From Saturday, October 17, to Tuesday, October 20, 1812.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of October 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE RÉGENT in Council.

WHEREAS, in consequence of information having been received of a Declaration of War by the Government of the United States of America against His Majesty, and of the issue of Letters of Marque and Reprisal by the said Government against His Majesty and his subjects, an Order in Council, bearing date the thirty-first of July last, was issued, directing that American ships and goods should be brought in and detained till further orders; and whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, forbore at that time to direct Letters of Marque and Reprisal to be issued against the ships, goods, and citizens of the said United States of America, under the expectation that the said Government would, upon the notification of the Order in Council of the twenty-third of June last, forthwith recall and annul the said Declaration of War against His Majesty, and also annul the said Letters of Marque and Reprisal:

And whereas the said Government of the United States of America, upon due notification to them of the said Order in Council of the twenty-third of June last, did not think fit to recall the said Declaration of War and Letters of Marque and Reprisal, but have proceeded to condemn and persisted in condemning the ships and property of His Majesty's subjects as prize of war, and have refused to ratify a suspension of arms agreed upon between Lieutenant-General Sir George Prevost, His Majesty's Governor-General of Canada, and General Dearborn, commanding the American forces in the Northern Provinces of the United States, and have directed hostilities to be recommenced in that quarter:

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is hereby pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that General Reprisals be granted against the ships, goods, and citizens of the United States of America, and others inhabiting within the territories thereof (save and except any vessels to which His Majesty's licence has been granted, or which have been directed to be released from the embargo, and have not terminated the original voyage on which they were detained and released), so that as well His Majesty's fleets and ships, as also all other ships and vessels that shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque or General Reprisals, or otherwise by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all ships, vessels, and goods belonging to the Government of the United States of America, or the citizens thereof, or others inhabiting within the territories thereof, and bring the same to judgment in any of the Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's dominions; and to that end His Majesty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the draught of a commission, and present the same to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent at this Board, authorising the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any person or persons by them empowered and appointed, to issue forth and grant Letters of Marque and Reprisals, to any of His Majesty's subjects, or others whom the said Commissioners shall deem fitly qualified in that behalf, for the apprehending, seizing, and taking the ships, vessels, and goods belonging to the Government of the United States of America, or the citizens thereof, or others inhabiting within the countries, territories, or dominions thereof (except as aforesaid), and that such powers and clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual, and are according to former precedents; and His Majesty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are also forthwith to prepare the draught of a Commission, and present the same to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent at this Board, authorising the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral to will and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the said Court, his Surrogate or Surrogates, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's dominions, to take cognizance of, and judicially proceed upon all and all manner of captures, seizures, prizes, and reprisals of all ships and goods that are or shall be taken, and to hear and determine the same, and, according to the course of Admiralty and the laws of nations, to adjudge and condemn all such ships, vessels, and goods as shall belong to the Government of the United States of America, or the citizens thereof, or to others inhabiting within the countries, territories, and dominions thereof (except as aforesaid); and that such powers and clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual, and are according to former precedents; and they are likewise to prepare and lay before His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, at this Board, a draught of such instructions as may be proper to be sent to the Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's Foreign Governments and plantations, for their guidance herein, as also another draught of instructions for such ships as shall be commissioned for the purpose above-mentioned.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is nevertheless pleased hereby to declare, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that nothing in this Order contained shall be understood to recall or affect the Declaration which His Majesty's Naval Commander on the American station has been authorised to make to the Government of the United States of America—namely, that His Royal Highness, animated by a sincere desire to arrest the calamities of war, has authorised the said Commander to sign a Convention, recalling and annulling, from a day to be named, all hostile Orders issued by the respective Governments, with a view of restoring without delay the relations of amity and commerce between His Majesty and the United States of America.

From the Court at Carlton-House, the thirteenth of October one thousand eight hundred and twelve.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty," it is enacted, that it should be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees of any of the goods, wares, or merchandize enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (B), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure the same under the joint locks of the Crown and the London Dock Company, in any warehouse or warehouses, erected or to be erected, situate within the premises of the London Dock Company, without payment at the time of the first entry of such goods, wares, and merchandize, of the duties of Customs or Excise due on the importation thereof; subject nevertheless to the rules, regulations, and restrictions therein contained; provided that no such goods, wares, or merchandize should be so lodged or secured, unless and until such warehouses or other works belonging or to belong thereto, should be so far completed that in the judgement of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every respect for the reception of such goods, wares, and merchandize, and wherein the same might respectively be safely and securely lodged, and remain under the regulations and directions in the said act contained; and the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, were thereby authorized and empowered, in writing under his or their hand or hands, to certify and make known his or their approbation of such warehouses; which certificate should be published three times at least in the London Gazette, and in two or more public morning newspapers usually circulated in London: And whereas the table marked (B) above referred to, is in the words following; viz.

"A list of articles which (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or not being imported from the West Indies,) may be secured in the warehouses within the premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without the duties due on the importation thereof being first paid."

Rice,	Tobacco,	Wine;
Brandy,	Geneva,	and other Spirits;

And whereas certain vaults for wine and spirits, and warehouses for other articles of merchandize and other parts of the said works have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and are now in use: And whereas the vaults herein-after mentioned, part of the said works, have been since completed;

We, being three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do certify, that in our judgement the second division of the vaults situate under the new tobacco warehouse at the east end of the dock, are so far completed as to be fit and ready, in every respect, for the reception of wine, brandy, geneva, and other spirits.

DEMERARY.

BENJAMIN TEYSSEN, jun. in his capacity as Acting Deputy First Marshal of the Honourable Court of Justice of Demerary, advertises by these presents, for the first, second, and third time, that he, by virtue of a sentence decreed by said Court, and the subsequent execution, will expose and sell at public execution sale, in the month of May 1813, the cotton estate or plantation named Cottage, situated in Little Courabane, on the East Coast of this colony, with all its buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances belonging unto Brumell and Addison, in behalf of Gabriel James, for himself and partner Richard Steevens, plaintiffs in execution.

The inventory of the above-named plantation Cottage is daily to be seen at the Counting-House of Messrs. Barnes and Mac Carthy, Cophthall-Court, in the City of London.

The judicium of præ and concurrence on the nett proceeds of sales of said estate, will be made by the said Honourable Court of Justice three months after the day of sales.

For which cause, all those who may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the nett proceeds of the said estate, or otherwise, are herewith by me, the aforesaid Acting Deputy First Marshal of the Honourable Court of Justice aforesaid, summoned to appear, in person or by their attorneys, on the first day appointed for hearing, which will be held in the month of August 1813, in order to lay their claim in due form, under the penalty that against the non-appears will be proceeded as the law directs.—Rio Demerary, the 7th day of August 1812.

B. TEYSSEN, jun. Acting Deputy First Marshal.

Notice is hereby given, that a second dividend has been declared under a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date the 10th day of March 1810, awarded and issued against George Lye and Edmund Leigh Lye, of the City of Bath, in the County of Somerset, and also of Warminster, in the County of Wilts, Common-Carriers, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners, as well on the joint estate of the said Bankrupts, as also on the separate estates of the said George Lye and Edmund Leigh Lye respectively; and that the several Creditors who have proved their debts may receive such dividend on application at the Bank of Messrs. Clement and Tugwell, in Bath, at any time after the 28th of October instant.—Dated 16th October 1812.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a cause wherein Jehoshaphat Aspin and Sarah Elizabeth his wife are plaintiffs, and Thomas Davison and others defendants, it was amongst other things referred to Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court, whether Philip Key, son of William Key, formerly of Little Eastcheap, in the Parish of Saint Andrew Hubbard, London, Cork-Cutter, deceased, is living or dead; and if dead, whether he died in the lifetime of Sarah Key, the widow of the said William Key, and whether he left any issue.—The said Philip Key served his apprenticeship to a Cabinet-maker at Derby, afterwards worked as a journeyman at York and Manchester, and in the month of November, 1795, came to London on a visit to his mother, (who then resided in John-Street, Blackfriars-Road, in the County of Surrey), and left the same on the Christmas-Day following, and hath not since been heard of, but it is supposed he either went to sea, or returned to Derby, York, or Manchester.—The said Philip Key, if living, is therefore to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof he will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree; and if dead, any person or persons who can give any information respecting the said Philip Key, and when he died, they are requested to give such information at the said Master's Chambers, or to Messrs. Loxley and Son, the Solicitors in the said cause, No. 80, Cheapside, London.
