By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
 REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the
 Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS divers soldiers, now serving in His Majesty's army, under the provisions of the Mutiny Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, chapter 66, schedule (A), did, at the time of their respective enlistments, engage to serve His Majesty for the limited periods therein respectively expressed, provided His Majesty should so long require the same, and for such further term, not exceeding three years, as should be directed by any Proclamation of His Majesty; provided always, that in case of such direction the said additional period should determine whenever six months of continued peace, to be reckoned from the ratification of any definitive treaty, should have elapsed, subsequent to the expiration of such limited periods as aforesaid: And whereas the continuation of the existing hostilities renders it expedient to exercise the power vested in His Majesty of enlarging such limited periods of service; We have, therefore, thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to publish this Proclamation: And We do hereby direct, that all soldiers now serving in His Majesty's army, (the Veteran Battalions excepted), who have been enlisted for such limited periods as aforesaid, shall continue to serve therein for the term of three years after the expiration of such limited periods respectively; provided always, that the said additional period shall determine whenever six months of continued peace, to be reckoned from the ratification of any definitive treaty, shall have elapsed, subsequent to the expiration of such limited periods respectively.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's Reign.

GOD save the KING.

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered, by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury do prepare a form of prayer and thanksgiving to Almighty God, for the repeated successes obtained over the French army in Spain by the allied forces, under the command of the Most Honourable Arthur Marquess of Wellington, and especially for the signal victory obtained on the 21st day of June last, in the neighbourhood of Vittoria.

And it is hereby further ordered, that His Majesty's printer do forthwith print a competent number of copies of the said form of prayer and thanksgiving, that the same may be forthwith sent round and read in the several churches throughout those parts of the United Kingdom called England and Ireland.
