From Tuesday, January 12, to Saturday, January 16, 1813.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, December 28, 1812.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Drawing-Room will be held at St. James's, on the 4th of February next, for the celebration of Her Majesty's birth-day.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 9th of December 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS it is expedient to prevent doubts respecting the continuance and effect of the Order in Council of the nineteenth of August one thousand eight hundred and seven, respecting vessels under the flag of Mecklenburg, Oldenburg, Papenburg, and Kniphansen, and the Order in Council of the twenty-fifth November one thousand eight hundred and seven, respecting the ships and goods belonging to Prussia and Lubec; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that the said two Orders in Council, bearing date respectively the nineteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and seven, and the twenty-fifth of November one thousand eight hundred and seven, shall be considered as null and of no effect; provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Order contained, shall be construed to affect any question depending in judgment, respecting either of the said Orders, on any capture made prior to the date of this Order: but such questions shall be decided in the same manner as if this Order and Declaration had not been issued.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

War-Office, January 16, 1813.

Royal Regiment of Horse Guards, Lieutenant-General Arthur Marquess of Wellington, K. B., from the 33d Foot, to be Colonel, vice General the Duke of Northumberland, who resigns.

33d Regiment of Foot, Lieutenant-General Sir John C. Sherbrooke, K. B., from the 68th Foot, to be Colonel, vice the Marquess of Wellington, appointed to the command of the Royal Regiment of Horse Guards.

68th Ditto, Major-General Henry Warde, from the 1st Regiment of Foot Guards; to be Colonel, vice Sir John C. Sherbrooke, appointed to the command of the 33d foot.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Protestant Inhabitants of the County of Fermanagh, in Ireland, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the strongest expressions of our regard for your Royal Highness's person and dignity, and our firm attachment to our glorious Constitution in Church and State. In common with a large majority of the Protestant inhabitants of this part of the United Kingdom, we have to lament, that our brethren the Roman Catholics of Ireland have determined again to bring forward their claims before your Royal Highness and both Houses of Parliament. We had hopes, that gratitude for the numerous benefits which, during the mild and tolerant reign of His present Majesty had been vouchsafed them, would not so soon have been superseded by any discontent; and that at the time when the nation is engaged in arduous conflict with its enemies, the attention of your Royal Highness's Ministers would not have been distracted by a discussion, which might better have been deferred to a season of general tranquillity.

The only disabilities which remain, as we are informed, to affect the Roman Catholics of Ireland, are their exclusion from certain high offices of trust and profit, and from seats in both Houses of Parliament. And, with great deference, we beg leave to represent to your Royal Highness, that such exclusion of persons professing a religion, at whose head is a foreign prelate, has always been deemed most salutary to the preservation of the independence of the State, and the liberty of the people. To remove these barriers would, as we apprehend, endanger the Protestant succession to the throne, would weaken the connection between the parts of the United Kingdom, and would finally subvert the Church, by law established in Ireland.

We therefore most humbly request, that your Royal Highness will not give your Royal countenance to the prayer of the Roman Catholic petition, but will continue to afford your Royal Highness's firm support to the wise cautions of that Constitution, under which the country has advanced in prosperity, under which the people have preserved their freedom, and the State has maintained its independence. John Aikin, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Sidmouth, His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department.]

Copy of a Letter from Captain Austen, of His Majesty's Ship the Elephant, to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated at Sea, the 28th December 1812.

SIR,

BE pleased to acquaint the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's ship under my command, in company with the Hermes, this morning captured, in latitude 38 deg. 40 min. N. and longitude 39 deg. 45 min. W. the American schooner privateer Sword Fish, of Gloucester, John Evans, Master, out sixteen days from Boston, and had made no capture. She is one hundred and fifty-six tons burthen, not six months off the stocks, copper fastened, mounted twelve six pounders (ten of which were thrown overboard during the chase), manned with eighty-two men, and appears to sail very fast, having ran us upwards of one hundred miles, in a chase of eleven hours, although not four miles ahead of us at the commencement of it.

I have the honour to be, &c.

FRAS. WM. AUSTEN.

Admiralty-Office, January 16, 1813.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Clephan, of His Majesty's Sloop the Charybdis, addressed to Rear-Admiral Sir Francis Laforey, and transmitted by the latter to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Sloop Charybdis, Sombrero Passage, December 31, 1812.

IBEG leave to acquaint you, that at half-past nine this morning, the Island of Saba bearing N. E. six leagues, I fell in with, and after five hours and a half chase, captured the Blockade American schooner privateer, of ten guns and sixty-six men, her first cruize, had only taken a small schooner belonging to St. Lucia, but being chased by one of our brigs, two days ago, was obliged to abandon her.

The Blockade is a fine schooner, only three months since her keel was laid, is one hundred and twenty-eight tons, has thrown all her guns overboard, except one, in the chase.

Admiralty-Office, January 16, 1813.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Alexander, of His Majesty's Ship the Colossus, addressed to Admiral Lord Keith, and transmitted by his Lordship to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Ship Colossus, at Sea, in Lat. 42 deg. 3 min. N. Long. 35 deg. 10 W. Jan. 5, 1813.

MY LORD,

IHAVE the honour to inform your Lordship, that His Majesty's ship under my orders, captured this morning the ship Dolphin, an American letter of marque, from Philadelphia, bound to Bourdeaux, of three hundred and sixty-two tons, armed with twelve carriage guns, and having on board fifty-six officers and men, and four passengers, agreeably to her papers.

I have the honour to be, &c.

Whitehall, January 15, 1813.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, some time between the afternoon of Monday the 28th and Wednesday the 30th of December last, some person or persons did feloniously enter the dwelling-house and premises of William Webb, situate at Roddenbury-Hill, in the parish of Warminster, in the county of Wilts, yeoman (close to the borders of Longleat-Park), and did commit a most horrid and barbarous murder upon the bodies of the said William Webb, and of Mary Gibbons his maid servant, by the use of a gun, loaded with shot and nails, and of some heavy keen cutting instrument; and whereas it hath been further represented, that there is just reason to believe, that the said dwelling-house was then plundered of many valuable articles, particularly one silver cream-jug; one silver snuff-box; two silver table-spoons, five silver tea-spoons, and a considerable quantity of gold and silver coin;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murders, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually perpetrated the same) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

TO THE RIGHT HON. THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WE the undersigned respectfully submit, for your Lordships' approbation, the following scheme for the second state lottery for the service of the year 1812, to be drawn on the 17th and 18th of February 1813.

War-Office, January 2, 1813.
To Widows of Officers of the Land and Marine Forces.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, having been graciously pleased to abolish the former practice of transferring the payment of the pensions of the widows of officers of the land forces, from Great Britain to Ireland, and vice versa, upon the removal of regiments from one establishment to the other; and to direct, that in future every widow shall, from the 25th day of December last, inclusive, receive payment of her pension in the country in which she resides; the following rules are to be observed in this respect, videlicet:

Every widow, whether on the British or Irish establishment, should immediately notify her place of residence, and the name of her agent, to the War-Office of that country in which she at present receives her pension.

Any widow residing in Great Britain, whose pension is now issued in Ireland, should also notify her place of residence to the War-Office in Dublin, in order that official directions may be given for the payment of her pension in Great Britain from the date abovementioned.

In like manner, any widow residing in Ireland, whose pension is now issued in Great Britain, should make a similar report to the War-Office in London, when instructions will be given for the payment of her pension in Ireland from the date abovementioned.

If a widow should afterwards be desirous of changing her place of residence, she is to give two months previous notice of her intended removal, to the War-Office of the country in which she is then resident.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable House of Commons, of the 27d day of December 1812, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament for a bill for enlarging the market-place at Smithfield, in the City of London; for improving the avenues into and about the same; and for the better regulation of the said market.

T. Tyrrell; City Remembrancer.

Navy-Office, January 9, 1813.
THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 27th instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the Honourable Commissioner Grey will put up to sale, at the Pay-Office in His Majesty's Yard at Portsmouth, several lots of Old Stores, consisting of Old Canvas, Junk, Rope in Paper-Stuff, Bolt-rope, Lashing, Rounding, and Spun Yarn; Nets, Oakum, &c. &c. all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner of the Yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yard.

CONTRACTS FOR BARRACK STORES.

Commissary in Chief's-Office,
January 15, 1813.

SUCH persons as are desirous of contracting with the Commissary in Chief to supply

Linen Articles of Bedding and Rugs,

may receive particulars of the contracts at this Office, between the hours of eleven and five, and deliver their tenders, sealed up and directed to the Commissary in Chief, marking thereon "Tender for Linen Articles of Bedding and Rugs," on or before Tuesday the 26th instant; but none will be received after twelve of the clock on that day; nor will any proposal be noticed unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the prices inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposal, signed by two persons of known property engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the sum expressed in the particulars, for the due performance of the contract.

Exchequer Bill Office, January 15, 1813.

All Exchequer Bills dated in the Month of February 1812,

TO BE PAID OFF.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given directions for paying off the principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills, with the interest due thereon, at the Exchequer Bill Office in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Wednesday the 3d day of February 1813, attendance will be given daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) until, and including, Thursday the 28th of January instant, from ten of the clock in the morning till one in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving the same. And, for the greater dispatch, the bearers of the said bills are desired to bring separate lists of each description of bills, containing the numbers in numerical order, according to their respective dates, with the principal sums and interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding the days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 3d day of February inclusive, when the interest will cease; and the said bearers (being holders or not) are indispensably required to indorse each bill with their usual signatures, and to write their names and residence at the bottom of each separate list; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill Office for payment, and to receive the new bills, and give the receipts for the same.

If any of the holders of the aforesaid bills should be desirous of receiving payment of the principal and interest, previous to the said 3d day of February, they may be accommodated on computing the interest to the day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said bills for examination one day prior thereto.

Such persons as may be desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in whole or in part of payment of principal, upon marking new bills, and mentioning the amount at the bottom of their lists, delivered on or before the 28th instant, may be accommodated with new bills, carrying an interest of three pence halfpenny by the day, on every one hundred pounds, which said new bills will bear date the said 3d day of February, and will be delivered on Thursday the 4th of February, and the following days.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to February 1812, have been advertised to be paid off, and the interest thereon has ceased.
