JOSEPH H. COSTELLO and JAMES SIMMS, of St. John's, Newfoundland, Merchants and Copartners.

Whereas the said Joseph H. Costello and James Simms, of St. John's, Newfoundland, Merchants and Copartners, have been declared insolvent, in pursuance of the Act 49 Geo. 3. cap. 27. and the subscribers being appointed to proceed to discover, collect, and sell the effects of the said Costello and Simms; all persons indebted to the said Costello and Simms, or that have any of their effects, are not to pay or deliver the same to any but the subscribers, or such person as may be authorised by them, but give notice to the Trustees, or their agent, without delay.

JAMES MELLEDEGE, JAMES CLIFT, Trustees.
St. John's, 17th December 1812.

NOTICE.

All persons indebted to the said Costello and Simms are desired to pay the same to the subscriber without delay.

By order of the Trustees,

GEO. LILLY.

St. John's, 17th December 1812.

ROBERT HAMPTON, late of London, but now of St. John's, Newfoundland, Merchant.

Whereas the said Robert Hampton has been duly declared insolvent, in pursuance of an Act 49 Geo. 3. cap. 27. and the subscriber having been appointed to proceed to discover, collect, and sell the effects of the said Robert Hampton; the Creditors under the said estate are desired to come prepared to prove their debts at the Court-House, in the town of St. John's, on the 9th, 16th, 23d, and 30th of January, at Twelve o'Clock.—All persons indebted to the said Robert Hampton, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same to any but the subscriber, or such person authorised by him, but give notice to the Trustee, or his agent, without delay.

JAMES CLIFT, Trustee.

St. John's, 7th January 1813.

NOTICE.

All persons indebted to the said Robert Hampton are desired to pay the same to Alexander Boucher, Merchant, St. John's, without delay.

JAMES CLIFT.

St. John's, 7th January 1813.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

ALL persons having any claim or demand on the estate and effects of Mrs. Mary Tucker, formerly of Bow, otherwise Nymet Tracey, in the County of Devon, but late of Crediton, in the same County, Widow, deceased, are desired to transmit particulars thereof to Messrs. Giles Edwards, and Giles Hookway, of Crediton aforesaid, Executors in Trust, named in the will of the said deceased, on or before the 2d day of April next ensuing, in order that the same may be discharged, as immediately after that time the Executors will proceed to a final settlement of the estate and effects of the said deceased, and make distribution of the residue thereof, according to the trusts declared in the said will.—Dated March 17, 1813.

WILLINGAL'S CHILDREN.

ANY of the children of Thomas Willingal or William Willingal, both late of Maldon, in the County of Essex, who were brothers of Samuel Willingal, formerly of Maldon, but afterwards of Epping, in the said County of Essex, Distiller (who were living on the 18th day of December 1812), or the representatives of any such children who may have died since that period, may hear of something to their advantage, by applying to Mr. Windus, Solicitor, Epping.

March 13, 1813.

Whereas Arthur Westbrook, son of Charles and Michael Westbrook, late of the Town and County of Southampton, left his friends in the year 1799, and went to sea in a privateer, and has not since been heard of; he is, therefore, hereby requested to apply as underneath, where he may hear of something to his advantage; and if dead, any person who can prove his death will, on the like application, be liberally rewarded for their trouble by

AMOR and AMOR, Solicitors, Southampton.
