AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of May 1813,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Sir Thomas Plumer, Knt. Vice-Chancellor of England, was, by His Royal Highness's command, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, May 20, 1813.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are extracts, were this day received by Earl Bathurst from Brigadier-General Lyon.

Extract of a Letter from Brigadier-General Lyon, dated Hamburg, May 8, 1813.

THE advance of the different corps of the French army to the Elbe, rendered it necessary for the divisions of Generals Tettenborn, Dorenberg, and Czernicheff, to recross this river: they concentrated at Hamburg. On the 1st of May, General Sebastiani, with about seven thousand infantry and three thousand cavalry, moved from Luneburg in the direction of Magdeburg. On the 4th, this corps arrived and halted at Salzwedel.

General Davoust, with about ten thousand men, including the division of Vandamme, occupies Luneburg, Harburg, and Stade; detaching small posts of unequal strength at intermediate points along the banks of the Elbe. On the move of General Sebastiani to his right, General Count Walmoden marched with the corps of Dorenberg and Czernicheff to Deumitz.

Extract of a Letter from Brigadier-General Lyon, dated Schwarzenbeck, May 11, 1813.

A FEW hours after I had closed the letter which I had the honour of addressing to your Lordship on the 8th instant, the enemy attacked the posts on the island of Wilhelmsburg and Ochsenwerder, but I feel most happy in reporting they have been repulsed with considerable loss.

It appears that Marshal Davoust had collected from five to six thousand men in the vicinity of Harburg on the 8th instant. This force, with the exception of about fifteen hundred men left in Harburg, was embarked at one o'clock in the morning of the 9th. Favoured by the ebb tide, and under cover of numerous batteries on the opposite shore, a landing was effected at Wilhelmsburg long before break of day. The number of troops stationed in this island did not exceed eleven hundred men, the enemy gained therefore in the first instance considerable ground, but on the arrival of a Mecklenburg battalion, which was ordered immediately to their support, he was advanced upon and driven back to the boats.

A battalion of Hanoverians, commanded by Major de Berger, and a Lubec battalion, marching from Bergedorf and Zouenspiker on Ochsenwerder to the assistance of a corps of six hundred men stationed at this post, attacked the enemy with vigour and impetuosity on his right flank: this compelled him to retreat, and in falling back he set fire to all houses and mills in the line of his march.

The conduct of the corps under the orders of Major de Berger has been described to me as most distinguished: It was my intention to have made a particular report on the very rapid progress in discipline which this corps has made, although so very recently formed for His Majesty's service; and it is with great satisfaction I can add, that their gallantry in the field is equally conspicuous.

Upon the advance of the enemy, a flag of truce was sent out by General Wagher, commanding the advanced guard of the Danish army in Holstein, with a declaration, that the forces under his command would co-operate in the defence of Hamburg, should an attack be persevered in on that city. On the officer's return, and a continuation of the operations of the enemy, the Danish forces actually passed the frontier, and took up a position on the Hamburg-berg, with ten pieces of cannon, whilst a line of gun-boats was at the same time stationed for the defence of the port.

I am unacquainted with the loss the Allies have generally sustained in the late affair; it is estimated at about one hundred and fifty men and fifteen officers. I have learnt with regret, that the Hanoverian battalion has suffered severely, two captains and eighty men being killed or wounded.

The enemy entered Cuxhaven on the 8th instant. The detachment of the veteran battalion, under the orders of Major Kenzinger, are safely embarked.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, May 19, 1813.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are a copy and an extract, have been this day received at Earl Bathurst's Office, addressed to his Lordship by Lieutenant-General Sir John Murray, dated Alcoy, 17th April, and Castalla, 30th of April 1813.

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant-General Sir John Murray, to Earl Bathurst, dated Alcoy 17th April 1813.

I HAVE the honour of inclosing a copy of a dispatch, addressed this morning to the Marquess of Wellington. The army remains in the position of Alcoy.

My Lord, Alcoy, 17th of April 1813.

IN my dispatch of the 14th instant, I had the honour to acquaint your Lordship that the army was on its march to Alcoy. In the course of the night I learned that the enemy had, by forced marches, occupied Onteniente and Mogente, and that he would reach San Felipe before me.

As the troops were much fatigued, I halted on the 15th instant.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) J. MURRAY.

*His Excellency Marquess of Wellington,
&c. &c. &c.*

My Lord, Castalla, 30th of April 1813.

IN forwarding the duplicate of my letter of the 14th, I beg to acquaint your Lordship that my information respecting General Harispe proves incorrect, although it came to me from several quarters, and continued to be reported for several days.

The loss of the enemy amounts fully to the number at which I have stated it.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) J. MURRAY, Lieut. Gen.

*Right Honourable Earl Bathurst,
&c. &c. &c.*

Carlton-House, May 17, 1813.

CONTRACTS FOR COALS AND CANDLES.

Commissary in Chief's Office, London,
May 18, 1813.

WANTED for the barracks in the under-mentioned counties in South Britain, for the barracks in North Britain, and in the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney, such quantities of

Coals and Candles

as may from time to time be required by the respective Barrack-Masters for the time being.

The deliveries to commence as soon after the 25th of June next as the respective Barrack-Masters shall require, and to continue until the 24th of June following.

Proposals for supplying coals, made separately for each county in South Britain, the whole of the barracks in North Britain, and likewise for those in the three islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney, sealed up and marked "Tender for Coals," will be received at this Office until twelve o'clock on Wednesday the 2d of June; the parties tendering observing, that in those counties where both sea and inland coals are used, the proposal must particularly express the price of each description.

Proposals for supplying candles, sealed up and marked "Tender for Candles," will be received until twelve o'clock on Friday the 4th of June; but no proposal, either for coals or candles, will be noticed, unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the prices inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposal from two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the sum expressed in the particulars, for the due performance of the contract.

If tenders are sent by post, the postage must be paid.

Particulars of the contracts may be had on application at this Office, between the hours of eleven and five; to Deputy Commissary-General Lindesay, Edinburgh; Deputy Commissary-General Coope, Guernsey; and Deputy Commissary-General Low, Jersey.
