DEMERARY.

BENJAMIN TEYSSEN, jun. in his capacity as Acting Deputy First Marshal of the Honourable Court of Justice of Demerary, advertises by these presents, for the first, second, and third time, that he, by virtue of a sentence decreed by said Court, and the subsequent execution, will expose and sell at public execution sale, in the month of May 1813, the cotton estate or plantation named Cottage, situated in Little Courabane, on the East Coast of this colony, with all its buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances belonging unto Brumell and Addison, in behalf of Gabriel James, for himself and partner Richard Steevens, plaintiffs in execution.

The inventory of the above-named plantation Cottage is daily to be seen at the Counting-House of Messrs. Barnes and Mac Carthy, Cophthall-Court, in the City of London.

The judicium of præ and concurrence on the nett proceeds of sales of said estate, will be made by the said Honourable Court of Justice three months after the day of sales.

For which cause, all those who may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the nett proceeds of the said estate, or otherwise, are herewith by me, the aforesaid Acting Deputy First Marshal of the Honourable Court of Justice aforesaid, summoned to appear, in person or by their attorneys, on the first day appointed for hearing, which will be held in the month of August 1813, in order to lay their claim in due form, under the penalty that against the non-appears will be proceeded as the law directs.—Rio Demerary, the 7th day of August 1812.

B. TEYSSEN, jun. Acting Deputy First Marshal.
