

“and trading to the East Indies, or not being imported from the West Indies, may be secured in the warehouses within the premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without the duties due on the importation thereof, being first paid”.

Rice, Tobacco, Wine,
Brandy, Geneva, and other Spirits,

And whereas certain vaults for wine and spirits, and warehouses for other articles of merchandize, and other parts of the said works have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and are now in use: And whereas the vaults herein-after mentioned, part of the said works, have been since completed;

We, being three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do certify, that in our judgement the second division of the vaults situate under the new tobacco warehouse at the east end of the dock, are so far completed as to be fit and ready, in every respect, for the reception of wine, brandy, geneva, and other spirits.

Notice is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to improve the navigation of the river called the Nar, from the harbour or port of King's Lynn, in the county of Norfolk, through or adjoining the several parishes and hamlets of South Lynn, All Saints, West Winch, Secch, Setchy, Wornegay, North Runcton, and Middleton, or any of them, to a certain place called Pentney Mill, in the county aforesaid, or through or adjoining any other parish or place between the said harbour or port, and the place called Pentney Mill aforesaid, through which the aforesaid river runs; for the purpose of draining the lands adjoining or near the said river, and for regulating the halage of vessels with horses or other beasts on the banks thereof.—Dated this 8th day of September 1812.

By order,

Wm. Yarington, Solicitor.

Navy-Office, June 1, 1812.

SUPERIOR CLASS OF SHIPWRIGHT APPRENTICES.

BY His Majesty's Order in Council, dated 20th September 1809, a plan of education was established at the Royal Naval College at Portsmouth, for a superior class of apprentices to shipwrights, and it being determined that four more students shall be admitted; the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy hereby give notice, that the examination of candidates will take place in His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Portsmouth, on the 4th November next, at eight o'clock in the morning; and that such persons as may be desirous of becoming candidates for admission, are required to send notice of their intention to the Navy Board, or the Commissioner of the aforesaid Yard, on or before the 1st day of that month.

The candidates must be at least fifteen, and not more than seventeen years of age.

The plan of education may be obtained on application at the Navy-Office, or the Office of the Commissioner of any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards; where also information may be obtained as to the nature of the qualifications required of the candidates, the documents they are to produce on the day of examination, the salaries they will be allowed on being admitted students, and of the offices to which they will be eligible after they have served the term of apprenticeship.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Navy-Office, September 25, 1812.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Monday the 19th of next month, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Sir Robert Barlow will put up to sale, at his office in His Majesty's Yard at Chatham, several lots of Old Stores, consisting of all lying in the said yard.

Old Rope, Junk, Oakum, Shakings, Boltrope, Canvas, Buntin, Sunn Hemp, Fearnought, Blocks, Toppets, Hides, Casks, &c. &c.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner of the yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the yard.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

CONTRACT FOR TWINE.

Navy-Office, September 29, 1812.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 21st of next month, at one o'clock, they will be ready to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-Yards, or any one or more of them, with Twine.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends:

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of 500l. for the due performance of the contract.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Navy-Office, October 15, 1812.
