

much thereof as shall remain after supplying him with proper necessaries; and it is His Royal Highness's gracious intention, that every such man whose pension is now less than nine-pence per diem, shall be entitled, when discharged, to that increased rate of Out-Pension, provided he be recommended by his Colonel or Commanding Officer as an object deserving of His Majesty's royal bounty.

It is His Royal Highness's further pleasure, that the men who, upon examination shall be found unfit for any duty shall be dismissed, and be settled with at the rate of one shilling and four-pence per diem each, from the time of their leaving their respective homes, until their arrival at the examining stations, calculating the same at the rate of ten miles for a day's march; receiving also the like allowance to carry them back to their homes; and that while detained for examination, they shall receive pay and beer money, as above.

And it is hereby notified, that all Out-Pensioners in South Britain, hereby called upon to attend, who shall not appear at the times and places herein appointed, will be considered as otherwise provided for by Government, or as dead, and will accordingly be struck off the books of the Out-Pension of the said Hospital, without any prospect of being restored thereto.

By command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty. PALMERSTON.

RIVER CHAM NAVIGATION.

IN pursuance of an Order of the House of Commons of the 26th day of March last, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament for an Act for amending an Act of Queen Anne, for making the River Cham more navigable, from Clayhithe-Ferry to the Queen's Mill, in the county of Cambridge.
