CHARACTER.

Under the impression which this work has made upon our minds, we can have no hesitation in saying, that it appears entitled to a place in the house of every merchant, ship-owner, or other persons in any respect connected with the maritime commerce and manufactures of the United Kingdom.—The Tradesman, or Commercial Magazine, April 1812.

Mr. Pope appears to us to have performed his task well; and to have compiled a volume which may be said to supply a good clue to the labyrinth of our Custom-House.—Monthly Review, September 1812.
