By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
 REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS divers soldiers, now serving in His Majesty's army, under the provisions of the Mutiny Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, chapter 66, schedule (A), did, at the time of their respective enlistments, engage to serve His Majesty for the limited periods therein respectively expressed, provided His Majesty should so long require the same, and for such further term, not exceeding three years, as should be directed by any Proclamation of His Majesty; provided always, that in case of such direction the said additional period should determine whenever six months of continued peace, to be reckoned from the ratification of any definitive treaty, should have elapsed, subsequent to the expiration of such limited periods as aforesaid: And whereas the continuation of the existing hostilities renders it expedient to exercise the power vested in His Majesty of enlarging such limited periods of service; We have, therefore, thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to publish this Proclamation: And We do hereby direct, that all soldiers now serving in His Majesty's army, (the Veteran Battalions excepted), who have been enlisted for such limited periods as aforesaid, shall continue to serve therein for the term of three years after the expiration of such limited periods respectively; provided always, that the said additional period shall determine whenever six months of continued peace, to be reckoned from the ratification of any definitive treaty, shall have elapsed, subsequent to the expiration of such limited periods respectively.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of July 1813,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered, by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury do prepare a form of prayer and thanksgiving to Almighty God, for the repeated successes obtained over the French army in Spain by the allied forces, under the command of the Most Honourable Arthur Marquess of Wellington, and especially for the signal victory obtained on the 21st day of June last, in the neighbourhood of Vittoria.

And it is hereby further ordered, that His Majesty's printer do forthwith print a competent number of copies of the said form of prayer and thanksgiving, that the same may be forthwith sent round and read in the several churches throughout those parts of the United Kingdom called England and Ireland.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of July 1813,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered, by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that every minister or preacher, as well of the Established Church in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, as those of the Episcopal Communion, protected and allowed by an Act passed in the tenth year of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, cap. 7, intituled "An Act to prevent the disturbing those of the Episcopal Communion in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, in the exercise of their religious worship, and in the use of the Liturgy of the Church of England," and for repealing an Act passed in the Parliament of Scotland, intituled "An Act against irregular baptisms and marriages," do at some time during the exercise of the Divine Service in such respective church, congregation, or assembly, on Sunday the 1st day of August next, or on Sunday next after notice hereof shall have been received, put up prayers and thanksgivings to Almighty God, for the repeated successes obtained over the French army in Spain, by the allied forces under the command of the Most Honourable Arthur Marquess of Wellington, and especially for the signal victory obtained on the 21st day of June last, in the neighbourhood of Vittoria.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 15th of July 1813,

PRESENT,

Council.

WHEREAS, His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 5th of April 1805, touching the performance of quarantine, to direct, that all merchant ships and vessels, and all other ships and vessels not having the plague, or any other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, actually on board, (except any ship of war, transport, or other ship in the actual service of Government, under the command of a commissioned officer of His Majesty's navy) coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, which should not be furnished with clean bills of health, should perform quarantine in Standgate Creek, and no where else; And whereas it is deemed expedient, that all merchant ships and vessels, and all other ships and vessels as aforesaid, coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, and bound to the Western Ports of the United Kingdom, should be permitted to perform their quarantine at Milford Haven, instead of Standgate Creek, as directed by the said order; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all merchant ships and vessels, and all other ships and vessels not having the plague, or any other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects actually on board, (except any ship of war, transport, or other ship in the actual service of Government, under the command of a commissioned officer of His Majesty's Navy), coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, and bound to the western ports of the United Kingdom, which shall not be furnished with clean bills of health, shall be permitted to perform their quarantine at Milford Haven, subject to such provisions, rules, regulations, and restrictions, pains, penalties, fines, forfeitures, and punishments, contained in His Majesty's before mentioned Order in Council, bearing date the 5th day of April 1805, or any other Order or Orders in Council, or any Act of Parliament now in force, as they would be subject to in case they should perform their quarantine at Standgate Creek.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General, and the rest of the principal officers of the ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief for the time being of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 15th of July 1813,

PRESENT,

Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the first day of February last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire upon the eighth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months to commence from the said eighth day of August next, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, or carry coastwise, any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, or carrying the same coastwise, without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition:" and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 15th of July 1813,

PRESENT.

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the first day of February last, prohibiting, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, the transporting into any parts out of this kingdom of any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, or other naval stores, will expire upon the eighth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whosoever do, at any time for the space of six months from the said eighth day of August next, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores, or do ship or lade any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, without leave or permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is nevertheless His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's ships of war, or any other ships or vessels or boats in the service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any ship or vessel from taking or having on board such quantities of naval stores as may be necessary for the use of such ship or vessel during the course of her intended voyage, or by licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being; nor to the exportation of the said several articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards or garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the exportation of any of the said articles for the purposes of trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards and garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies, the exporters of such articles do first make oath of the true destination of the same to the places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient security by bond (except as hereinafter excepted), to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said articles to the places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the purposes specified, and none other; and such bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until proof be made to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the production, within a time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the bond, of a certificate or certificates, in such form and manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said articles have been all duly landed at the places for which they were entered outwards. But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, that the following articles, viz. bar iron, white and tarred rope, tallow or mill grease, tarpaulins for waggon covers, pitch, tar, and turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon payment of the proper duties, without bond being entered into by the merchant exporter, to any of the British plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's settlements in South America; provided the merchant exporter shall first verify, upon oath, that the articles so exported are intended for the use of a particular plantation or settlement, to be named in the entry outwards, and not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of fifty pounds sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments, within the same season: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

day of March then next ensuing, the importation from any port or place whatsoever into any port or place of Great Britain, of certain articles of provisions therein named, subject to the rules and regulations set forth in the said Order, without payment of any duty whatsoever, except in respect to the article of rice, which, when imported, should be subject to such duties as might by law be payable thereon; and whereas it is expedient that rice, imported in British ships or vessels directly from any of the possessions of the East India Company or from any British colony or plantation, should be exempted from the payment of the said duties, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty, by sundry Acts of Parliament, set forth in the said Order in Council of the twentieth February one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council to allow, and doth hereby allow, until the twenty-fifth day of March next, the importation of rice from any of the possessions of the East India Company, or from any British colony or plantation, in British ships or vessels, without payment of any duty whatsoever; any thing contained in the Order in Council above-mentioned of the twentieth day of February last to the contrary notwithstanding. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of June 1813,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty by sundry Acts of Parliament, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was pleased, by his Order in Council of the twentieth February one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to allow, and did thereby allow, for the space of twelve months, to commence from the twenty-fifth

At the Court at Carlton-House, Tuesday, July 27, 1813.

A CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned for this day, the Knights Companions, in their mantles and collars, with the Officers of the Order, in their mantles, chains, and badges, attended His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in his own apartment at half past three o'clock; and, being called over by Garter Principal King of Arms, a procession was made to the Chapter Room in the following order:

Marquess Wellesley.

Marquess of Hertford.

Earl of Winchilsea.

Earl of Pembroke.

Earl of Westmorland.

Earl of Chatham.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

Sir Thomas Tyrwhitt, Knt.
Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

The Hon. and Rev. Dr.
Edward Legge, Dean of Windsor, Register of the Order.

Sir Isaac Heard, Knt. Garter
Principal King of Arms.

The Bishop of Salisbury, Chancellor of the Order.

The Bishop of Winchester, Prelate
of the Order.

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The Prince Regent and the Knights Companions being seated, the Chancellor, standing in his place on the left hand of His Royal Highness, read a new Statute, by which it is ordained, that, although by the statutes of the said Most Noble Order it is provided that the said Order shall consist of the Sovereign and twenty-five Knights Companions, together with such lineal descendants of King George the Second as shall have been elected, and may hereafter be elected, into the same, always excepting the Prince of Wales, who is a constituent part of the original institution; His Royal Highness taking, nevertheless, into His Royal consideration, the magnanimity and the many other transcendent and heroic qualities which distinguishes His Imperial Majesty, Alexander, Emperor and Autocrat of All the Russias; the high friendship and close alliance happily subsisting between His Majesty and the said Emperor; and the glorious efforts of His Imperial Majesty for the deliverance and welfare of the Continent of Europe; doth, in the name and on the behalf of, and in virtue of the power and authority inherent in, the Sovereign of the said Most Noble Order, dispense with the said statutes, in as far as may be required for the present especial purpose, and decree, ordain, and enjoin that the Knights Companions, in Chapter assembled, might forthwith proceed to the election of the said Emperor into the said Most Noble Order; any statute, decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election; and, the suffrages being collected by the Chancellor and presented to the Prince Regent, the Chancellor, by the command of His Royal Highness, declared to the Chapter that His Imperial Majesty, Alexander, Emperor and Autocrat of All the Russias, had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

After the election, Francis Townsend, Esquire, Windsor Herald, was admitted to take the oath as Deputy, pro hac vice, to Garter Principal King of Arms; and, having had the honour to kiss His Royal Highness's hand, withdrew.

The Chapter ended, Garter called over the Knights; and a procession was made back to His Royal Highness's apartment, in the order as before.

Carlton-House, July 27, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of the Sovereign, has been pleased, by a Commission under the Great Seal of the Order, to constitute and appoint the Right Honourable William Viscount Cathcart, Knight of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle, a General of the Forces, one of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Emperor of All the Russias; Sir Isaac Heard, Knight, Garter Principal King of Arms (or his Deputy pro hac vice); and Sir Thomas Tyrwhitt, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, to be His Majesty's Plenipotentiaries for investing His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of All the Russias with the ensigns and the whole habit of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

His Royal Highness was pleased, previously to the Chapter held this day, to approve that Francis Townsend, Esq. Windsor Herald, be Deputy to Garter Principal King of Arms for this especial service.

His Royal Highness has also been pleased to approve that George Frederick Beltz, Esq. Secretary to Garter Principal King of Arms, be the Secretary to the said Commission.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Tritton, of His Majesty's Sloop Kingsfisher, addressed to Captain Hoste, of the Bacchante, and transmitted by Vice-Admiral Sir Edward Pellew to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Sloop Kingsfisher, off Fano, February 8, 1813.

I BEG leave to acquaint you that, at daylight on the morning of the 2d instant, Fano bearing S. S. E. six miles, several trabacolos were seen near Melara, steering to the southward; there being little wind, I dispatched the cutter and pinnace, under the command of Mr. G. H. Palmer, Acting Lieutenant, and Mr. John Waller, Gunner, to intercept them; in which, after five hours chase, they succeeded, by capturing one and running nine on shore near St. Catherines, in the island of Corfu, five of which were totally destroyed. This piece of service was executed under a very heavy fire of musketry from the heights, and a one gun battery; and, I regret much to say, was not accomplished without loss on our side, having two men killed, and seven severely wounded.

dressed to Rear-Admiral Fremantle, and transmitted by Vice-Admiral Sir Edward Pellew to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Ship Havannah, off Ortona, March 27, 1813.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to inform you, that, in executing your orders of the 10th instant, the boats of this ship have been twice successfully employed against the enemy's trade; once on the morning of the 22d instant, in the capture of a large trabacolo of three nine-pounders and small arms, and the destruction by fire of a similar vessel, laden with oil, under the town of Vasto; and again yesterday morning, in the capture of five armed trabacolos, and five feluccas laden with salt, near the town of Fortore. In both instances the vessels being hauled aground, completely dismantled, and under the protection of a strong body of military on the beach, besides the guns of the latter vessels, which had been landed. I ordered my boats to land wide of the spot, and force their position; this was immediately effected (under a strong opposition) by Lieutenant Hambly, First of this ship (the marines, under Lieutenant Hockly, very judiciously posted), whilst the vessels were equipped and got afloat by the exertions of the officers and men, with a celerity that reflects the highest credit on their characters. At Vasto, the French officer who headed the troops was killed. At Fortore, the enemy left one man killed. I am happy to say, we have only two men very slightly wounded.

I have the honour to be, &c.

Extracts of Three Letters from Captain Taylor, of His Majesty's Ship Apollo, addressed to Rear-Admiral Fremantle, and transmitted by Vice-Admiral Sir Edward Pellew to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Ship Apollo, off Fano, March 20, 1813.

HAVING yesterday, in company with the Cerberus, observed several vessels in a creek, between the towns of Bari and St. Vito, protected by a tower of one gun, a battery of two, a large handsome building, well calculated for defence, with a range of barracks attached to it, a few troops, and a large force of armed men, I was induced (as the ships could anchor near for support) to send all the boats of the Apollo, assisted by most of the Cerberus, who, notwithstanding a great surf, landed without loss, drove the enemy, nearly into St. Vito, then dismantled the tower, destroyed the battery, and the sea being heavy, burnt the vessels, except some fishing craft.

His Majesty's Ship Apollo, Merlera Island, April 16, 1813.

IN the night of the 11th instant I sent three boats of the Apollo and two of the Cerberus to take temporary possession of the Devil's Island, near the north entrance of Corfu, by which they captured a brig and trabacolo going into Corfu with grain, &c.

The 14th we chased a vessel which, on its falling calm, escaped into Merlera; perceiving our above boats were going to attack her, when it appeared to me, from the natural strength of the island, they would not succeed without great loss, I sent to desire them to wait until the Apollo came up; this message being too late, I am sorry to say, the First Lieutenant of the Cerberus, Mr. Delafosse, and the Purser of the Apollo, Mr. Thomas Ullock, were wounded.

On the Apollo getting close, we landed the marines, and after some skirmishing captured the island, in which we found eight vessels with flour and grain, but scuttled.

Anthony Francis, marine, is dangerously wounded, Lieutenant Delafosse and Mr. Ullock, I am happy to say, are doing well.

His Majesty's Ship Apollo, off St. Cataldo, April 24, 1813.

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you, that at daylight this morning we saw a felucca run into St. Cataldo and disembark troops; we immediately landed thirty marines, under Lieutenants Tothill and Campbell, who, by a steady charge, dislodged them from a strong position, made twenty-six prisoners; one was killed, and a captain badly wounded, the rest (thirty soldiers and the vessel's crew armed), under two chefs de battalion, retreated, throwing away their muskets.

Our boats at the same time cleared and brought out the vessel that was scuttled, although the enemy supposed themselves too strong for us. As we came away some cavalry, and about one hundred and fifty soldiers, came from Lecce to assist their friends; these troops belonged to the Chasseurs d'Orient.

We were very fortunate in effecting this without loss.

Admiralty-Office, July 31, 1813.

VICE-ADMIRAL Sir Edward Pellew has transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq. a letter from Captain Hollis, of His Majesty's ship Achille, stating that the boats of that ship and the Milford captured and destroyed four of the enemy's coasting vessels, on the 27th of March, off Corselazzo.

COLONIAL DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, July 29, 1813.

IN addition to the dispatches from Canada, published in the Gazette Extraordinary of the 25th instant, a dispatch, of which the following is a copy, has been received from Lieutenant General Sir G. Prevost, by Earl Bathurst, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Kingston, Upper Canada,
June 3, 1813.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour of acquainting your Lordship, that, on the 27th ultimo, the enemy succeeded in effecting a landing about two miles from Fort George, under the cover of the fire of their flotilla and batteries, with a force so very far superior to any which we could bring against them, that notwithstanding the most determined and gallant opposition on the part of His Majesty's troops under the command of Colonel Vincent, he was unable to maintain his position on that frontier, and obliged, after falling back upon Queenstown, to retire with the whole of his army, which he had collected from Chippawa and Fort Eric, to the head of the Lake. By the report of Colonel Vincent, which I have the honour herewith to transmit, your Lordship will find, that this part of the frontier was not abandoned until every possible exertion had been made to retain it, and until the forts and batteries had been rendered, at least for a time, an useless acquisition to the enemy, by their destruction, and that of the ammunition which could not be carried away.

I have great satisfaction in stating to your Lordship, that, notwithstanding the unequal contest which was so long and so gallantly supported by a handful of His Majesty's troops against an overwhelming force, the army has not been very considerably weakened by the loss they have sustained; and that they were enabled to retire without molestation from the enemy to a position at the head of Lake Ontario, where Colonel Vincent will endeavour to make a stand until I shall have it in my power to reinforce him, or until circumstances shall oblige him further to fall back. Conceiving that the appearance of the fleet under Commodore Sir James Yeo, off the position occupied by Colonel

Vincent, might give additional consequence to his troops, I have embarked the remainder of the 8th regiment, consisting of about two hundred men, with which, and a supply of clothing, ammunition, and provisions, the fleet sailed this morning.

The enemy's flotilla were seen yesterday returning to Sackett's Harbour, to which place they had, without doubt, been recalled by the attack upon it. I last night received a confirmation of this fact from a flag of truce, which had been sent over with one of our wounded officers, from whom I learn, that their fleet is in port, and that the whole of the naval stores collected at Sackett's Harbour were consumed by fire on the day of the attack.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) GEORGE PREVOST.

Earl Bathurst, &c. &c.

SIR, Forty Mile Creek, May 28, 1813.

I HAVE the honour to inform your Excellency, that yesterday morning about daybreak, the enemy again opened his batteries upon Fort George: the fire not being immediately returned, it ceased for some time. About four o'clock A. M. a combination of circumstances led to a belief that an invasion was meditated: the morning being exceedingly hazy neither his means nor his intention could be ascertained, until, the mist clearing away at intervals, the enemy's fleet, consisting of fourteen or fifteen vessels, was discovered under way standing towards the light-house, in an extended line of more than two miles, covering from ninety to one hundred large boats and scows, each containing an average of fifty or sixty men. Though at this time no doubt could be entertained of the enemy's intention, his points of attack could only be conjectured. Having again commenced a heavy fire from his fort, line of batteries, and shipping, it became necessary to withdraw all the guards and picquets stationed along the coast, between the fort and light-house, and a landing was effected at the Two Mile Creek, about half a mile below the latter place; the party of troops and Indians stationed at this point, after opposing the enemy, and annoying him as long as possible, were obliged to fall back, and the fire from the shipping so completely enfiladed and scoured the plains, that it became impossible to approach the beach: as the day dawned the enemy's plan was clearly developed, and every effort to oppose his landing having failed, I lost not a moment in concentrating my force between the town of Fort George and the enemy, there awaiting his approach: this movement was admirably covered by the Glengarry light infantry, joined by a detachment of the Royal Newfoundland regiment, and militia, which commenced skirmishing with the enemy's riflemen, who were advancing through the brush wood. The enemy having perfect command of the beach, he quickly landed from three to four thousand men, with several pieces of artillery, and this force was instantly seen advancing, in three solid columns, along the Lake bank, his right covered by a large body of riflemen, and his left and front by the fire of the shipping, and batteries in their fort. As our light troops fell back upon the main body, which was moved forwards to their support, they were gallantly sustained by the 8th (King's) regiment, commanded by Major Ogilvie, the whole being under the immediate direction of Colonel Myers, Acting Quarter-Master-General, who had charge of the right wing. In the execution of this important duty, gallantry, zeal, and decision were eminently conspicuous, and I lament to report that I was deprived of the services of Colonel Myers, who having received three wounds, was obliged to quit the field. Lieutenant-Colonel Harvey, the Deputy Adjutant-General, whose activity and gallantry had been displayed the whole morning, succeeded Colonel Myers, and brought up the right division, consisting of the 49th regiment and some militia.

The light artillery, under Major Holcroft, were already in position, awaiting the enemy's advance on the plain. At this moment the very inferior force under my command had experienced a severe loss in officers and men, yet nothing could exceed the ardour and gallantry of the troops, who shewed the most marked devotion in the service of their King and country, and appeared regardless of the consequence of the unequal contest. Being on the spot, and seeing that the force under my command was opposed with tenfold numbers, who were rapidly advancing under cover of their shipping and batteries, from which our positions were immediately seen and exposed to a tremendous fire of shot and shells, I decided on retiring my little force to a position which I hoped might be less assailable by the heavy ordnance of the enemy, and from which a retreat would be left open, in the event of that measure becoming necessary: here, after awaiting the approach of the enemy for about half an hour, I received authentic information, that his force, consisting of from four to five thousand men, had re-formed his columns, and was making an effort to turn my right flank. At this critical juncture not a moment was to be lost, and sensible that every effort had been made by the officers and men under my command to maintain the post of Fort George, I could not consider myself justified in continuing so unequal a contest, the issue of which promised no advantage to the interests of His Majesty's service. Having given orders for the fort to be evacuated, the guns to be spiked, and the ammunition destroyed, the troops under my command were put in motion, and marched across the country in a line parallel to the Niagara River, towards the position near the Beaver Dam, beyond Queenstown Mountain, at which place I had the honour of reporting to your Excellency a depôt of provisions and ammunition had been formed some time since. The rear guard of the army reached that position during the night, and we were soon afterwards joined by Lieutenant-Colonel Bishopp, with all the detachments from Chippawa to Fort Erie. The light, and one battalion company of the 8th (King's), joined us about the same time, as did Captain Barclay, with a detachment of the royal navy.

Having assembled my whole force the following morning, which did not exceed one thousand six hundred men, I continued my march towards the head of the Lake, where it is my intention to take up a position, and shall endeavour to maintain it, until I may be honoured with your Excellency's instructions, which I shall feel most anxious to receive. I beg leave to suggest the great importance that exists for a communication being opened with me through the medium of the fleet; the anchorage under Mrs. Brandt's house is perfectly good and very safe. I believe your Excellency need not be informed, that in the event of it becoming necessary that I should fall back upon York, the assistance of shipping would be requisite for the transport of my artillery. I cannot conclude this long communication without expressing a well-merited tribute of approbation to the gallantry and assiduity of every officer of the staff, and indeed of every individual composing my little army; every one most zealously discharged the duties of his respective station. The struggle on the 27th continued from three to four hours, and, I lament to add, it was attended with very severe loss.

I have the honour to enclose a list of the killed, wounded, and missing, with as much accuracy as the nature of the existing circumstances will admit. Many of the missing, I hope, will be found to be only stragglers, and will soon rejoin their corps. I shall reach the head of the Lake to-morrow evening. Hitherto the enemy has not attempted to interrupt my movements. Information reached me this morning, through an authentic channel, that he has pushed on three thousand infantry, and a considerable body of cavalry, towards Queenstown. His whole force is stated to amount to nearly ten thousand men.

I send this dispatch by Mr. Mathison, who acted as a volunteer on the 27th; and I am happy to inform your Excellency, that his conduct was very honourable to his character, and merits my marked approbation. Ammunition will be wanted by the first vessel. Captain Milnes has been kind enough to remain with me until my next dispatch.

I have the honour to be, &c.

JOHN VINCENT, Brig. Gen.

His Excellency Lieutenant-General Sir
George Prevost, &c. &c. &c.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, July 31, 1813.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an extract, was this morning received by Earl Bathurst from Field-Marshal the Marquess of Wellington, dated Lezaca, July 19, 1813.

WE established a battery of four eighteen-pounders against a convent, which the enemy had fortified and occupied in force, about six hundred yards from the works of San Sebastian. This battery was opened on the morning of the 14th, and the convent was so far destroyed, as that Lieutenant-General Sir Thomas Graham ordered that the building, and a redoubt which protected its left flank, should be stormed on the 17th. I have not yet received his report of the details of this operation, which however was successful, and our troops were established at the convent, and at the village immediately below it, which the enemy had burned.

I have received a report from General Mina, of the 12th, in which he informs me, that General Duran had joined him in the neighbourhood of Zaragoza, and that he had attacked on the 8th, General Paris, who had for some time commanded a division in Arragon. General Paris had retired.

in the night of the 9th, leaving a garrison in a redoubt in the neighbourhood of Zaragoza, which General Mina had left General Duran to attack, while he followed the enemy with his own, and the cavalry under Brigadier Don Julian Sanchez. He had taken a considerable number of prisoners, and a good deal of baggage from General Paris; and a convoy on the 11th.

It is impossible to applaud too highly the activity, intelligence, and gallantry, with which these operations have been carried on.

I have since heard that General Paris had arrived at Jaca, on the 14th, and that he had brought with him the garrisons of Ayerbe, Huesca, &c. and was about to retire into France.

Marshal Suchett evacuated Valencia on the 5th instant, and General Elio entered that city, at the head of the second army, on the 7th. I have a letter from Lord William Bentinck, of the 7th, from San Felipe, in which he informs me that he expected to arrive at Valencia on the 10th. I have not heard of Marshal Suchet's retreat beyond Castellon; but the garrison of Segorbe has been withdrawn, and I understand that, on the inst. General Severolo blew up the fort of Alcaniz, and marched upon Mequinenza by Caspe.

Since writing the above, I have received a dispatch from Sir Thomas Graham, of which the inclosed is a copy, containing his report on the attack of the convent near San Sebastian.

Extract of a Dispatch from Lieutenant-General Sir Thomas Graham to Field-Marshal the Marquess of Wellington, dated Ernani, July 18, 1813.

THE convent of San Bartolome, and the adjoining work on the extremity of the steep hill towards the river, were taken yesterday by assault.

The natural and artificial strength of these fortified posts, occupied by a large body of troops, and the impossibility of access to either but by the fronts, made it very desirable to have destroyed the defences as much as possible, and a new battery on the left was begun the preceding evening, but not being ready in the morning, the attack was determined on.

A column, consisting of the picquets of the 4th Caçadores, commanded by Lieutenant Antonio de Quairos, of one hundred and fifty men of the 13th Portuguese regiment, under Captain Almeyda, supported by three companies of the 9th regiment, under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Crauford, with a reserve of three companies of the Royal Scots, under Captain Auguinbeau, was formed on the right to attack the redoubt, under the direction of Major-General Hay. Major-General Bradford commanded the left column, composed of two hundred men of the 13th Portuguese regiment, under the command of Major Snodgrass, of that regiment; an equal number, under Lieutenant-Colonel Macneagh, of the 5th Caçadores, and supported by the 9th regiment, under Lieutenant-Colonel Cameron. The whole of the troops employed in this service being under the command of Major-General Oswald.

About ten A.M. the left column began the attack on the convent, while the right passed the ravine near the river. Both attacks were made with such vigour and determination, that all obstacles were overcome, without the loss that might have been expected.

The enemy were driven in confusion down the hill, carrying a strong reinforcement, just sent from St. Sebastian, along with them in their flight through the burnt village of San Martin.

The impetuosity of the troops in pursuit could not be restrained by the exertion of the superior officers, who had received Major-General Oswald's directions not to pass San Martin, and some unavoidable loss was sustained by those who followed the enemy to the foot of the glacis, on their return to San Martin.

I need hardly assure your Lordship, that on this, as on other occasions, Major-General Oswald conducted the service in the best manner; and I am equally obliged to Major-Generals Hay and Bradford, for their conduct of the attacks entrusted to them. But I beg, in justice to the officers, whose distinguished gallantry in leading on their men to overcome the variety of obstacles that were opposed to them, to mention Major Snodgrass, Captain Almeyda, and Lieutenant de Quairos (severely wounded), of the Portuguese service, and Lieutenant-Colonel Campbell, of the 9th foot.

I cannot conclude this report, without expressing my perfect satisfaction with all the officers and men of the royal artillery, both in the four-gun battery, employed for three days against the convent, and on the opposite bank of the river, whence several field-pieces were served with great effect.

P. S. I omitted to mention, that Major-General Hay mentions his great obligations to Captain Taylor, of the 48th regiment, his Brigade-Major.

Whitehall, July 16, 1813.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that divers depredations have lately been committed in the township of Barnet, in the county of Berks, and particularly on the property of Thomas Parkes, Esq.; and further, that a barn full of hay, and offices adjoining, belonging to the said Thomas Parkes, was, on the 6th day of this instant, totally destroyed by fire, and that there is strong reason for believing that the same was done wilfully;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in setting fire to the said barn, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the same), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of Barnet, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Whitehall, July 23, 1813.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Thursday night or early on Friday morning last, a very valuable horse, belonging to Richard Tawney, Esq. of Dunchurch, near Rugby, in the county of Warwick, was maliciously poisoned in the grounds adjoining his house, by some person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually administered the poison to the said horse) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THIRTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the association in the neighbourhood of Rugby, and THIRTY GUINEAS by Mr. Tawney, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Stamp-Office, London, July 29th, 1813.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an Act was passed in the late session of Parliament, for altering, explaining, and amending an Act of the forty-eighth year of His Majesty's Reign, for granting Stamp Duties in Great Britain, with regard to the Duties on Re-issuable Promissory Notes (commonly called Bankers Notes), and on conveyances on the sale and Mortgage of Property; and for better enabling the Commissioners of Stamps to give relief in cases of spoiled stamps; and for better securing the duties on stage coaches.—In regard to

BANKERS NOTES,

It is enacted, that after the 10th day of October next, no promissory notes, for the payment to the bearer on demand, of any sum not exceeding two pounds and two shillings, shall be re-issued, by any bankers or others in England, at any time after the expiration of three years from the date thereof, under a penalty of 50*l.* but that all such notes shall, on the payment thereof after that period, be forthwith cancelled, by the persons paying the same, under the like penalty. The re-issuing of notes for larger sums is already restrained by the former Act. In regard to

SALES AND MORTGAGES,

Divers provisions are made for removing doubts which occurred on the former Act relating to the ad valorem duties.—In regard to

SPOILED STAMPS,

The Commissioners are authorised to allow and exchange stamps on written instruments signed by any party or parties (except policies of insurance) which have or shall become inoperative, unfit or insufficient for the purpose intended, void, or useless, in a variety of cases not before provided for. But application for the allowance must be made within six months after the passing of the Act (on 10th of July instant) or after the date of the instruments, or within six months after the instruments become void, in case of their becoming void for want of enrolment, or within six months after the same shall be received back, in case of their having been sent abroad. And all applications for the allowance of spoiled stamps, on instruments not fully written, or not signed by any party, must be made, at this Office, within six months after the passing of the Act, or within six months after the same shall have been spoiled, if belonging to persons resident in London or Westminster, or within ten miles thereof, or within twelve months after the same shall have been spoiled, if belonging to persons resident elsewhere in England. And affidavits, or solemn affirmations in the case of Quakers, of all the facts and circumstances relating to the spoiled or useless stamps brought for allowance, must accompany the application; which affidavits or affirmations must be made before a Commissioner of Stamps or a Master in Chancery, ordinary or extraordinary. And any person making a false oath or affirmation will be punishable for perjury.—In regard to

STAGE COACHES,

The Act contains a clause for more effectually securing the duties, in cases of persons running stage coaches without a licence. And it is enacted, that all licences for keeping stage coaches, which shall have been granted, within six months preceding the 1st August 1813, shall continue in force till the 31st July 1814, and that all licences granted before the 1st February 1813, and being in force on the 31st July 1813, shall cease on that day, and new licences shall be taken out in lieu thereof on the day following; and all licences to be granted after the 31st July 1813 are to have effect and continue in force, from the date thereof, until the 31st day of July following, and no longer.

It is recommended to all bankers, solicitors, stationers, and others concerned, to make themselves acquainted with the particular provisions of the Act, in order that they may avoid penalties, and intitle themselves to the relief given by it, in the case of spoiled stamps.

By order of the Commissioners,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

Navy-Office, July 31, 1813.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers from the 1st January to the 30th June 1813, according to His Majesty's establishment on that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On Monday the 8th August, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On Tuesday the 9th and Wednesday the 10th August, to Lieutenants and their Attornies.

On Thursday the 11th August, to Masters and Surgeons and their Attornies.

After which the list will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the benefit of any public employment, either at sea or on shore, during the time they are to be paid their half-pay, but also to produce certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths of Allegiance required by Act of Parliament, to His present Majesty; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like certificates and affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th of June 1813, will commence paying on the 8th of August next; and all persons desirous of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

G. Smith.

Navy-Office, July 30, 1813.

BY His Majesty's Order in Council, dated 20th September 1809, a plan of education was established at the Royal Naval College at His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Portsmouth, for a superior class of apprentices to shipwrights, and it being determined that four more students shall be admitted; the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy hereby give notice, that the examination of candidates will take place in His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Portsmouth, on the 4th November next, at eight o'clock in the morning; and that such persons as may be desirous of becoming candidates for admission, are required to send notice of their intention to the Navy Board, or the Commissioner of the aforesaid Yard, on or before the 1st day of that month.

The candidates must be at least fifteen, and not more than seventeen years of age.

The plan of education may be obtained on application at the Navy-Office, or the Office of the Commissioner of any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards; where also information may be obtained as to the nature of the qualifications required of the candidates, the documents they are to produce on the day of examination, the salaries they will be allowed on being admitted students, and of the offices to which they will be eligible after they have served the term of apprenticeship.

JOHN SKINNER.

(L. S.)

By His Excellency Major-General John Skinner, Commander in Chief in and over His Britannic Majesty's Island of Saint Croix and its Dependencies, in America, Vice-Admiral of the same, &c. &c. &c.

By virtue of the authority in me vested, and in conformity with an ordinance of the 23d May, and an edict of the 12th August 1800, I do hereby make known, that in compliance with a petition delivered in, I have permitted and granted, that Messrs. Christopher Flanagan and William McCormick, as Trustees in the trustee-estate of Mrs. Rebecca Ferrall, may summon by proclama, sub poena præclasi et perpetui silentii, all the known or unknown Creditors to the said trustee-estate of Mrs. Rebecca Ferrall, residing in European or American territories, to come forward with their demands, and enter and prove their claims, in person or by their attorneys, before the said Trustees, previous to the expiration of the period hereinafter limited, that is to say, within one year and six weeks from the period when this proclama shall have been recorded in the Upper Courts of the islands of St. Croix, St. Thomas, and St. John, and published three times consecutively in the London Gazette; and all such known or unknown Creditors as reside in any of the West India islands or colonies, shall come forward with their demands, and enter and prove their claims in person or by their attorneys, before the said Trustees, within three months from the date of this proclama being recorded in the Superior and Inferior Courts of the islands of St. Croix, St. Thomas, and St. John, and notice thereof being published in the St. Croix Gazette three times consecutively. And the aforesaid Trustee shall further be bound to cause this grant to be produced in the Royal and the Loan Commissions Book-Keeper's Offices to the said islands, and procure a certificate of this being complied with; in failure of which this proclama shall not be valid against any claims or prerogatives of His Majesty; and all persons concerned are to take notice hereof, and to conduct themselves accordingly.

Given under my hand and seal, at the Government House, St. Croix, the 18th of February 1813.

By His Excellency's command,
F. COSGRAVE, Secretary.

In conformity with the above most gracious grant, and with the warning thereby given, all and every one who have any demands of what description soever against Mrs. Rebecca Ferrall's trustee-dealing, are hereby called sub poena præclasi et perpetui silentii, to bring in their demands, and to prove them before the Trustees, in the sessions which will be held in the Dealing, as also before the expiration of the time prescribed by the above grant.—Christiansted, on St. Croix, the 23d February 1813.

In behalf of the Gentlemen Trustees,
P. COLLETT, Curator in the Dealing.

Shardlow, July 17, 1813.

SUTTON, Robinson, and Co. Carriers, and Wharfingers, hereby give notice, that they will not be accountable for loss or damage by fire; nor for leakage, unless the same happens through negligence; nor for any goods improperly packed, directed, or described; nor for looking or plate glass, pictures, money, wearing apparel, plate, watches, china, or other valuable articles of the like nature, unless entered as such, and an insurance paid of 10l. for every 100l. value at the time of delivery, over and above the common rate of carriage; nor for goods contained in returned packages; nor for goods addressed to order, that may have been more than fourteen days uncalled for.

No claim for damage will be allowed unless made within seven days of the time of delivery, when the gross weight of the package must be stated.

No more than 5l. will be paid for any article whatever of less weight than 28lbs. nor more than after the rate of 10l. per hundred weight, for any package of a greater weight, unless it shall have been booked as of a greater value, and paid, or agreed to be paid for, at the rate of 5s. for every 10l. value, in addition to the common charge of carriage.

It will be considered that they have a general lien on all goods, as well for freight of such goods, as for arrears of freight due from the owners.

They deliver all goods for Liverpool, &c. at Preston-Brook; for Worcester, Bristol, &c. at Stourport; and for London, at Gainsbro'; and disclaim all liability to make good losses which may occur after delivery from their boats at the above or other places.

Garvediah Bridge, July 17, 1813.

SORESBY and Flack, Carriers and Wharfingers, hereby give notice, that they will not be accountable for loss or damage by fire; nor for leakage, unless the same happens through negligence; nor for any goods improperly packed, directed, or described; nor for looking or plate glass, pictures, money, wearing apparel, plate, watches, china, or other valuable articles of the like nature, unless entered as such, and an insurance paid of 10l. for every 100l. value at the time of delivery, over and above the common rate of carriage; nor for goods contained in returned packages; nor for goods addressed to order, that may have been more than fourteen days uncalled for.

No claim for damage will be allowed unless made within seven days of the time of delivery, when the gross weight of the package must be stated.

No more than 5l. will be paid for any article whatever, of less weight than 28lbs. nor more than after the rate of 10l. per hundred weight, for any package of a greater weight, unless it shall have been booked as of a greater value, and paid, or agreed to be paid for, at the rate of 5s. for every 10l. value, in addition to the common charge of carriage.

It will be considered that they have a general lien on all goods, as well for freight of such goods, as for arrears of freight due from the owners.

They deliver all goods for Liverpool, &c. at Preston Brook; for Worcester, Bristol, &c. at Stourport; and for London, at Gainsborough; and disclaim all liability to make good losses which may occur after delivery from their boats, at the above or other places.

NOTICE TO DEBTORS AND CREDITORS.

JOSEPH JAMES, of the City of Bristol, Chairmaker, having by indenture, bearing date the 24th day of June last past, assigned all his estate and effects, to Thomas Clent, of the same City, Timber and Cornfactor, in trust for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said Joseph James.

Notice is hereby given, that the said deed is in the hands of Mr. Thomas Clent, at his counting house, on the Welsh Back, Bristol, where the said Creditors are requested to attend and sign the same, on or before the 31st day of August next, or in default of their so doing, they will be excluded the benefit thereof.

And all persons indebted to the said estate, are requested to pay their respective debts to the said Thomas Clent, on or before the said 31st of August, or in default thereof they will be sued without further notice.—Dated 28th of July 1813.

EDWARD HARRISON'S CREDITORS.

Notice is hereby given, that all Creditors of Edward Harrison, late of High Wycombe, in the County of Buckingham, Druggist, who have not already executed an assignment, bearing date on or about the 4th day of September 1811, whereby the said Edward Harrison assigned all his estate and effects unto James Spark and William Evans, in trust for themselves and the other creditors executing the same, are hereby required to execute the said assignment, now laying at the Counting-House of the said Messrs. Spark and Evans, on St. Peter's-Hill, Doctor's Commons, London, on or before the 1st day of September next; and such Creditors as shall fail or omit to execute the same on or before that day, will be excluded from the benefit thereof, and the Trustees will then make a Dividend of the estate and effects of the said Edward Harrison received by them.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 9th day of March 1813, made in a cause wherein the Right Honourable Arthur Henry Lord Dorchester, and Maria Carleton, Spinster, infants, by their next friend, are plaintiffs, and the Right Honourable Richard Earl of Effingham and others are defendants, some time in the beginning of September 1813, before John Simeon, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in one lot;

A valuable freehold estate, free of great tythes, comprising a capital mansion-house called Scubbings, late the residence and property of the Right Honourable Guy Lord Dorchester, deceased, with offices of every denomination, coach-houses and stabling, excellent kitchen garden, pleasure grounds and lawns, seated in a cheerful rich paddock, ornamented with forest trees and shrubs, commanding fine picturesque and extensive views of the beautiful surrounding country, together with a capital farm adjoining, and convenient buildings; the whole estate being within a complete ring fence, and containing about 236 acres, most desirably situate on Maidenhead Thicket, in the Parish of Bisham and County of Berks, between the Reading and Henley Roads, and only twenty-nine miles from London.

Printed particulars whereof will be given in a short time, and the day of sale fixed.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Moore against Snook, it was ordered, that Robert Steele, Esq; the Master to whom the said cause stands referred, should inquire and state to the Court who were the next of kin of Mary A'Lee, late of New Sarum, in the County of Wilts, Spinster, deceased, the testatrix in the said decree named, (who died on or about the 29th day of April 1811,) living at the time of her decease, and whether any and which of them are since dead, and if so, who are their personal representatives or representative; and that the said Master should state to the Court who are the next of kin of the said testatrix now living?—All persons claiming to be such next of kin of the said Mary A'Lee, or the representative of such of them as are since dead, are forthwith to come in and make out and prove their kindred or representation before the said Master Steel, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Moore against Snook, the Creditors of Mary A'Lee, late of New Sarum, in the County of Wilts, spinster, (who died on or about the 29th day of April 1811,) are to come in and prove their debts before Robert Steele, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Pontifex against Short, the unsatisfied Creditors of the Copartnership of John Thurl Deal and James Barrow, late carrying on trade as brewers and copartners, under the firm of Deal and Co. at Shaftesbury, in the County of Dorset, (but now Bankrupts) are forthwith to come in before Robert Steele, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their debts, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Leith against Shifner and others, the Creditors of Herbert Hams, late of the Honourable East India Company's service in Bengal, Senior Merchant, many years Mint-Master in Calcutta, and afterwards Salt Agent at Noacolly, in the district of Chittagong, late resident in Calcutta, (who died in the month of January 1810, at that place,) are forthwith to come in and prove their debts, before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors of Solomon Jacobs Bargerbur and Sons, of Burr-Street, East-Smithfield, in the County of Middlesex, Ship-Owners and Ship-Agents, Dealers, Chapman, and Copartners, Bankrupts, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Wednesday next the 4th day of August, at Six o'Clock in the Evening precisely, at the Office of Mr. John Paterson, Solicitor, No. 2, Copthall-Court, Throgmorton-Street, for the purpose of taking into consideration the extraordinary account delivered in to the Assignees, by a claimant upon the Bankrupts estate, and also to appoint a fit person to act as arbitrator in the business, on behalf of the Assignees, to meet the arbitrator appointed by the said claimant.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Winbolt and William Lukyn, of Saint Paul's Church-Yard, in the City of London, Stationers, Dealers and Chap-men, and Copartners, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Friday the 6th day of August next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Offices of Messrs. Blandford and Murray, Temple, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees finally settling and putting an end to a certain suit, instituted by the said Assignees in the High Court of Chancery, against certain persons, for the recovery of the amount of a sum of money which, by the Will of a certain person, deceased, it appears the said Bankrupts' estate is entitled to receive, by accepting of the Defendants in such suit, some or one of them, a sum of money, which has already been, or will then be proposed to be paid, by or on the part of the said Defendants, in full satisfaction and discharge of such claim or demand, and to the said Assignees executing releases to the said Defendants accordingly; or to the said Assignees submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to the settlement of the matters in dispute in such suit, for the purpose of putting an end to all further proceedings therein.
