

not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of fifty pounds sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments, within the same season: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

day of March then next ensuing, the importation from any port or place whatsoever into any port or place of Great Britain, of certain articles of provisions therein named, subject to the rules and regulations set forth in the said Order, without payment of any duty whatsoever, except in respect to the article of rice, which, when imported, should be subject to such duties as might by law be payable thereon; and whereas it is expedient that rice, imported in British ships or vessels directly from any of the possessions of the East India Company or from any British colony or plantation, should be exempted from the payment of the said duties, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty, by sundry Acts of Parliament, set forth in the said Order in Council of the twentieth February one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council to allow, and doth hereby allow, until the twenty-fifth day of March next, the importation of rice from any of the possessions of the East India Company, or from any British colony or plantation, in British ships or vessels, without payment of any duty whatsoever; any thing contained in the Order in Council above-mentioned of the twentieth day of February last to the contrary notwithstanding. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of June 1813,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty by sundry Acts of Parliament, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was pleased, by his Order in Council of the twentieth February one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to allow, and did thereby allow, for the space of twelve months, to commence from the twenty-fifth

At the Court at Carlton-House, Tuesday, July 27, 1813.

A CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned for this day, the Knights Companions, in their mantles and collars, with the Officers of the Order, in their mantles, chains, and badges, attended His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in his own apartment at half past three o'clock; and, being called over by Garter Principal King of Arms, a procession was made to the Chapter Room in the following order:

Marquess Wellesley.

Marquess of Hertford.

Earl of Winchilsea.

Earl of Pembroke.

Earl of Westmorland.

Earl of Chatham.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

Sir Thomas Tyrwhitt, Knt.
Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

The Hon. and Rev. Dr.
Edward Legge, Dean of Windsor, Register of the Order.

Sir Isaac Heard, Knt. Garter
Principal King of Arms.

The Bishop of Salisbury, Chancellor of the Order.

The Bishop of Winchester, Prelate
of the Order.

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The Prince Regent and the Knights Companions being seated, the Chancellor, standing in his place on the left hand of His Royal Highness, read a new Statute, by which it is ordained, that, although by the statutes of the said Most Noble Order it is provided that the said Order shall consist of the Sovereign and twenty-five Knights Companions, together with such lineal descendants of King George the Second as shall have been elected, and may hereafter be elected, into the same, always excepting the Prince of Wales, who is a constituent part of the original institution; His Royal Highness taking, nevertheless, into His Royal consideration, the magnanimity and the many other transcendent and heroic qualities
