COLONIAL DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, November 28, 1812.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an extract, has been received from Lieutenant-General Sir George Prevost, Bart. addressed to the Earl Bathurst, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, dated Montreal, October 17, 1812.

I HAVE the honour to inform your Lordship, that the forces composing the cordon of defence against the approach of the enemy in this neighbourhood, have moved into their respective cantonments, in consequence of the inclemency of the season. The cantonments that I have selected for the troops do not remove them considerably from their original position, and they are calculated to afford equal convenience for the rapid concentration of the force under Major-General De Rottenburg.

The latest intelligence from Detroit represents every thing in its immediate neighbourhood as quiet; and reports Colonel Proctor's having detached a small force of British regulars and militia to Fort Wayne, to save the American force therein, invested by the Indians.

On the Niagara frontier both parties were acting on the defensive.

Whitehall, November 27, 1812.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto John Donaldson, of Wardie, in the County of Mid Lothian, a Lieutenant in the Royal Navy, His Majesty's royal licence and authority that he may, in compliance with a clause contained in a disposition and settlement made by Alexander Boswall, late of Blackadder, Esq. deceased, and from grateful regard to his memory, take and use the surname of Boswall, in addition to and after that of Donaldson:

And to order, that this His Majesty's royal concession and declaration be recorded in His College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

Whitehall, November 28, 1812.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Alfred Hayward, of Brackley, in the County of Northampton, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed Thomas Longueville Jones, of Oswestry, in the County of Salop, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Treasury-Chambers, Whitehall, November 20, 1812.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the Abolition and Regulation of certain Offices in the Customs," the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, are authorized, whenever it shall appear to them to be expedient and proper, to extend the provisions of the said Act to any of the ports of Great Britain, and to the officers, clerks, and other persons employed in the service of the Customs at any such ports;

The said Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury do, in pursuance of the directions contained in the said Act, hereby give notice to all persons concerned, that, from and after the 5th day of January next, the said Act, and all the powers and authorities, rules, regulations, and restrictions, pains and penalties, shall be, as far as the same are applicable, extended to all the out-ports in England and Wales, and to the several officers, clerks, and other persons employed in the service of the Customs at the said ports.
