a boat named the Star, of Deal, John Lewis, Master, and to have been landed at Boulogne on or about Friday the 4th instant. The said boat is supposed to be the property of a man named Richard Waddle, of Dynchurch, and was seized in the Channel a few days since, on her return from the opposite coast, with a cargo of spirits.

Admiralty-Office, September 23, 1812.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

Notice is hereby given, that the Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, receiving pensions from the Charity established for their relief, will be paid their pensions due on the 31st of August last, at No. 10, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn, London, by Edward Finch Hatton, Esq. the Paymaster of the said Charity, viz. the Widows of Captains, Lieutenants, and Masters, on Saturday the 10th of next month; the Widows of Boatswains and Gunners, on Monday the 12th; and the Widows of Carpenters, Pursers, Surgeons, and Second Masters, on Tuesday the 13th; and on every succeeding Thursday, between the hours of ten and twelve.

And notice is further given, that remittance bills will be sent on the 10th of next month, to those Widows resident in the country, who have requested to be paid their pensions near the respective places of their residence.

J. W. CROKER.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a bill to divide, allot, and inclose all such commonable lands and waste grounds as lie within the manor of Fawley, and within or which belong to that part of the manor of Bitterne which is within the parish of Fawley or elsewhere, on the Fawley side of the Southampton water, being part of or belonging to the said manor of Bitterne, in the county of Southampton.—Dated this 4th day of September 1812.

John Barney, Solicitor.

Notice is hereby given, that an application is about to be made to Parliament in the ensuing sessions, for leave to bring in a bill to enable certain persons to form themselves into a Joint Stock Company, for the purpose of purchasing of, or accepting and taking a lease, from the Right Reverend Lord Bishop of London, of certain waters and springs, and their conduits and appurtenances, in the several parishes of Mary-le-Bone and Paddington, in the county of Middlesex, for better supplying the inhabitants of the cities of London and Westminster, and the suburbs thereof, with spring water.
