

by Caravaca General Ballasteros entered Grenada on the 17th.

General Elio, who now commands the troops lately commanded by General Joseph O'Donnell, took Consuegra by capitulation on the 22d instant.

I enclose a return of the killed and wounded since the 20th instant.

Return of Killed, Wounded, and Missing of the Army under the Command of His Excellency General the Marquess of Wellington, K. B. in the Siege of the Castle of Burgos, from the 20th to the 26th September 1812, inclusive.

Royal Artillery—1 captain, 3 rank and file, wounded.

Royal Engineers—1 captain killed; 1 rank and file wounded.

9th Regiment acting ditto—1 captain wounded.

Acting Engineer (61st Reg. 1st Batt.)—1 lieutenant wounded.

Coldstream Guards, 1st Batt.—13 rank and file killed; 1 major, 2 serjeants, 39 rank and file, wounded.

3d Guards, 1st Batt.—6 rank and file killed; 1 ensign, 1 serjeant, 35 rank and file wounded.

2d Foot (Queen's)—2 rank and file killed; 8 rank and file wounded.

11th Foot, 1st Batt.—1 rank and file wounded.

24th Foot, 2d Batt.—5 rank and file killed; 1 lieutenant, 2 serjeants, 6 rank and file, wounded.

32d Foot, 1st Batt.—4 rank and file wounded.

36th Foot, 1st Batt.—4 rank and file killed; 7 rank and file wounded.

42d Foot, 1st Batt.—1 ensign, 3 rank and file, killed; 1 captain, 1 lieutenant, 1 serjeant, 27 rank and file, wounded.

58th Foot, 2d Batt.—1 rank and file killed; 8 rank and file wounded.

61st Foot, 1st Batt.—1 rank and file killed.

79th Foot, 1st Batt.—1 major, 1 serjeant, killed; 1 captain, 18 rank and file, wounded.

1st Line Batt. King's German Legion.—1 serjeant, 7 rank and file, killed; 1 lieutenant, 4 serjeants, 36 rank and file, wounded.

2d Ditto, Ditto—1 captain, 1 lieutenant, 5 rank and file, killed; 1 captain, 23 rank and file, wounded.

5th Ditto, Ditto—1 rank and file wounded.

Total British Loss—1 major, 2 captains, 1 lieutenant, 1 ensign, 2 serjeants, 47 rank and file killed; 6 captains, 4 lieutenants, 1 ensign, 10 serjeants, 217 rank and file wounded.

Total Portuguese Loss—1 captain, 1 ensign, 3 rank and file killed; 1 major, 3 serjeants, 47 rank and file wounded.

Total British and Portuguese Loss—1 major, 3 captains, 1 lieutenant, 2 ensigns, 2 serjeants, 50 rank and file killed; 1 major, 6 captains, 4 lieutenants, 1 ensign, 13 serjeants, 264 rank and file wounded.

No. 16657.

B

Names of British and Portuguese Officers killed and wounded from the 20th to the 26th September 1812, inclusive.

Killed.

1st Batt. 79th Foot—Major Lawrie.

2d Batt. Line, King's German Legion—Captain Scharnhorst and Lieutenant Hansing.

1st Batt. 42d Foot—Ensign Cullen.

Royal Engineers—Captain Williams.

13th Portuguese Regiment—Captain J. L. Pessos.

9th Caçadores—Ensign J. R. D. A. Castro.

Wounded.

1st Batt. 42d Foot—Lieutenant M'Kinnon, severely.

1st Batt. Line, King's German Legion—Lieutenant Rossing, severely.

2d Ditto—Captain Breymann, slightly.

1st Batt. Coldstream Guards—Captain Frasier, severely.

1st Bat. 3d Foot Guards—Ensign Hall, slightly.

61st Foot—Lieutenant Stewart, Acting Engineer, severely.

1st Bat. 42d Foot—Captain Williamson, severely.

2d Bat. 24th Foot—Lieutenant Walton, severely, since dead.

Royal Artillery—Captain Dancey, slightly.

9th Regiment—Captain Kenny, Acting Engineer, dangerously.

1st Bat. 79th Foot—Captain Marshall, slightly.

9th Caçadores—Major L. M. de Cerqueira.

THE following Addresses has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Provost and Magistrates of the Royal Borough of Wick, in Common Council assembled.

WE, the Provost and Magistrates of the Royal Borough of Wick, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the dutiful expression of our attachment to your person, and of congratulation on the signal successes which have recently attended His Majesty's arms and those of our allies on the Peninsula, successes no less advantageous to the country than glorious to those by whom they were achieved. We are proud to acknowledge, though unable to do justice to the consummate skill and intrepidity of the illustrious Conqueror of Salamanca, whose merits are only equalled by his modesty, and whose exertions can only be compared to his success. And we trust that the day is not far distant when the complete liberation of our allies on the Peninsula will be effected; which is at once the chief aim and the best reward both of their exertions and of our own.

Although our local situation is remote from the seat of government, it neither precludes us from a participation in the blessings of the constitution, nor renders us less sensible of their value. In common with the nation at large, we have viewed with satisfaction and with gratitude, the unremitting exertions of Your Royal Highness, to promote the general prosperity, and restore the internal tran-