

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of July 1813,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered, by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that every minister or preacher, as well of the Established Church in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, as those of the Episcopal Communion, protected and allowed by an Act passed in the tenth year of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, cap. 7, intituled "An Act to prevent the disturbing those of the Episcopal Communion in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, in the exercise of their religious worship, and in the use of the Liturgy of the Church of England," and for repealing an Act passed in the Parliament of Scotland, intituled "An Act against irregular baptisms and marriages," do at some time during the exercise of the Divine Service in such respective church, congregation, or assembly, on Sunday the 1st day of August next, or on Sunday next after notice hereof shall have been received, put up prayers and thanksgivings to Almighty God, for the repeated successes obtained over the French army in Spain, by the allied forces under the command of the Most Honourable Arthur Marquess of Wellington, and especially for the signal victory obtained on the 21st day of June last, in the neighbourhood of Vittoria.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 15th of July 1813,

PRESENT,

WHEREAS, His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 5th of April 1805, touching the performance of quarantine, to direct, that all merchant ships and vessels, and all other ships and vessels not having the plague, or any other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, actually on board, (except any ship of war, transport, or other ship in the actual service of Government, under the command of a commissioned officer of His Majesty's navy) coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, which should not be furnished with clean bills of health, should perform quarantine in Standgate Creek, and no where else; And whereas it is deemed expedient, that all merchant ships and vessels, and all other ships and vessels as aforesaid, coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, and bound to the Western Ports of the United Kingdom, should be permitted to perform their quarantine at Milford Haven, instead of Standgate Creek, as directed by the said order; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all merchant ships and vessels, and all other ships and vessels not having the plague, or any other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects actually on board, (except any ship of war, transport, or other ship in the actual service of Government, under the command of a commissioned officer of His Majesty's Navy), coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, and bound to the western ports of the United Kingdom, which shall not be furnished with clean bills of health, shall be permitted to perform their quarantine at Milford Haven, subject to such provisions, rules, regulations, and restrictions, pains, penalties, fines, forfeitures, and punishments, contained in His Majesty's before mentioned Order in Council, bearing date the 5th day of April 1805, or any other Order or Orders in Council, or any Act of Parliament now in force, as they would be subject to in case they should perform their quarantine at Standgate Creek.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General, and the rest of the principal officers of the ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief for the time being of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 15th of July 1813,

PRESENT,

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the first day of February last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire upon the eighth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months to commence from the said eighth day of August next, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, or carry coastwise, any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, or
