

a much antienter date than Your Majesties late most Gracious Declaration: We are glad indeed and rejoice that this hath proved so effectual to remove the unreasonable fears and jealousies of many, misinformed by the Factious Demagogues amongst us; and most thankfully acknowledge Your Majesties great Condescension therein: But for our selves we humbly beg leave to say this Truth, That we needed it not; being abundantly satisfied of Your Majesties Justice and Goodness by a more demonstrative Declaration given us in the constant tenor of Your Actions and Government over us. This hath long since spoken loud enough to all the Inhabitants of this our Island; That our happiness is not to be parcelled in any of our neighbour Nations. We profess our selves amazed at the unaccountable Discontents and ingratitude of those among us that have found pretences of complaining in the midst of the most desirable circumstances, and cannot but judge their Sin and Guilt far greater than that of the old Murderers among the Isaiah whom God destroyed; for these murmured in the Wilderness, but ours murmured in the Land of Canaan. Great and Gracious SIR, we are sensible that in you we enjoy the best of Kings, and shall endeavour to the utmost of our Power, to approve our selves the best of Subjects, by a cheerful performance of all that Duty which we owe Your Majesty by the Laws of God and this Realm; and by an Obedience not extorted by fear, or the mere impulse of Conscience, but flowing from Love and Delight. And we most sincerely and affectionately offer to Your Majesty our Persons and Purse, our Lives and Fortunes, with whatever Interest we have, or are able to make, to Defend Your Sacred Person; to maintain the Succession of Your Crown in its due and legal Descent, and to assert Your Royal Prerogative, (with which our own just Rights and Liberties, have an inseparable Connection) against all Inroachments, whether Papal or Popular; and all Antimonarchical Designs and Attempts whatsoever.

That Almighty God would Graciously please to bless your Majesty with the continuance of a wise Council, that may be able to counterminde and defeat all the subtle and restless Machinations of your Majesties and our Enemies; and Grant You a long and prosperous Reign, under which the truly Ancient and Catholick Faith, professed in the Church of England, may flourish; And in order hereunto, That Your Majesties most Gracious Inclinations may in due time meet with a Temperate, Sober, Religious, and Loyal Houle of Commons, that may throughout all their Consultations, Conscientiously mind the Solemn Oath they severally take at the very entrance of them, According to their Oath to Assist and Defend all Just Rights, Priviledges, Preheminencies, and Liberties Granted, or belonging to the Kings Highness, His Heirs and Successors, or united and annexed to the Imperial Crown of this Realm: That may carefully shun the Footsteps of that fatal Assembly in 40. and the unwarrantable Proceedings (to use the more gentle Expression of Your Sacred Majesty) of the other two in the ominous period of the succeeding 40. threatening little less danger to us, if Your Majesties Wisdom had not reasonably interposed; that may before it be too late with all thankful Submission, accept the Gracious offers on your Majesties part, for the securing of the established Religion, and the Liberty and Prosperity of the Subject, without presuming farther to say that, which your Majesty hath so often Declared (and your Majesties Supreme Council and Court in this, together with an entire Parliament of our Siller-Nation have expressed to be their Sense also) cannot in Honour, Conscience, or Safety be Granted; that may readily according to their bounden Duty, assist your Majesty with such Supplies, as are requisite to support the Reputation of the Government, and to invite and strengthen those Alliances which have been so long desired, and so often frustrated, chiefly by the unreasonable disturbances of some who have yet pretended most to desire them. And finally, that may be Makers of none, but effectual Repairers of all our Breaches, is the hearty Prayer of

Your Majesties most Devoted Subjects,

Whitehal. Dec. 7. The Justices of the Peace of Middlesex, being this day ordered to attend His Majesty in Council, His Majesty was pleased to renew His former Orders for their tendering the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, to all Persons that are suspected to be Papists and for the Prosecuting such as refused them, according to Law.

We are wanting the Letters from France, Flanders, and Holland.

Captain Hill doth hereby give Notice to all truly Loyal Indigent Commission-Officers, that did give in their Certificates to the Honourable the Commissioners, Sitting in the Sta.-Chamber at Westminster, before the ninth and twentieth day of September, 1662. and had Warrants from the said Commissioners, to receive their Proportion of the Sixty thousand pounds, and other Moneys given by Act of Parliament, and did not receive their full share, or any part thereof; that every of them do give or send in to the said Captain Hill, their Solicitor, at Mr. Thomas Aubrey's House, an Attorney at Law, in Green-street, near Leicester-Fields in the Parish of St. Martins in the Fields, in the County of Middlesex, at or before the 14th day of January next, their Certificates made upon Oath before two of His Majesties Justices of the Peace, that they are Living, and had a real Command of Soldiers; and never deserted His Majesty, or His Blessed Fathers Service, during the late times of Rebellion and Usurpation; and that he hath not a sufficient Livelyhood of his own, nor hath since His Majesties Restauration, obtained any Reward, Office, or Employment sufficient for a Livelyhood; To the end that every such Person may be presented to the Commissioners to receive their Proportion and Shares out of Eighteen hundred pounds, lately recovered and received for that purpose, so as they subscribe the Allowance of the Charges out of their Shares or Dividends, for the Soliciting and Gaining the Money, as the major part of the Officers have already done.

☞ The Statutes at Large in Paragraphs and Sections or Numbers, from MAGNA CHARTA until this time, (Carefully Examined by the Rolls of Parliament; with the Titles of such Statutes as are Expired, Repealed, Altered, or out of Use,) Together with the Heads of Poulton's or Rastal's Abridgments in the Margin, and the Addition of above a Thousand New References from other Books of Law; And a New TABLE. By Joseph Keeble of Grays-Inn, Esq; Printed by His Majesties Printers, and the Assigns of Richard Atkins, and Edward Atkins, Esquires.

Advertisements.

☞ The Anatomy of Humane Bodies Epitomized. Wherein all the Parts of Man's Body, with their Actions and Uses are succinctly described, according to the newest Doctrine of the most accurate and Learned Modern Anatomists. By a Fellow of the Colledge of Physicians, London; and Licensed by the President and Censors of the same Colledge. Sold by T. Fisher at the Angel and Crown in St. Pauls Church-yard.

ON the 26th of the last Month, one John Fundebrooke, a Dutch Man, in a Green Livery and Cap Laced with Silver, Servant to his Highness Prince Rupert, deserted his Service without leave, and took with him a Gun and a Spaniel, the Dog Liver-colour and White. These are to give Notice, whoever shall detain the Man or Dog, and give notice thereof to one of His Highnesses Servants, shall be well rewarded.

Tolen from Mr. William Bissell at the Globe Tavern in Cheshire, by his Servant Martha Huckle, about 250l. in old Gold, Guineas and Silver, some Crown-pieces, being King Edwards, and Coales the First, three Diamond Rings, seven or eight plain Rings, a Gilt Snuff-Box, fourteen Silver Spoons, some mark'd W.B. some W.S.B. with several sorts of Laced Linnen, and other things; He is about 25 years of age, fresh Colour, round Face, dark Brown Hair, he had on a Black Crape Maantua Gown; there was with her a young Man and a Woman. Whoever can give notice of her, or either of them, so that she may be apprehended, and the Goods recovered, shall have 20l. reward.

LOst from Wooling-on-Parr in the County of Oxon, about a Month since, a couple of small Reagle Bitches, the one Black and White, with a Brown Head, the other a Brown, a little thagred; Whoever gives notice to Mr. Emond at the Bag Horse in Great St. Martin-street near St. Martins-Lane Field, or at Woolingon-Park aforesaid, shall have to s. reward for each Bitch.

Printed by Tho. Newcomb in the Saroy, 1681.