London, September 23, 1812.

Notice is hereby given, that the Half-yearly Meeting of Proprietors of the Globe Insurance Company will be held at the Company's Office in Cornhill, on Thursday the 29th day of October next, at one o'clock precisely.

By order of the Board,
John Charles Denham, Secretary.

THE Court of Assistants of the Russia Company give notice, that a General Court of the said Company will be held at the Office of the Corporation for Seamen in the Merchant Seamen's Office over the Royal Exchange, London, on Friday the 2d October next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the election of an agent to the Company at St. Petersburg, in the room of Sir Stephen Shairp, resigned.

J. A. De Riemer, Secretary.

Gas Light and Coke Company, No. 96,
Pall-Mall, September 25, 1812.

THE Court of Directors of this Company hereby give notice, that it suspends the opening of its books for receiving subscriptions for shares unsubscribed for, until further notice.

J. Pedder, Secretary.

Rebuilding of Drury-Lane Theatre.

BY the Act passed in the last session of Parliament it is enacted, "that the free admission to the said intended new theatre, as well of the nominees of subscribers of five or more shares, as by virtue of the grants of free admission made or executed, or to be made or executed, to any person or persons by virtue of this Act or otherwise, and every other free admission in or to any part of the said intended new theatre, shall be subject and liable to such regulations and conditions as the Sub-Committee for the time being of the said Company of Proprietors hereinafter directed to be formed for the management of the said theatre and theatrical performances, shall from time to time deem necessary or expedient, and shall make for the government and management of the said intended new theatre, for the prevention of frauds relative to admissions thereto; and all such regulations and conditions shall be good and valid, any thing in the said recited Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding."

In pursuance of the provisions of the said Act above recited, notice is hereby given to all persons claiming to have the right of naming to free admission in the new theatre once in every year, in right of certain debentures of 500l. subscribed towards the building of the late theatre, commonly called "New Renters Shares," that they must send an account of the persons by them respectively nominated to free admission for the ensuing season, addressed to the Secretary of the Company in the form following, seven days at the least previous to the exercise of the privilege of such free admission.

By order of the Sub-Committee of Management,
C. W. Ward, Secretary.

Treasury-Office, Drury-Lane,
September 3, 1812.

The theatre will open on the 10th of October next.

Theatre Royal, Drury-Lane.

THE Sub-Committee of Management having taken into consideration the best and most effectual method of discharging that part of the duties imposed upon them by the Act of the last session, whereby they are authorised and enjoined to establish regulations and conditions relative to all free admissions to the said theatre; for the prevention of frauds relative to the said admissions, as they shall from time to time deem necessary or expedient, and all such free admissions having been by the said Act made subject to such regulations and conditions; do hereby give notice, that all persons claiming right of free admission to the said theatre, whether personal, transferable, or by nomination, must, three days at the least previous to the exercise of such right, personally attend at the Treasury-Office in Drury-Lane, between the hours of ten in the morning and four in the afternoon, for the purpose of inscribing in a book, to be kept by the Secretary for that purpose, his or her name and place of residence; and it is required of every person so attending for the purpose of inscribing his or her name and place of residence, to produce to the Secretary his or her right or title to such privilege of free admission, unless evidence of such right or title shall have been previously sent to the Secretary.

And notice is hereby given, that no person whatever claiming right of free admission will be admitted the exercise of such right of free admission, unless he or she shall have complied with such regulation and condition heretofore described.

By order of the Committee,

C. W. Ward, Secretary.
