

10th of August last. A four gun battery which commanded the right of the harbour was gallantly stormed and taken possession of by the marines, and two vessels in the port were carried by the boats, one of them, a brig of two hundred tons, laden with timbers and beams for a line of battle ship, was brought out; the other, a bombard, laden with naval stores, got aground and was scuttled.— Captain Sir Peter Parker highly commends the conduct of all the officers and men employed upon this occasion. The loss sustained by them was one midshipman (Mr. George Thomas Munro), and one seaman killed, and five men wounded.
