To the Creditors of THOMAS COCKLE, late of the Dyehouse, in the Parish of Minchinhampton, in the County of Gloucester, Clothier, deceased.

Tetbury, July 3, 1813.

Notice is hereby given, that the first dividend arising from the trust estates and effects of the said Thomas Cockle, amounting to ten shillings in the pound, will be made and paid to and amongst his several Creditors, at the White Hart Inn, Tetbury, in the said County of Gloucester, on Wednesday the 28th day of July instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, when every Creditor will be required to deposit his or her debt upon oath, either personally, or by exhibiting a written affidavit taken before a Master Extraordinary in Chancery.

MR. JAMES HODDINOTT, deceased.

ALL persons having claims on the estate of the late Mr. James Hoddinott, of Cateaton-Street, in the City of London, Silkman, are desired to send the particulars thereof immediately to Mr. Maples, No. 12, Old Jewry; and all persons indebted to the estate are desired to pay their debts immediately to Mr. Maples, on account of Mr. Hoddinott's executrix.

LANCASHIRE AND YORKSHIRE.

Valuable Freehold Tythes and Pews, in the Chancel of the Church of Rochdale.

To be sold, in lots, the whole of the Rectorial Tythes, Easter Dues, Mortuaries, and other profits arising out of the Parish of Rochdale, in the County of Lancaster, and of the Parochial Chapelry of Saddleworth, in the County of York, comprehending about 45,000 statute acres of land, whereof three-fourths are old inclosed land, or lands now under the operation of an Inclosure Act.

Also nine pews, or seats, in the Chancel of Rochdale Church.

This property holds out many advantages to capitalists, from the rapid improvement making in the neighbourhood, by the introduction of canals, roads, &c. The Easter dues, mortuaries, and other payments, are very valuable, the population being estimated at fifty thousand individuals.

Printed particulars will be ready to be delivered some time in the month of August next, and the time and place of sale will then be fixed.

To be peremptorily resold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Owen against Foulkes, dated the 16th day of March 1813, with the approbation of William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, in the Public Sale Room of the Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Friday the 13th day of August 1813, between the hours of One and Two in the Afternoon;

A freehold estate, consisting of two messuages or dwelling-houses, outbuildings, and garden, and several parcels of land adjoining, situate on the West side of that part of Saint Asaph, in the County of Flint, commonly called the Row, in the Parish of Saint Asaph, which leads from Saint Asaph to Rhyldean, part of the tenements known by the name of Pont y Gutter, alias Neff and Plass Captain, containing eight acres and seven piches, or thereabouts, statute measure, great part of which is meadow land, and now in the occupation of Robert Roberts (or his under-tenants), as tenants from-year to year; all which estate was late the property of the Reverend David Foulkes, deceased, and afterwards of Thomas Foulkes, Esq. deceased.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Orred and Baines, Solicitors, at Liverpool (where a plan may be seen); of Mr. Richards and Mr. Finchett, Solicitors, at Chester; and of Messrs. Cooper and Lowe, Solicitors, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid.

Carnarvon, July 5, 1813.

By a Decree of the Court of Chancery of the Great Sessions for the Counties of Carnarvon, Anglesey, and Merioneth, in a Cause wherein Richard Hughes and another are complainants, and Robert Roberts, Esq. and others, are defendants, the unsatisfied Creditors of Richard Roberts, late of Liverpool, in the County-Palatine of Lancaster, Merchant, deceased, are ordered to attend and prove their debts before the Register of the said Court—Notice is, therefore, hereby given, that the said Creditors are to attend for that purpose at my Office, situate in the Town of Carnarvon, in the County of Carnarvon, on the 7th of August next, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Two in the Afternoon; and before they are admitted thereto, they must contribute to the costs and expences of the said suit, otherwise they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Decree.

C. A. POOLE, Register.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a cause, wherein George Hodgkins and others are Plaintiffs, and Arters Frederick Randall and others are Defendants, it was, amongst other things, ordered, that it should be referred to James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court, when Elizabeth Randall, the late wife of Francis Randall, late of Sanford-Place, Stoke Newington, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. the Testator in the pleadings named, died, and what grandchildren of the said Testator were living at the time of her death, (except Francis, Frederick, and Georgiana, children of the said Testator's son Samuel Randall) and what were the respective ages of such grandchildren, or who were so living as aforesaid; and whether any of them have since died, and when, and if any of them who are dead, lived to attain their ages of twenty-one years, and who are the personal represen-
