Published by Authority.

From Saturday, July 17, to Tuesday, July 20, 1813.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 15th of July 1813,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS, His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 5th of April 1805, touching the performance of quarantine, to direct, that all merchant ships and vessels, and all other ships and vessels not having the plague, or any other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, actually on board, (except any ship of war, transport, or other ship in the actual service of Government, under the command of a commissioned officer of His Majesty's navy) coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, which should not be furnished with clean bills of health, should perform quarantine in Standgate Creek, and no where else;

And whereas it is deemed expedient, that all merchant ships and vessels, and all other ships and vessels as aforesaid, coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, and bound to the Western Ports of the United Kingdom, should be permitted to perform their quarantine at Milford Haven, instead of Standgate Creek, as directed by the said order; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all merchant ships and vessels, and all other ships and vessels not having the plague, or any other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects actually on board, (except any ship of war, transport, or other ship in the actual service of Government, under the command of a commissioned officer of His Majesty's Navy), coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, and bound to the western ports of the United Kingdom, which shall not be furnished with clean bills of health, shall be permitted to perform their quarantine at Milford Haven, subject to such provisions, rules, regulations, and restrictions, pains, penalties, fines, forfeitures, and punishments, contained in His Majesty's before mentioned Order in Council, bearing date the 5th day of April 1805, or any other Order or Orders in Council, or any Act of Parliament now in force, as they would be subject to in case they should perform their quarantine at Standgate Creek.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General, and the rest of the principal officers of the ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief for the time being of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 15th of July 1813,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the first day of February last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire upon the eighth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months to commence from the said eighth day of August next, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, or carry coastwise, any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, or carrying the same coastwise, without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition:" and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 15th of July 1813,

PRESENT,

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the first day of February last, prohibiting, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, the transporting into any parts out of this kingdom of any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, or other naval stores, will expire upon the eighth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whosoever do, at any time for the space of six months from the said eighth day of August next, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores, or do ship or lade any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, without leave or permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is nevertheless His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's ships of war, or any other ships or vessels or boats in the service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any ship or vessel from taking or having on board such quantities of naval stores as may be necessary for the use of such ship or vessel during the course of her intended voyage, or by licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being; nor to the exportation of the said several articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards or garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the exportation of any of the said articles for the purposes of trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards and garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies, the exporters of such articles do first make oath of the true destination of the same to the places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient security by bond (except as hereinafter excepted), to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said articles to the places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the purposes specified, and none other; and such bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until proof be made to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the production, within a time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the bond, of a certificate or certificates, in such form and manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said articles have been all duly landed at the places for which they were entered outwards. But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, that the following articles, viz. bar iron, white and tarred rope, tallow or mill grease, tarpaulins for waggon covers, pitch, tar, and turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon payment of the proper duties, without bond being entered into by the merchant exporter, to any of the British plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's settlements in South America; provided the merchant exporter shall first verify, upon oath, that the articles so exported are intended for the use of a particular plantation or settlement, to be named in the entry outwards, and not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of fifty pounds sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments, within the same season: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

Admiralty-Office, July 20, 1813.

VICE-ADMIRAL Sir Edward Pellew has transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq. a letter from Captain Flin, of His Majesty's sloop Cephalus, addressed to Vice-Admiral Pickmore, giving an account of his having, on the 10th of June, off Cape Mola, captured the French privateer schooner La Jeune Thetis, from Leghorn, armed with ten guns, and manned with seventy-six men:

Sir Edward Pellew has also transmitted a letter from Vice-Admiral Sir Sidney Smith, stating, that His Majesty's ship Alcmene had captured, on the 8th of June last, the French lateen rigged vessel the Aigle, of seven guns, one howitzer, and fifty-nine men:

And also a letter from Captain Hamilton, of His Majesty's ship Rainbow, stating, that the boats of that ship, under Lieutenant Kennedy, had captured, off the shore of Corsica, a lateen-rigged vessel, laden with oak planks.

Whitehall, July 19, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Henry Belward Moyses, of South Town, in the county of Suffolk, Esq. His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he and his issue may, from grateful respect to the memory of the Reverend Richard Belward (late called Richard Fisher); Doctor of Divinity, and Master of Caius and Gonville College, in the University of Cambridge, deceased, take and use the surname of Belward, in addition to and after that of Moyses, and also bear the arms of Belward; provided the same be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' College, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Dublin-Castle, May 10, 1813.

His Grace the Lord Lieutenant was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood on Alexander Wilson, of Bath, M. D.

Whitehall, July 16, 1813.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that divers depredations have lately been committed in the township of Barnet, in the county of Berks, and particularly on the property of Thomas Parkes, Esq.; and further, that a barn full of hay, and offices adjoining, belonging to the said Thomas Parkes, was, on the 6th day of this instant, totally destroyed by fire, and that there is strong reason for believing that the same was done wilfully;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in setting fire to the said barn, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the same), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of Barnet, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Office of Ordnance, July 9, 1813.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Monday the 26th instant, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of

for service of this Department, for a period of three years, determinable at the expiration of one year, upon a notice of three months, at the option of either party.

Patterns of the articles may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower; and further particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Leather Breeches and Gloves;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 26th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.
