Lord Chamberlain's Office, December 28, 1812.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Drawing-Room will be held at St. James's, on the 4th of February next, for the celebration of Her Majesty's birth-day.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 9th of December 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS it is expedient to prevent doubts respecting the continuance and effect of the Order in Council of the nineteenth of August one thousand eight hundred and seven, respecting vessels under the flag of Mecklenburg, Oldenburg, Papenburg, and Kniphansen, and the Order in Council of the twenty-fifth November one thousand eight hundred and seven, respecting the ships and goods belonging to Prussia and Lubec; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that the said two Orders in Council, bearing date respectively the nineteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and seven, and the twenty-fifth of November one thousand eight hundred and seven, shall be considered as null and of no effect; provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Order contained, shall be construed to affect any question depending in judgment, respecting either of the said Orders, on any capture made prior to the date of this Order: but such questions shall be decided in the same manner as if this Order and Declaration had not been issued.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

War-Office, January 16, 1813.

Royal Regiment of Horse Guards, Lieutenant-General Arthur Marquess of Wellington, K. B., from the 33d Foot, to be Colonel, vice General the Duke of Northumberland, who resigns.

33d Regiment of Foot, Lieutenant-General Sir John C. Sherbrooke, K. B., from the 68th Foot, to be Colonel, vice the Marquess of Wellington, appointed to the command of the Royal Regiment of Horse Guards.

68th Ditto, Major-General Henry Warde, from the 1st Regiment of Foot Guards; to be Colonel, vice Sir John C. Sherbrooke, appointed to the command of the 33d foot.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Protestant Inhabitants of the County of Fermanagh, in Ireland, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the strongest expressions of our regard for your Royal Highness's person and dignity, and our firm attachment to our glorious Constitution in Church and State. In common with a large majority of the Protestant inhabitants of this part of the United Kingdom, we have to lament, that our brethren the Roman Catholics of Ireland have determined again to bring forward their claims before your Royal Highness and both Houses of Parliament. We had hopes, that gratitude for the numerous benefits which, during the mild and tolerant reign of His present Majesty had been vouchsafed them, would not so soon have been superseded by any discontent; and that at the time when the nation is engaged in arduous conflict with its enemies, the attention of your Royal Highness's Ministers would not have been distracted by a discussion, which might better have been deferred to a season of general tranquillity.
