AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1813,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is ordered, by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Monday the twenty-third of this instant August, be further prorogued to Friday the fourth day of October next.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS divers soldiers, now serving in His Majesty's army, under the provisions of the Mutiny Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, chapter 66, schedule (A), did, at the time of their respective enlistments, engage to serve His Majesty for the limited periods therein respectively expressed, provided His Majesty should so long require the same, and for such further term, not exceeding three years, as should be directed by any Proclamation of His Majesty; provided always, that in case of such direction the said additional period should determine whenever six months of continued peace, to be reckoned from the ratification of any definitive treaty, should have elapsed, subsequent to the expiration of such limited periods as aforesaid: And whereas the continuation of the existing hostilities renders it expedient to exercise the power vested in His Majesty of enlarging such limited periods of service; We have, therefore, thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to publish this Proclamation: And We do hereby direct, that all soldiers now serving in His Majesty's army, (the Veteran Battalions excepted), who have been enlisted for such limited periods as aforesaid, shall continue to serve therein for the term of three years after the expiration of such limited periods respectively; provided always, that the said additional period shall determine whenever six months of continued peace, to be reckoned from the ratification of any definitive treaty, shall have elapsed, subsequent to the expiration of such limited periods respectively.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's Reign.

GOD save the KING.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with our sincere congratulations on the late splendid, glorious, and decisive victory obtained over the French, on the 21st of June last, near Vittoria, by his Majesty's army, under the command of Field-Marshal the Illustrious Marquess of Wellington, an officer, whose dauntless fortitude, whose transcendent merit and exalted talent enabled him, on the late memorable occasion, to exceed all that he had himself before achieved, and to obtain, on that proud day, a victory the most brilliant that ever graced our military annals.

We most humbly hope that the God of Battles, who continues to extend his divine favour to his Majesty's arms, will enable him finally to triumph over all his enemies.

In testimony whereof, the Common Seal of said City is hereto affixed the 16th day of July 1813.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Lord Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Commonalty of the City of Cork.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Commonalty of the City of Cork, duly assembled, beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highness on the late brilliant and decisive victory obtained by that consummate and unrivalled General Field-Marshal the Marquess of Wellington, and the brave allied armies under his command, over the French forces in the neighbourhood of Vittoria, on the 21st day of June last.

A victory so complete and decisive is not only calculated to promote the national glory, and exhibit the British arms and valour to the highest possible advantage, but also to produce the happiest effect on the liberties and independence of Europe.

Whilst we deeply regret the protracted illness of our much beloved Sovereign, we cannot conclude without expressing the confidence we feel in your Royal Highness's wise, temperate, and constitutional Government, and our ardent hope that the all-ruling Providence which has watched over and upheld the interest of the United Kingdom during so many years of unexampled great difficulties, may continue to protect us from our enemies, and to prosper the Councils of your Royal Highness, so as finally to accomplish and secure an honourable and lasting peace.

Done under the Common Seal of the said City this 6th day of August, in the year 1813.

Peter Dumas, Mayor.

Bw. Gibbings, Frans. Hodder, Sheriffs.

Will. Johnson, Common Speaker.

W. Jones, Town Clerk.
