Lord Chamberlain's Office, December 28, 1812.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Drawing-Room will be held at St. James's, on the 4th of February next, for the celebration of Her Majesty's birth-day.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 9th of December 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS it is expedient to prevent doubts respecting the continuance and effect of the Order in Council of the nineteenth of August one thousand eight hundred and seven, respecting vessels under the flag of Mecklenburg, Oldenburg, Papenburg, and Kniphausen, and the Order in Council of the twenty-fifth November one thousand eight hundred and seven, respecting the ships and goods belonging to Prussia and Lubec; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that the said two Orders in Council, bearing date respectively the nineteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and seven, and the twenty-fifth of November one thousand eight hundred and seven, shall be considered as null and of no effect; provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Order contained, shall be construed to affect any question depending in judgment, respecting either of the said Orders, on any capture made prior to the date of this Order: but such questions shall be decided in the same manner as if this Order and Declaration had not been issued.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the British Empire, &c. &c. &c.

WE the undersigned Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the county and town of Wexford, professing the Protestant religion, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the utmost respect and submission, and we trust we shall not be deemed presumptuous, in offering our sentiments on a subject connected with the vital importance of our Constitution.

The unqualified demands of our Roman Catholic brethren, demands which we have observed with concern and regret, as incompatible with a Protestant Government; and it is with the utmost gratitude and pride we acknowledge the firm and dignified conduct of your Royal Highness, and rely with confidence on your Royal Highness for the protection of our present Establishment in Church and State.

GEORGE ROS

GRAND WESTERN CANAL.

WHEREAS the Committee of Management of the affairs of the Company of Proprietors of the Grand Western Canal, did, at a meeting of the said Committee, duly held on the 18th day of March 1812, make a call from the several Proprietors of the navigation and undertaking authorized to be made and carried on by the said Company of Proprietors for the sum of 10l. for and in respect of every share in the said navigation and undertaking, the same being then found wanting and necessary by the said Committee, in order to defray the expenses of and to carry on the said navigation and undertaking, and did appoint 5l. in respect of every share (part of the aforesaid sum of 10l.) to be paid into the hands of Henry Skinner, Esq. Treasurer to the said Company of Proprietors, in Collumpton, in the County of Devon, on or before the 2d day of May then next ensuing, and 5l. in respect of every share (remainder of the aforesaid sum of 10l.) to be paid into the hands of the said Henry Skinner, Esq. Treasurer as aforesaid, in Collumpton aforesaid, on or before the 2d day of July then following, and did cause such notice thereof to be given as is directed by the Statute in that case made and provided;

And whereas the several persons mentioned in the schedule, or list of shares hereunder written, were respectively, on the said 18th day of March, and from thenceforth until the respective forfeitures hereinafter mentioned, Proprietors, or were registered in the books of the said Company as Proprietors of the several and respective shares in the said Canal, set against their respective names in the said schedule or list hereunder written, and distinguished by the numbers also set against their several and respective names in the same schedule, and have respectively neglected to pay their respective proportionable parts, or any part of the money so called for as aforesaid, for and in respect of their respective shares in the said navigation and undertaking, for the space of three calendar months after the time appointed for payment thereof as aforesaid, whereby they severally and respectively absolutely forfeited their several and respective shares, parts and interests in the said undertaking, and all profit and advantage thereof, and all money theretofore advanced by them respectively on account thereof, to and for the use and benefit of the other Proprietors of the said undertaking;

Now notice is hereby given to the said several persons mentioned in the schedule or list hereunder written, their respective executors, administrators and assigns, of the said respective forfeitures, and that unless they or their respective executors, administrators or assigns shall respectively, on or before the 17th day of January next, pay into the hands of Henry Skinner, Esq. Treasurer of the said Company, in Collumpton, their respective proportionable parts of the money so called for as aforesaid, for and in respect of their said respective shares, the said Committee will, at their next general meeting, intended to be held on the 20th day of January next, at the house of Samuel Medley, Esq. No. 52. Threadneedle-Street, in the City of London, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, declare the said shares respectively to be forfeited, and that advantage will be taken of the said forfeitures respectively by and on behalf of the other Proprietors of the said undertaking. Dated this 21st day of December, in the year of our Lord 1812.

By order of the said Committee,
 Ward and Merriman, Principal Clerks to the said Company of Proprietors.

CANAL CONVEYANCE BY FLY BOATS.

THOMAS BACHE, forwards goods with regularity and dispatch, for the following intermediate and adjacent places, viz.

Coventry, Nuneaton, Atherstone, Tamworth, Worcester, Stourport, Litchfield, Chester, Liverpool, Warrington, Wigan, Manchester, and all parts of the North.

Goods received at Castle Fields Warehouse, Manchester; White-Horse, Cripplegate, London; and Wharf, No. 14, Paddington.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

The Proprietor will not be accountable for any goods delivered into his charge, unless the same shall be signed for as received by his book-keeper in the book or paper of the porter of the person who delivered them:

Not more than 5l. will be paid for any articles containing laces, silks, ribbons, gauze, cambrics, lawns, &c. of less weight than 28l. nor more than after the rate of 20l. per hundred weight for any package of a greater weight, unless it shall have been booked at the time of delivery as of greater value, and a premium of 6d. for every 10l. value paid, or agreed to be paid, in addition to the common charge of carriage.

Packages containing aqua-fortis, spirits of vitriol, or any other ardent spirits, are at the owner's risk; and if not particularised on the direction, will subject the owner to a further risk of all goods that may be damaged thereby.

Any goods addressed to order, or till called for, if not taken away within the space of 24 hours after their arrival, every accident, loss, or damage they may sustain during the remainder of their continuance, will be entirely at the risk of the owners; and all goods suffered to remain for the convenience of the owners are entirely at their risk.

When canals are stopped by frost or accident, every exertion will be made to forward the goods by land, if required, and an extra charge made accordingly.

Any claim for damages that is not made within three days after the delivery of the goods, will not be allowed; nor any allowance made for damages arising from goods being packed in a damp or wet state; and when any loss or deficiency is found, it is requested that an account may be taken of the gross weight of such article.

All looking or plate glass, money, plate, watches, rings, jewels, writings, china, &c. are entirely at the risk of the owners, unless entered as such, and an insurance paid, or agreed to be paid, of 15l. for every 100l. value over and above the common rate of carriage, at the time of delivery.

Goods contained in returned packages are at the owner's risk, as to damage, pilferage, or otherwise.

The Proprietor will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may be sustained in consequence of any improper consignments or directions; neither for loss or damage occasioned by goods being sent in bad packages.

All goods delivered into the Proprietor's care for his several conveyances will be considered as general liens, and subject not only for the money due for the carriage of such particular goods, but also for the general balance due from the respective owners to the Proprietor; and if not redeemed in three months will be sold by public auction to defray such general balance.
