

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 9th of December 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS it is expedient to prevent doubts respecting the continuance and effect of the Order in Council of the nineteenth of August one thousand eight hundred and seven, respecting vessels under the flag of Mecklenburg, Oldenburg, Papenburg, and Kuiphausen, and the Order in Council of the twenty-fifth November one thousand eight hundred and seven, respecting the ships and goods belonging to Prussia and Lubec; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that the said two Orders in Council, bearing date respectively the nineteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and seven, and the twenty-fifth of November one thousand eight hundred and seven, shall be considered as null and of no effect; provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Order contained, shall be construed to affect any question depending in judgment, respecting either of the said Orders, on any capture made prior to the date of this Order: but such questions shall be decided in the same manner as if this Order and Declaration had not been issued.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

George Canning, Esq. in the room of the Right Honourable George Canning, who hath made his election not to serve for the borough of Petersfield.

Whitehall, January 18, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto George Whitley, of Norley-Hall, in the county-palatine of Chester, Esq. on behalf of Thomas Jenks (a minor), third son of the Reverend David Jenks, Clerk, Rector of Aldbury, in the county of Hertford, and of Cheddington, in the county of Buckingham, His Majesty's royal licence and authority that he, the said Thomas Jenks, may, in pursuance of the last will and testament of James Brodhurst, late of the city of Chester, Esq. deceased, take and use the surname of Brodhurst only, and bear the arms of Brodhurst, provided such arms be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, January 19, 1813.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any artificer in wool, iron, steel, brass, or other metal, clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer of Great Britain, to go into foreign countries out of the King's dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon indictment or information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first offence, and shall be imprisoned three months, and till the fine be paid. And if any person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the discretion of the Court, and imprisoned twelve months, and till the fine be paid.

If any of the King's subjects, being such artificers, shall go into any country out of His Majesty's dominions, to exercise or teach the said trades to foreigners; and if any of the King's subjects in any such foreign country, exercising any of the said trades, shall not return into this realm within six months after warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the country where such artificers shall be, or by any person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from
