* * A Supplement to the Gazette of this Evening will be published, containing a Dispatch received from Lieutenant-General Sir John Murray, which has arrived too late to be prepared in time for the Gazette.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 17, 1813.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Thursday next the 20th instant, at one o'clock.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 30th of April 1813,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the recapture of ships and goods belonging to His Majesty's subjects, whereof the owners and proprietors are entitled to the restitution on salvage as by law established, losses have been occasioned by the sale of ships and cargoes, on the unlivery thereof by authority of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, for the purpose of settling the salvage due thereon, in cases wherein the owners and proprietors, or their agents specially authorised, are not present to claim;

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order; and it is hereby ordered, that, in the cases aforesaid, on a claim being given for the ship by the master, or in his absence by the mate; and for the cargo, by the supercargo or master, or by the mate in the absence of the master, the Court shall direct a valuation of the ship and cargo to be made by appraisement without sale or unlivery, as far as the same shall be practicable; and on such valuation to be approved and confirmed by the Court, shall direct the ship and cargo to be restored to the person or persons aforesaid claiming the same, on payment of the proportion decreed to be paid to the captors, in lieu of salvage, and of such costs and expenses as shall be directed by the Court; and in default of such payment, the Court shall order and direct so much of the cargo to be sold as shall be sufficient for the payment of the salvage and expenses due thereon; and further so much of the said cargo as shall be sufficient to pay the salvage and expenses due on the ship, if the person or persons to whom the cargo shall be restored by decree of the Court shall consent thereto.

And it is further ordered, that in no case shall the Court proceed to order the ship or goods to be sold or unlivered, save as aforesaid, unless such sale or unlivery shall, owing to special circumstances, become necessary; in which case the reasons on which the Judge shall proceed to make such order, shall be noted summarily in the minutes of Court: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Harris, of His Majesty's Ship Belle Poule, addressed to Admiral Lord Keith, and transmitted by his Lordship to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Ship Belle Poule, at Sea, May 11, 1813.

I HAVE the pleasure to inform you, that we captured, after a chase from five P.M. to half past two A.M. this morning, the Revenge American letter of marque schooner, thirty-seven days from Charleston to Bourdeaux; she is a new vessel, copper-bottomed and fastened, pierced for sixteen guns, having on board four long nine-pounders and thirty-two men.

Carlton-House, May 17, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint Major-General the Honourable Sir Charles Stewart, Knight of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, to be His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Court of His Majesty the King of Prussia.

Carlton-House, May 17, 1813.

This day Baron Jacobi Kloest, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from His Majesty the King of Prussia, had his first private audience of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, to deliver his credentials:

To which he was introduced by Viscount Castlereagh, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq. Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, May 17, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto George Anson, Esq. a Major-General of His Majesty's Forces, Lieutenant-Colonel of the 16th (or the Queen's) Regiment of Light Dragoons, and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the city of Litchfield, His Majesty's royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the insignia of an Honorary Knight Commander of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, with which His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal has honoured him, in testimony of the high sense which that Prince entertains of the distinguished courage and intrepidity displayed by that officer in several actions with the enemy in the Peninsula: Provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said concession and especial mark of the royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 17, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto the Honourable Thomas William Fermor, Colonel in the army, and Captain in the 3d Regiment of Foot Guards, His Majesty's royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the insignia of an Honorary Knight Commander of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, with which His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal has honoured him, in testimony of the high sense that Prince entertains of the distinguished courage and intrepidity displayed by the said Colonel Fermor in several actions with the enemy in the Peninsula: Provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said concession and especial mark of the royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 18, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto William Maundy Harvey, Esquire, a Colonel in the army, Lieutenant-Colonel of the 79th Regiment of Foot, and Brigadier-General in the Portuguese service, His Majesty's royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the insignia of an Honorary Knight Commander of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, with which His Royal Highness John Prince of Brazil, Prince Regent of Portugal, has been pleased to honour him, in testimony of the high sense which that Prince entertains of the great courage and intrepidity displayed by the said William Maundy Harvey in several actions with the enemy in the Peninsula: Provided nevertheless, that this His Majesty's licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's concession and especial mark of His royal favour, together with the relative documents, be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 18, 1813.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Matthew Forster, Gent. of the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.
