Whitehall, March 23, 1813.

THIS evening, between nine and ten o'clock, departed this life, at Her house in Hanover-Square, after a short illness, Her Royal Highness Augusta Duchess of Brunswick, to the great grief of all the Royal Family:

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 27, 1813.

ORDERS for the Court's going into mourning on Sunday the 28th instant; for Her late Royal Highness the Duchess of Brunswick, His Majesty's sister, viz.

The ladies to wear black silk; plain muslin, or long lawn, crape or love hoods; black silk shoes; black glazed gloves, and black paper fans.

Undress, black or dark grey unwatered tabbies.

The gentlemen to wear black cloth, without buttons on the sleeves or pockets; plain muslin or long lawn cravats and weepers; black swords and buckles.

Undress, dark grey frocks.

The Earl Marshal's Order for a General Mourning for Her late Royal Highness Augusta Duchess of Brunswick.

In pursuance of the commands of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, these are to give public notice, that it is expected that, upon the present occasion of the death of Her late Royal Highness Augusta Duchess of Brunswick, all persons do put themselves into decent mourning; the said mourning to begin on Sunday next the 28th instant.

NORFOLK, Earl Marshal.

March 27, 1813.

Horse Guards, March 27, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, does not require that the Officers of the Army should wear any other mourning on the present melancholy occasion, than a black crape round their left arms with their uniforms.

By command of His Royal Highness the Commander in Chief,

H. CALVERT, Adjutant-General;

Admiralty-Office, March 27, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, does not require that the Officers of His Majesty's Fleet or Marines should wear any other mourning, on the present melancholy occasion of the death of Her Royal Highness the late Duchess of Brunswick, than a black crape round their left arms with their uniforms.

Foreign-Office, March 27, 1813.

THE following copy of a dispatch from General Viscount Cathcart, K. T. His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Court of Russia, has been received by Viscount Castlereagh, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, dated

Imperial Head-Quarters, Kalish,

MY LORD,

March 6, 1813.

IN answer to the communication of the vote of Parliament for the relief of sufferers by the late invasion, and of the liberal subscriptions for the same purpose, the Emperor has desired me to express to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the sympathy and cordiality manifested on this occasion by Great Britain towards his people, has made a deep and most satisfactory impression on his mind, which will never be effaced; and that with these sentiments he accepts for his people what has been so liberally offered, and will take care that the distribution shall be made conformably to the purpose for which it is intended.

The Emperor has charged me to take the most effectual means to communicate his thanks and sentiments on this occasion, and I therefore rely on your Lordship's good offices to give effect to this part of His Imperial Majesty's intentions.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) CATHCART.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 1st of February 1813,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the seventeenth day of July last, prohibiting, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, the transporting into any parts out of this kingdom of any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, or other naval stores, will expire upon the eighth day of this instant February; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whosoever do at any time, for the space of six months from the said eighth day of this instant February, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores, or do ship or lade any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, without leave or permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is nevertheless His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's ships of war, or to any other ships or vessels or boats in the service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any ship or vessel from taking or having on board such quantities of naval stores as may be necessary for the use of such ship or vessel during the course of her intended voyage, or by licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being; nor to the exportation of the said several articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards or garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the exportation of any of the said articles for the purposes of trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards and garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies, the exporters of such articles do first make oath of the true destination of the same to the places for which they shall be entered outwards; before the entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient security by bond (except as hereinafter excepted), to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said articles to the places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the purposes specified, and none other; and such bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until proof be made to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the production, within a time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the bond, of a certificate or certificates, in such form and manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said articles have been all duly landed at the places for which they were entered outwards. But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, that the following articles, viz. bar iron, white and tarred rope, tallow or mill grease, tarpaulins for waggon covers, pitch, tar, and turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon payment of the proper duties, without bond being entered into by the merchant exporter, to any of the British plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's settlements in South America; provided the merchant exporter shall first verify, upon oath, that the articles so exported are intended for the use of a particular plantation or settlement, to be named in the entry outwards, and not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of fifty pounds sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments within the same season: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 1st of February 1813,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the seventeenth day of July last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire upon the eighth day of this instant February; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the said eighth day of this instant February), presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, or carry coastwise, any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, or carrying the same coastwise, without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition:" and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

J. W. CROKER.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Saturday night the 13th instant, between the hours of nine and ten, Samuel Greenwood, gamekeeper to Christopher Wilson, Esq. of Elmsal-Lodge, near Ferrybridge, in the county of York, was shot in the thigh, beat about the head and body, and otherways illtreated by three men, who were poaching in a plantation near Elmsal;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person who actually shot at and wounded the said Samuel Greenwood) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Christopher Wilson to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Whitehall, March 26, 1813.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Monday the 22d instnt, the synagogue in Severn-Street, the meeting-house in Coleshill-Street, and the chapel in Bond-Street, within the town of Birmingham, were by some evil-disposed persons severally broken and entered, and different articles feloniously stolen thereout;

No. 16714.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felonies, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders by the heads of the said synagogue and meeting-houses.

SCHOOL OF PHYSIC IN IRELAND.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fortieth year of His present Majesty's reign, for repealing former Acts relative to the establishment of a School of Physic in Ireland, for enlarging and extending the powers of the President and Fellows of the King and Queen's College of Physicians, and establishing a complete School of Physic in this kingdom, it is enacted,

That every Professorship in said School shall become vacant at the end of every seventh year from the date of the election: and whereas it is further enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the President and Fellows of the College of Physicians, when any of the Professorships, called King's Professorships, in the City of Dublin, on the foundation of Sir Patrick Dunn, shall in such wise become vacant, to direct that such Professorship shall continue to be held for a further term of seven years, after the expiration of the term for which the Professor so directed to be continued shall have been elected:

Provided always, that the aforesaid President and Fellows of the College of Physicians shall give three months notice, previous to the time at which the election to such Professorship should otherwise have been held, in the Dublin and London Gazettes, of such their direction:

And whereas the period of the tenure of the King's Professorship of the Institutes of Medicine in the City of Dublin, on the foundation of Sir Patrick Dunn, held by John William Boyton, M.D. will expire on the 10th of July next, the aforesaid President and Fellows of the College of Physicians have directed, and do hereby publish and declare their direction, that the aforesaid John William Boyton, M.D. shall continue to hold the Professorship of the Institutes of Medicine as aforesaid, for the ensuing term of seven years, commencing from the expiration of that term for which he was elected.

By order,
