AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 9th of December 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS it is expedient to prevent doubts respecting the continuance and effect of the Order in Council of the nineteenth of August one thousand eight hundred and seven, respecting vessels under the flag of Mecklenburg, Oldenburg, Pappenburg, and Knipphausen, and the Order in Council of the twenty-fifth November one thousand eight hundred and seven, respecting the ships and goods belonging to Prussia and Lubeck; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that the said two Orders in Council, bearing date respectively the nineteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and seven, and the twenty-fifth of November one thousand eight hundred and seven, shall be considered as null and of no effect; provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Order contained, shall be construed to affect any question depending in judgment, respecting either of the said Orders, on any capture made prior to the date of this Order: but such questions shall be decided in the same manner as if this Order and Declaration had not been issued.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent: which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George, PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Petition of the Protestant Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wicklow.

Sheweth,

THAT your Petitioners have for some years past observed the frequent endeavours made by their Roman Catholic fellow-subjects; to obtain a repeal of those laws, by which persons of that religious persuasion, are at present excluded from seats in the Legislative Assemblies of these kingdoms, and from several offices of high trust and political power in the State.

That it is the sincere wish and desire of Petitioners to live on terms of the strictest amity and friendship with their Roman Catholic brethren, that they feel towards them no spirit of bigotry, no sentiment of intolerance, but that they are bound by interest as well as inclination to consider them as brethren of the same community, and are willing to concede to them every privilege consistent with the security of their ancient establishments and the permanence of their invaluable Constitution.

That the repeal of those laws by which their Roman Catholic fellow-subjects were impeded in the acquisition of wealth and property, or in the free exercise of their religion, has met with the hearty concurrence of your Petitioners, and that they have observed with satisfaction their consequent advancement in wealth and prosperity; but that Petitioners cannot look forward without solicitude and alarm, to the total and unlimited abrogation of those statutes by which persons professing the faith of the Church of Rome, have been
