

in such form and manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said articles have been all duly landed at the places for which they were entered outwards. But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, that the following articles, viz. bar iron, white and tarred rope, tallow or mill grease, tarpaulins for waggon covers, pitch, tar, and turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon payment of the proper duties, without bond being entered into by the merchant exporter, to any of the British plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's settlements in South America; provided the merchant exporter shall first verify, upon oath, that the articles so exported are intended for the use of a particular plantation or settlement, to be named in the entry outwards, and not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also, that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of fifty pounds sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments within the same season: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of February 1813,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered in Council, that every Minister and Preacher, as well of the Established Church in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, as those of the Episcopal Communion protected and allowed by an Act passed in the tenth year of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, Cap. 7. entitled, "An Act to prevent the disturbing those of the Episcopal Communion in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, in the exercise of their religious worship, and in the use of the liturgy of the Church of England, and for repealing the Act passed in the Parliament of Scotland, entitled An Act against irregular Baptisms and Marriages;" do, at some time during the exercise of the Divine Service, in such respective church, congregation, or assembly, put up their prayers to Almighty God for His Royal Highness the Prince Regent.

Jas. Buller.

War-Office, March 1, 1813:

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, has been pleased to approve of the 92d Regiment bearing upon its colours and appointments (in addition to any other badges or devices which have heretofore been granted) the words "Bergen-op-Zee" and "Mandara," in consequence of the distinguished gallantry displayed by that regiment on the 2d October 1799, at Bergen-op-Zee, and also in the memorable battle of the 13th March 1801, when leading the left column of the army in its advance from Mandara.
