Vicinit, O.E.b. 30.

From Oedenburg we have an Account, that the Palatine had on the eighth instant presented in the Emperor's name the following Articles to the Dyets:

All the States of the Kingdom, as well the Nobility as Gentry, and all the Free and Priviledged Towns which belong immediately to the Crown, shall enjoy the Liberty and free Exercise of their Religion; provided that the Right of particular Lords be preserved entire. The Hungarian Soldiers which are in Garrison on the Frontiers of the Kingdom shall have the same liberty. It shall not be permitted to either Party to force away the Curates and Ministers of Churches situated in places where the Exercise of their Religion is Established. The Catholics and the Protestants shall not take from each other the Churches possessed by either Party, but they shall remain to those that have possessed them since the year 1670. during the late Troubles. It shall be permitted to the Lutherans and Calvinists; and those comprehended under their Sects, to build a Church in every County, where there is none at present, and there to Exercise their Religion. If they already have a Church there, they shall enjoy it, together with the Revenues thereunto belonging. It shall be permitted to the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the said Counties to build Chappels and Oratories in their Castles for the Exercise of their Religion. The Catholics shall have the free Exercise of their Religion through the whole Kingdom. It shall be permitted the Lutherans at Presburg to build a Church in a convenient place, which shall be assigned them; And they of the Town of Saprony shall remain in possession of the free Exercise of their Religion which they enjoy at present. The Differences that may for the future arise in the matter of Religion shall not be decided by Arms, but determined by the King after hearing of both Parties, and the Eighth Article of the Decree of King Vladislaus shall be confirmed and observed. The several States, and Orders of the Kingdom as well as particular persons, are forbid on pain of the Kings Displeasure to speak ill of the Religions that are permitted, and to injure the Professors thereof.

These Articles having been read in the Dyets, the Protestant States were not at all satisfied with them, and drew up an Answer, wherein they desire that all things may be regulated according to the Decree made in 1647. without regarding the unreasonable Objections of the Roman Catholics.

From Hungary they write, That the Turks and Transilvanians commanded by Prince Abassi continue to besiege Zalchary, and that Count Caprara was marching to the Relief of it. Some Letters add, That the Imperialists had fallen upon a party of the Rebels, and killed and taken Prisoners 300 of them.

Berlin, Nov. 2. The Sieur d' Amerongen, Envoye Extraordinary from the States-General of the United Provinces is daily expected; our last Letters from the Hague, having given us an Account of his departure from thence. From Livonia they write, that the Governour of that Countrey has hitherto forbore to put in execution the King of Sweden's Orders, concerning the Reunion of the Alienated Crown-Lands, finding the Gentry there cannot be brought to submit to it.

Paris, Nov. 1, Novemb. 5. The 27th past the Sieur de St. Romain and the Sieur de Harlay the French Kings Ambassadors made their Publick Entry here. The Imperial Ambassadors have done the like, so that we hope the Controversie will now be suddenly begun; if the Differences between the Imperial Ambassadors and the Ministers of the Princes of the Empire do not hinder them; The latter pretend to be treated as Ambassadors, with the Title of Extraordinary, which the Imperial Ambassadors refuse to give them. The Dyets at Ratisbone proceed very slowly in the business of the Army they some time since resolved to raise; and have not as yet been able to agree about the nomination of a General. The Emperor designs the Duke of Lorraine for that Command, and the Dyets desire some other Person; and besides, the Protestants and the Roman Catholics labour each to have a General of their Religion. At the same time the Elector of Brandenburg continues to demand satisfaction for the damages he sustained in the last War.

From Hungary they write, That the Rebels were perfectly Masters of the Field; and that Prince Abassi had put out a Declaration, wherein it is among other things said, That his Compassion of the Persecuted Hungarians, had obliged him to come to their assistance (which he had done with the leave of the Grand Seigneur) in order to the re-establishing them in the free Exercise of their Religion, and in their ancient Priviledges.

Hamburg, Nov. 11. From Copenhagen they write, that Count Berka the Emperor's Ambassador presses that King to enter into an Alliance with the Emperor, but that he had not yet obtained an Answer to his satisfaction. On Saturday last, past through this City an Express for Paris, with Letters from the French Ambassador at Stockholme, from whence he is come in eight days; And it is reported that he carries to the French Court an Account that the King of Sweden has Declared that he will joyn with the Emperor and the Empire, for the preserving the Peace of Westphalia and Nimeguen. The Heer d' Amerongen is arrived here from Holland, and in a day or two he will continue his Journey for Berlin; from whence they write, that his Electoral Highness has ordered his Quota of the Army of 40000 (which is 2800) to be ready to march to joyn the other Troops of the Empire, so soon as they shall be called upon for that purpose.

Hague, Novemb. 14. The States of Holland have made a short Recess, the Deputies being gone home to Consult their Principals. On the 8th instant the French Ambassador gave in a Memorial to the States General, wherein he takes notice of a Report that was spread abroad of their being about concluding a Treaty of Guaranty or Association, and endeavours to divert them from it. To which the States on the 12th returned an Answer by their Deputies for Foreign Affairs. We are told that the States have Concluded an Alliance with the Crown of Sweden, for preserving the Peace of Westphalia and Nimeguen.

Paris, Nov. 15. The last Letters we had from Court gave us an Account That the 4th Instant their Majesties parted from Metz, and lay that night at Touvois; from whence they parted again the next day, and the 6th arrived at Stenay; where they stayed the 7th. The 8th their Majesties Lodged at Grandpre, the 9th at St. Sulpice, and the 10th at Rheims, where they continued the next day. The 9th Instant the Deputies of the Clergy met in the Great Convent of the Augustines, to assist at the Mass of the Holy Ghost, which was said by the Archbishop of Paris.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and joynt Adresse of your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the Grand Jurors of Your Majesties County of Montgomery, and of the severall Burroughs Inquest for the said County at the Great Sessions, and general Goal-deliverer, held at the Burrough of Llanellyn within the said County, the 29th day of August, Anno Dom. 1681.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE do in all Humility crave leave to Present to your Majesty our hearty Thanks for your Gracious Promises in your Declaration; wherein You have assured us by Your Royal Word, that it is your Resolution to defend the Protestant Religion, as now by Law established in the Church of England; that you will make the known Laws of your Kingdom the rule of Your Government; and that as you will not use any Arbitrary Power your self, so you will not suffer it in others. We do farther with all Gratitude acknowledge your Princely Favour, extended particularly to this County, in passing an Act, Prohibiting the Importation of Irish Carile. We are very sensible of the Blessings we have enjoyed since Your Majesties happy Restauration, and peaceable Reign over us, and are all amazed that the wicked Practices of the Papists and Fanatics should now make it necessary for us to express, that we are highly sensible of Your good Government; And we humbly beseech your Majesty to believe, that our Zeal for Your Majesties Service, is as cordial and affectionate as any of our fellow-Subjects, though we have forborn thus publicly to Declare our Affections for Your Majesties Service, till we were legally qualified so to do (though we have been most scandalously misrepresented as Papists and Popishly affected, Whereas the Papists in our County are very inconsiderable in their number, and most despicable in their Strength.) And therefore we do make an humble tender to Your Majesty of our Lives and Fortunes, in defence of Your most Sacred Person and Government, Your Heirs and lawful Successors against all Your Enemies, who shall endeavour to subvert Your Government, or the Religion of the Church of England, as now by Law established, the best of Governments, the best of Churches. That Your Life and Reign may be long and prosperous, and that on Your Head, and Your Royal Line, the Crown may for ever flourish, are the Prayers of,

Your Majesties Faithful, Loyal,
Dutiful, and Obedient Subjects.

We Your Majesties Deputy-Lieutenants and Justices of Peace for the said County, present at the said Great Sessions, do heartily joyn with the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury in this their Humble Address, and Acknowledgment to Your most Sacred Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Justices, Burgesses, and Assistants of Your Majesties Burrough of Tyverton in Your County of Devon, Unanimously agreed to at a Meeting in the Guild-Hall of Tyverton aforesaid, on the 8th day of August, in the three and thirtieth year of Your Majesties Reign.

May it please your most Sacred Majesty,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful, Loyal, and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Justices, Burgesses, and Assistants of your Majesties Burrough of Tyverton, in your County of Devon, do with the deepest sence of Joy and Thankfulness, acknowledge and congratulate God Almightyes wonderful Providence in Your Majesties most happy Restauration; and we cannot sufficiently admire the wise Conduct of Your Majesties most Gracious and Excellent Government ever since: under which, both the Kingdom and the Church of England have so long enjoyed, and do to this day enjoy the blessed fruits of Peace and Liberty, Property and Prosperity.

We do also make bold to tender to Your Sacred Majesty, our most humble and hearty Thanks, for the many Gracious Assurances You have been pleased to vouchsafe to Your People, for the continuance of the same, in Your Gracious and Condescending Declaration; wherein Your Majesty hath so plainly and fully Publisht Your Royal Intentions, to secure Your People from Popery, and the just fears of it, not to use Arbitrary Power Your self, nor permit it in any other; to Protestant Deseid the Church of England, and the true Protestant Religion, as it is now by Law established, and to Govern Your Kingdom according to the known Law of the Land, and to express Your Royal Affections of, and Resolutions to have frequent Parliaments.

In consideration of these unpartzell'd Expressions of Your Majesties most Royal Favour, to the unspeakable satisfaction and joy of your People in general; as also from a more particular Sence of Your Majesties late Signal Grace and Clemency to this Corporation; We do as heartily as any have done before us, or any can do, offer our most grateful and solemn Prayers to Almighty God, for the preservation of Your Majesties Person and Government, and our Lives and Fortunes, with unfeigned Resolution to Your Majesties Service.

*Portsmouth, Nov. 6. Tuesday night last by bad weather a Dutch Merchant ship of 600 Tuns, called the Welfon, laden with Rye for Lisbon, was driven ashore near this place; The Men have left her, and she is become a Wreck, the Sea battering her to pieces every Tide.*
