NOTICE.—GUSTAVE FERDINAND HELLBIG.

THE Magistracy of the Town of Iglo, in Upper Hungary, doth hereby require Mr. Gustave Ferdinand Hellbig, Son of Mrs. A. Sussane Hellbig, born Palzmann, deceased, who thirty years ago sailed from Amsterdam, on board a Dutch Ship for the East Indies, to come and appear within a year and three days personally or by attorney, at the house of Mr. Jean George de Scheidlin, Banker at Vienna, to receive a share of the estate of his mother, under pain of himself and his family being excluded therefrom, which in that case and according to his Mother's will, will be distributed to her nearest relations.—Dated Iglo, in Hungary, the 30th of April 1813.

Apply for further information to the house of John Gore, and Co. Esqrs. Merchants, Bishopsgate-Street, London. 14th of May 1813.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, by Order of the Lord Chancellor, before the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Thomas Fricker, by Mr. Willock, at Garraway's Coffee-House, in Change-Alley, Cornhill, London, on Saturday the 29th day of May instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, in one lot,

A substantial, spacious, but unfinished leasehold house, most desirably situate, No. 26, on the East side of Seymour-Place, between Bryanston-Square and the Edgware-Road, in the Parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the County of Middlesex, with coach-house, stabling, and workshops in the Mews behind.

The above-mentioned house is in a most respectable situation, is substantially built and well timbered, covered with a good slated roof; and contains,

On the attic story—Three bed rooms, divided by stout partitions, one floor laid, and the windows sashed.

On the two pair floor—Three bedchambers, divided by stout partitions, the floors laid, the windows sashed, with sliding shutters; three closets with shelves.

On the one pair floor—Two drawing rooms, with stout partitions, the floors laid, sashes down to the skirting, and balcony along the front, doors and shutters hung, and folding doors, with stout brass hinges, between the rooms.

On the ground floor—An entrance hall, eating room, and breakfast room, with stout partitions, the floors laid, the windows sashed, backs, elbows, sofas, and boxes fixed ready for the shutters; the staircase, with square banister and mahogany hand rail, nearly finished.

On the basement story—Four arched vaults in front area, kitchen, housekeeper's room, and butler's pantry, with stout partitions, and a wine cellar.

In the mews, immediately behind the house, is a coach-house and stable for four horses, with room and loft over, and also a workshop and rooms adjoining, all well roofed, but the internal parts unfinished.

The above described premises are held on lease for a term of which 96 years were unexpired at Christmas 1812, subject to a ground rent of thirty pounds per annum, and other usual covenants, all which will be ready, from a copy of the lease, at the time of sale.

N.B. Under the Order of the Lord Chancellor, the Mortgagees are at liberty to be the purchasers, at a sum to cover the principal, interest, and expences, if there is not a higher sum offered for the premises.

The premises may be viewed till the sale, by applying to Mr. Fricker, Paperhanger, &c. in Upper George-Street, near the premises; and further information and particulars may be had by applying to Mr. Coppage, Solicitor, in Jermyn-Street, Saint James's, and Mr. Willock, No. 25, Golden-Square.

To Corn-Dealers, Hop and Seed-Merchants, Ale and Porter-Dealers, &c.

TO be sold by auction, by direction of the Assignee of William Cloughton Dey, a Bankrupt, with the consent of the Mortgagee, by Mr. James Jepson, at the house of Mr. James Farrington, the Red Lion Inn, in Doncaster, in the County of York, on Friday the 18th day of June next, between the hours of Four and Six in the Evening, either together or
