[The Details of the returns of the regimental loss will be published hereafter.]

Mr Lord, Irunzun, June 24, 1813.

THE departure of Captain Fremantle having been delayed till this day, by the necessity of making up the returns, I have to report to your Lordship, that we have continued to pursue the enemy, whose rear reached Pamplona this day. We have done them as much injury as has been in our power, considering the state of the weather and of the roads; and this day the advanced guard, consisting of Major-General Victor Baron Alten's brigade, and the 1st and 3d battalions of the 95th regiment, and Major Ross's troop of horse artillery, took from them the remaining gun they had. They have entered Pamplona, therefore, with one howitzer only.

General Clausel, who had under his command that part of the Army of the North, and one division of the Army of Portugal which was not in the action of the 21st, approached Vittoria on the 22d when he heard of the action of the preceding day, and finding there the 6th division, which had just arrived under the command of Major-General the Honourable E. Pakenham, he retired upon la Guardia, and has since marched upon Tudela de Ebro.

It is probable that the enemy will continue their retreat into France.

I have detached General Giron with the Gallician Army in pursuit of the convoy which moved from Vittoria on the morning of the 20th, which I hope he will overtake before it reaches Bayonne.

I have the honour to be, &c.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honourable Lord Keith, Admiral of the Red, and Commander in Chief of the Channel Fleet, addressed to John Wilson, Croker, Esp. Vated on board the Queen Charlotte, off Ushant, 1st July 1813.

SIR,

I HAVE just received by the Sparrow a dispatch from Captain Sir George R. Collier, of which the enclosure is a copy, reporting the evacuation of Castro by the enemy on the 22d ult. on which occasion, by the promptitude and zeal of Captain Taylor of that sloop, the French commanding officer was prevented from destroying his artillery and powder.

I have the honour to be, &c.

His Majesty's Ship Surveillante, at Anchor.

MY LORD, off Castro, June 25, 1813.

I HAVE the satisfaction to acquaint your Lordship, that the supplies of the garrison of Castro de Urdales, having been cut off by His Majesty's cruisers on this coast, and the total want of meat obliged the commanding officer to evacuate the castle on the 22d instant, and retire to Santona. The Sparrow heaving in sight at the same moment, obliged the Commandante to do this so precipitately, as to prevent his destroying his artillery and powder, or doing any mischief to the castle itself. Captain Taylor very properly immediately garrisoned the castle, and this day we have had a party of the army under General Mendizabel.

I am sorry to say, five-sixth of this town is in ruins; and that the dreadful barbarities committed by the French-Italian troops, as detailed by the few surviving old women, are too shocking to be made the subject of a public letter; nor was the carnage confined to the evening of the storm alone. The inhabitants who fled are now returning, but misery and poverty are at an acmé. Fourteen of the savage authors of these excesses were taken in Bilboa, since the evacuation, and were deservedly put to death.

I have now the pleasure of saying, that the whole line of coast from Guetaria to Santona is evacuated by the enemy.

I have the honour to be, &c.
