Copy of A Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir Edward Pellew, Baronet, Commander in Chief in the Mediterranean, to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated on board the Caledonia, at Port Mahon, the 28th May, 1813.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to inclose a letter from Captain Brace, detailing the particulars of a successful service performed by the marines of the Berwick, and the boats of that ship and the Euryalus, which reflects much credit on the officers and men employed therein. I am happy to learn he has lost but one man on this service.

I have the honour to be, &c.

ED. PELLEW.

*Berwick, off Cavalacie,
May 16, 1813.*

SIR,

I BEG leave to acquaint you, that through the judicious management of Captain Napier, the enemy's coasting trade to and from Toulon to the eastward, was, between the 10th and 15th inst. collected in Cavalacie Road to the number of upwards of twenty sail: judging that a proper object for attack, I made the necessary arrangements to carry the place, but the surf proved too great for the people to land until the morning of the 16th instant, when the plan was carried into execution by the boats, commanded by Lieutenant Sweedland, First of this ship, and the royal marines under Captain Matthews, of that corps. Allow me to observe on the prompt manner in which this service was accomplished; for scarce twenty minutes elapsed from their reaching the beach until the batteries were taken, and a fire opened from them on the retreating enemy. The French National xebec La Fortune, carrying ten long nine-pounders and four swivels, with a crew of ninety-five men (as appears by her quarter bill), commanded by Monsieur Lecarnus, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, tried to effect her escape, but the Euryalus pushing close in, cut her off, and the crew abandoned her, leaving her at anchor with a spring on her cable, under the fire of the frigate, forts, and a division of the boats, under Lieutenant White, who boarded her in time to preserve her from blowing up or sinking, as the enemy had fired a shot through her bottom, and left a train to the magazine. We found in the harbour twenty-two vessels of different descriptions, which were either taken or destroyed; those scuttled by the enemy were cleared by the Euryalus, who took an anchorage to protect the working party, and through the great exertions of Captain Napier, the officers and men employed on that service, every thing was brought away worthy of notice.

Having related my proceeding, permit me to call your attention to the officers and men who conducted this affair, and if, in your judgment, any merit is attached to the transaction, I entreat you to bestow it on Captain Napier, the officers, seamen, and marines of both ships, whose united exertions so fully accomplished my wishes, that I have only to regret the loss of one man killed, and one missing.

I shall only particularize Lieutenant Sweedland and Captain Matthews, of this ship, Lieutenant Sandilands, First of the Euryalus, together with two young men, Mr. John Monk, of the Berwick, and Mr. Crawford, of the Euryalus.

I have the honour to be,

(Signed) E. BRACE, Captain.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Adam, of His Majesty's Ship Invincible, addressed to Vice-Admiral Sir Edward Pellew, and transmitted by the latter to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Ship Invincible, Salon Bay, April 4, 1813.

SIR,

THE Baron de Eroles having requested I would co-operate in an attack on the enemy's posts at Ampolla and Perello, near the Ebro, two boats of His Majesty's ship under my command, armed with carronades, under the directions of Lieutenant Corbyn the first Lieutenant, and a Spanish felucca, in which a party of troops were embarked, left this bay on the afternoon of the 1st instant, with orders to attack the post at Ampolla.

The troops were landed within two miles of it, about one o'clock in the morning, and the battery of two eighteen-pounders was completely surprised, the sentry having been shot. The guns were then turned on the fortified house, in which the greater part of the guard were posted, who evacuated it immediately, and most of them escaped, but some of them were afterwards taken at Perello.

That place, which is two leagues inland from Ampolla, was invested by a detachment of the Baron de Eroles's troops on the morning of the 2d inst. and upon the enemy refusing to receive a flag of truce, the walls of the town, which were filled with loop holes, were scaled, and a large square tower in the middle of the town, into which the French troops retreated, was immediately surrounded.

Owing to light winds and calms, I was not able to anchor the Invincible in Ampolla Bay until the afternoon of the 2d. Two field-pieces were immediately landed, and sent to Perello under the direction of Lieutenant Corbyn, assisted by Lieutenant Pidgley and the midshipmen and men attached to the guns. They were placed in a house near the tower, and at daylight the next morning opened upon it.

After a very resolute defence, two breaches having been made in the tower, it surrendered, and a lieutenant and thirty-three soldiers were made prisoners. The enemy had one killed and three wounded. They kept up a very heavy fire of musketry the whole time, but I have the satisfaction to say, that only one man belonging to this ship was wounded. The Spanish troops had two killed and six wounded.

At Ampolla two small privateers fell into our hands, which had been employed in communicating with Tarragona, and intercepting the trade passing the mouth of the Ebro. The post appears to have been established chiefly for the protection of this description of vessels and their prizes.

By the taking of Perello, the enemy's communications with the Col de Balagner is very much straitened, as it is on the high road from that place to Tortosa.

The Baron de Eroles speaks in the highest terms of the assistance afforded him by Lieutenant Corbyn, and the officers and men under his directions; and I have great satisfaction in reporting it to you.

I have the honour to be, &c.

C. ADAM, Captain.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Moubray, of his Majesty's Ship Repulse, addressed to Captain Sir John Gore, of the Revenge, and transmitted by Vice-Admiral Sir Edward Pellew to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

SIR,

Repulse, off Toulon, May 3, 1813.

HAVING yesterday met the Honourable Captain Waldegrave, of the Volontaire, with the Undaunted, and Redwing, near the port of Morgion, where the enemy was observed actively employed in preparation for remounting cannon on the batteries, and viewing with him the importance of this situation as a place of protection to the coasting trade, I caused one hundred royal marines of the Repulse, under the command of Captain Ennis, to proceed, in conjunction with those of the frigates, for the purpose of destroying the works, whilst the boats should bring out some vessels that were in the harbour. The whole, under the direction of Lieutenant Shaw, of the Volontaire, whose local knowledge rendered him peculiarly qualified to conduct the enterprise, covered by the fire of the Redwing, and launches with carronades, were landed, and drove the enemy, consisting of a detachment of the 4th battalion of the 1st regiment of the line, to the heights in the rear, where he was kept in check until the vessels were secured, and the batteries, on which were found nine gun carriages, and a thirteen inch mortar, were blown up, and completely destroyed. I have to regret the loss of two brave men who fell in the boats on this occasion, as well as to have to place the name of Lieutenant Shaw among the list of the wounded; but considering the strong position the enemy occupied, and the loss he sustained, which we know to be at least twelve killed, besides several prisoners, it is comparatively small.

Witnessing from the ship the regularity and gallantry with which this service was executed, I cannot deny myself the pleasure of expressing my admiration of all employed on it.

I enclose lists of the vessels captured, and of the killed and wounded.

I have the honour to be, &c.

R. H. MOUBRAY.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Taylor, of his Majesty's Ship Apollo, addressed to Rear-Admiral Fremantle, and transmitted by Vice-Admiral Sir Edward Pellew to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Ship Apollo, Curzola, February 4, 1813.

SIR,

IN compliance with your orders of the 18th January, we proceeded, with two hundred and fifty men under Lieutenant-Colonel Robertson, on board the Apollo, Esperanza privateer, and four gun-boats, to the attack of the island of Augusta, and I have the honour to acquaint you that it surrendered on the 29th.

During this service, which was attended with excessive fatigue, by the nature of the mountains over which we had to pass, a distinguished share fell to Captain Rorica, who with fifteen Calabrese, Mr. Thomas Ullock, Purser of the Apollo, an artilleryman, and our guide, Antonio Langaletta, spiked the guns of the lower battery, under musketry of the fort, likewise to Captain May (35th regiment), Lieutenant George Bowen, and Mr. Ullock, of the Apollo, with forty men and the assistance of the inhabitants, who destroyed a store of provisions, took a serjeant of artillery, and two soldiers in the town, also under the musketry of the fort.

I do not mean, by mentioning these in particular, to take from the merits of others, who were all equally zealous.

I cannot either avoid mentioning the great exertions of the gun boats under Lieutenant McDonald, (35th regiment) the barge, launch, and yawl, under Messrs. William Henry Brand, William Hutchason, and William David Fowkes, midshipmen of the Apollo; they drew a continual fire of the fort and battery upon them, and captured a boat attempting to get out with dispatches.

The fort stands upon the pinnacle of a mountain, which position is so strong, that fifty English soldiers, with the good disposition of the inhabitants, are likely to resist any force the enemy may send against it. Its garrison consisted of one hundred and thirty-nine men. It has one mortar, one eighteen, and two eight-pounders: three eighteen-pounders in the lower battery, and there are several musketry out-works.

We have only to lament the loss of one man on our side, an inhabitant, killed; the enemy had one wounded.

Colonel Robertson having left a garrison in Augusta, we sailed on the 1st with the Imogene, and gun-boat No. 43, to attack this island.

Although it blew excessive hard in squalls, we succeeded in landing one hundred and sixty soldiers, seventy seamen, and fifty marines, with a howitzer, and six-pounder field gun, the same night, at Port Bufalo, which enabled Major Slessor (35th regiment), with the flankers, to surprise the hill, with a musketry work upon it, that commands the town.

Hearing that three hundred enemy's troops to relieve Augusta, were arrived on the opposite shore (Sabionalla), I directed Lieutenant Charles Taylor, acting commander of the Imogene, to bring away or destroy their boats, and if fired at from Curzola, not to return it to the town, which instructions he obeyed with the utmost forbearance, as he fired over all, when their fire was directed at him. Mr. Antonio Parbo, commander of the gun-boats, likewise behaved gallantly; his vessel was hulled three or four times.

Finding that the enemy appeared determined to hold out (although our field-guns were upon the hill, and our advance in the suburbs within pistol shot), and that the civic guard were collecting in the country; I took off the Apollo's seamen to attack the sea batteries, which, in the morning of the 3d, after about three hours firing, we silenced; they then agreed to capitulate; and I am happy to add, that we thereby have captured the privateer which molested the trade of the Adriatic so much, also two of her prizes.

In this I lament the loss of two seamen, Charles M'Gregor, killed by grape: and Edward Williams, drowned, by the sinking of the yawl in securing the ship; William Ward, slightly wounded.

I have also to regret that the ship's mainmast is very badly wounded, as well as a quantity of rigging cut.

Upon the walls of the town, and in its towers, were three eighteen-pounders and eight small guns.

It would be presumption in me to speak of my coadjutor Lieutenant-Colonel Robertson's conduct, throughout our little expedition, in a military point of view; but I may say, no service could have been performed with greater cordiality between all under his command, and our officers, seamen, and marines.

The day the island surrendered we captured seven vessels in the Channel, bound to Ragusa and Cattaro, principally with grain, for which those places are in great distress.

We have also had the satisfaction of returning a quantity of church plate, bells, &c. which was seized, and ready to be carried away by the French, from Curzola and Augusta.

I have the honour to be, &c.

B. W. TAYLOR.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Jas. Buller.

ERRATUM in the Extraordinary Gazette of Saturday, page 1267:

For Lieutenant-Colonel Brooke, of the Adjutant-General's Department, Read Lieutenant-Colonel Rooke.

Office of Ordnance, June 18, 1813.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Friday, the 9th day of July next, from such persons who may be willing to undertake the performance of the Carpenter's and Joiner's Works, for service of the Ordnance in the following divisions, viz.

Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Medway, upon a contract for five years, determinable after the expiration of two years; upon six months notice being given by either party.

The contract to commence as soon as possible after the lowest offers can be ascertained. Persons who are disposed to make tenders, are to understand that, notwithstanding provision is made in the schedule to be delivered, for a rate of pay for carpenters employed by the day, and also for such materials as may be supposed to be required on the same principle, yet it is intended, this mode should apply chiefly to such services as may, in some degree, be connected with the performance of works by admeasurement, or in the event of any emergency which may justify employing the contractor on this footing.

It is further to be understood, that the contract is intended to apply only to new work, or such other very general repairs as the Board, or the Commanding Royal Engineer may deem expedient to be performed by the contractor.

Proposals for the performance of the work in the Portsmouth division will be received either for the whole of the carpenter's and joiner's work which may be required in the division, or separately for the works on the Portsmouth and Gosport sides.

Printed schedules of the contract will be delivered to such persons who may apply for them at the Office of the Secretary to the Board, in Pall-Mall, between the hours of ten and four o'clock; and also at the Offices of the Commanding Royal Engineer at Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Chatham.

Payment to be made within three months next after the quarter in which the certificate of the performance of the work, or the delivery of the articles, shall be lodged in the Office of the Surveyor-General at the Tower; or in default thereof, an interest, after the rate of 5l. per cent. per annum, will be allowed.

The proposals are to be delivered at the Office of the Secretary to the Board, in Pall-Mall, sealed up, and endorsed "Proposals for the Performance of the Carpenter's and Joiner's Works, either in the Portsmouth, Plymouth, or Medway Divisions, whichever Division the Parties may tender for;" and it is to be understood, that no proposal will be admitted after the said 9th day of July, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day.

By order of the Board;

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, June 28, 1813.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Monday the 12th day of July next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of

for service of this Department, for a period of three years; determinable at the expiration of one year, at the option of either party.

Samples of the articles may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower; and it is expected, that all tenders do express one price only for the oil, whether required in the raw or boiled state.

Further particulars, together with the terms and conditions of their contract, may be known at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and endorsed "Proposals for Oil and Turpentine;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 12th of July, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.
