Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 30, 1813.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levée at Carlton-House, on Thursday next the 1st of April, at one o'clock.

Foreign-Office, March 30, 1813.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to cause it to be signified by Viscount Castlereagh, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to the Ministers of Friendly and Neutral Powers residing at this Court, that the necessary measures have been taken, by the command of His Royal Highness, for the blockade of the ports and harbours of New York, Charleston, Port Royal, Savannah, and of the River Mississippi, in the United States of America; and that, from this time all the measures authorised by the Law of Nations, will be adopted and executed with respect to all vessels which may attempt to violate the said blockade.

Downing-Street, March 29, 1813.

A LETTER, of which the following extracts, has been this day received at Earl Bathurst's Office, addressed to his Lordship by Colonel Hamilton, Lieutenant-Governor of Heligoland, dated 23d March, 1813.

IN my letter dated 17th instant, I had the honour to represent to your Lordship, that in consequence of the effect which the glorious success of the Russian arms produced, and the favourable reports from different parts of the Hanoverian Coast, I determined immediately to take every step, which the inconsiderable force at my disposal would admit of, to promote the great and just cause.

Lieutenant Banks proceeded with two gun-brigs, reinforced by two serjeants and thirty veterans, to Cuxhaven, from which the French had departed with great expedition, after destroying all their gun-boats, and dismounting the guns from the strong works constructed for the defence of the harbour. On a summons from Lieutenant Banks, the Castle of Ritzbittel, and Batteries at Cuxhaven, were surrendered to be at the disposal of His Majesty by the Burgers; and the British and Hamburg flags were immediately displayed.

Major Kentzinger, an officer perfectly qualified for such a mission, was sent to Cuxhaven, having received instructions to communicate as soon as possible with the Russian General, and the Senate of Hamburg; and this officer was immediately followed by a detachment from the 8th Royal Veteran Battalion, and a supply of all the arms, &c. which were not actually employed by this garrison.

The loyal people of Hanover, who have been so long oppressed, display every where the British colours, and G. R. upon their habitations: In the Weser, the inhabitants of that part of the country assembled in considerable numbers, and took the strong and important battery and works at Bremerlee; and a corps of about fifteen hundred French, having assembled in its vicinity, which threatened to retake the battery, application was made immediately to Major Kentzinger for assistance, who having left Cuxhaven with a party of the soldiers in waggons, was met by these brave and grateful men, who gave him the pleasing intelligence that the enemy had marched off in great haste, in consequence of the landing of the British troops, which were reported to amount to a considerable number.

Baron de Tottenborn, Colonel Commandant of a corps of that division of the Russian army commanded by Count Wittgenstein, entered Hamburg on the 18th instant, amidst the acclamations and every demonstration of joy on the part of the citizens; in consequence of this happy event the ancient Government has been restored, and a mail from England is now dispatched from that city.

Admiralty-Office, March 30, 1813.

Copies of two Letters from Lieutenant Francis Banks, Commanding His Majesty's Gun Vessel the Blazer, to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated off Cuxhaven, the 16th and 17th instant.

Blazer, at anchor off Cuxhaven, March 16, 1813.

SIR,

I BEG to inform you, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that from the intelligence communicated to me by the Lieutenant-Governor of Heligoland, and what I otherwise learned by the arrival of vessels from the Continent, of the distressed state of the French forces at Cuxhaven, and of the entrance of a Russian army into Hamburg, I judged it expedient to take the Brevdageren under my orders, and proceeded to the river Elbe, which I entered early this morning, with the hope of intercepting such of the enemy's vessels as might attempt to make their escape; two of the gun-vessels we found deserted in the entrance of this river, and were afterwards destroyed; on a nearer approach to this place I observed some were burning, others were sunk and drifting about in all directions; and I have the satisfaction to inform you of the total destruction of the French flotilla that was stationed at Cuxhaven, which were twenty large gun schuyts: the timely appearance of His Majesty's brig prevented the escape of two, and I firmly believe, led to the destruction of the rest by their own hands: the Hamburg flag is displayed on the batteries and castle of Ritzbittel, and I intend to gain a communication with the shore.

I am, &c.

(Signed)

F. BANKS.

Blazer, at anchor off Cuxhaven, March 17, 1813.

SIR,

I BEG leave to acquaint you, for the information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that having had communication with the Civil Authorities of Ritzbittel, they expressed a desire that I would take possession of the batteries that had been lately evacuated by the French. I accordingly this morning disembarked the sma detachment of thirty-two of the Royal Veteran Battalion from Heligoland, and took possession of Cuxhaven battery. Fort Napoleon, which is half a mile higher up the river, I shall order to be destroyed. Every thing in these forts is in disorder, the guns dismounted, the carriages and stores destroyed. From what I have been able to observe this day, all is anarchy and confusion among the inhabitants, but they rejoiced much at a few English being landed. No Senate as yet is formed at Hamburg, nor do I hear of the Russian army having entered that city; whenever that can be ascertained, I shall communicate this event to the commanding officer there.

The French withdrew from this place yesterday morning at five o'clock; their collective force was about twelve hundred; they made their retreat by Bederkesa to Bremen.

I enclose a copy of the articles concluded on between the Civil Authorities and myself; I shall forward a list of military and other stores the moment I am able.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed)

F. BANKS.

ARTICLES concluded between the Civil Authorities of Ritzbittel, and Lieutenant F. Banks, commanding His Majesty's Forces in the River Elbe.

THE Hamburg flag shall be hoisted in conjunction with the British, at the French batteries near Cuxhaven, until His Britannic Majesty's pleasure is known. All military and other stores belonging to the French shall be delivered up to the English.

The British troops shall take immediate possession of the batteries, and garrison the same.

Executed on board His Majesty's brig the Blazer, this 17th March 1813.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Young, Commander-in-Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the North Sea, to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated in Town the 29th instant.

SIR,

I TRANSMIT, to be laid before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the copy of a letter which I have received through Lieutenant Banks, commanding the Blazer gun-brig, off Cuxhaven, from Lieutenant Devon, of the Brevdageren, stating the capture of two Danish gun-boats in the River Elbe, in a very gallant manner, by two boats belonging to the Brevdageren and Blazer.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed)

W. YOUNG.

His Majesty's Brig Brevdageren, River Elbe, March 21, 1813.

SIR,

AGREEABLY to your arrangement, I proceeded with the galley of the Brevdageren, and cutter of the Blazer, in search of the Danish privateer said to infest the upper part of the river. At day-light this morning we discovered two galliots, which were at first supposed to be merchant vessels; but on approaching them they hailed, and instantly opened a fire. In this critical situation there was no safety but in resolutely boarding, and I took advantage of the cheerful readiness of our people. We carried them under the smoke of their second discharge, without the loss of a man; and only two wounded on the part of the enemy; the galley boarding the first, and the Blazer's cutter, in the most gallant manner, the second. They proved to be the Danish gun-boats "Die Junge Troutman," commanded by Lieutenant Lutkin, and "Die Liebe," Lieutenant Witt, each mounting two long eighteen pounders, and three twelve pounder carronades, with a complement of twenty-five men each.

When you consider that each of these formidable vessels was carried by a single boat, one by a cutter with twelve men, and the other by a galley with nine, the conduct of the brave fellows under my orders needs no comment; and, I beg to return my sincere thanks to them, and to Mr. Dunbar, the Master of the Blazer.

These two vessels were sent, three days ago, from Glückstadt, for the express purpose of intercepting the trade from Heligoland. I beg you to report the above proceeding to the Commander-in-Chief, who, I trust, will approve of my conduct on this occasion.

I have the honour to be, &c.

THOMAS BARKER DEVON.

Lieutenant and Commander.
