AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 29th of September 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, was pleased, by His Order in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, bearing date the twenty-eighth of February one thousand eight hundred and eleven, to direct that certain questions; in addition to the preliminary questions directed by His Majesty's general Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five; touching the performance of quarantine, should be put to the commander, master, or other person having the charge of any ships or vessels coming from or having touched at any port or place on the continent of America, or the islands adjacent thereto, or coming from, or having touched at, any of the ports in the West Indies; and whereas it is deemed expedient that the following question should be placed at the head of the several questions so directed to be put by this Order in Council of the twenty-eighth of February one thousand eight hundred and eleven, viz.

“ In the course of your voyage have any persons on board suffered from sickness of any kind; what was the nature of such sickness; and when did it prevail? How many persons were affected by it? And have any of them died in the course of the voyage?”

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the question above set forth be placed at the head of the several questions directed to be put by the aforementioned Order in Council of the twenty-eighth of February one thousand eight hundred and eleven, to the commanders, masters, or other persons having charge of ships or vessels coming from, or having touched at any port or place on the Continent of America, or the islands adjacent thereto, or coming from, or having touched at, any of the ports in the West Indies; and His Royal Highness is further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice
