AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1813,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is ordered, by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Monday the twenty-third of this instant August, be further prorogued to Friday the fourth day of October next.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHIEREAS divers soldiers, now serving in His Majesty's army, under the provisions of the Mutiny Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, chapter 66, schedule (A), did, at the time of their respective enlistments, engage to serve His Majesty for the limited periods therein respectively expressed, provided His Majesty should so long require the same, and for such further term, not exceeding three years, as should be directed by any Proclamation of His Majesty; provided always, that in case of such direction the said additional period should determine whenever six months of continued peace, to be reckoned from the ratification of any definitive treaty, should have elapsed, subsequent to the expiration of such limited periods as aforesaid: And whereas the continuation of the existing hostilities renders it expedient to exercise the power vested in His Majesty of enlarging such limited periods of service; We have, therefore, thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to publish this Proclamation: And We do hereby direct, that all soldiers now serving in His Majesty's army, (the Veteran Battalions excepted), who have been enlisted for such limited periods as aforesaid, shall continue to serve therein for the term of three years after the expiration of such limited periods respectively; provided always, that the said additional period should determine whenever six months of continued peace, to be reckoned from the ratification of any definitive treaty, shall have elapsed, subsequent to the expiration of such limited periods respectively.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's Reign.

GOD save the KING.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with our sincere congratulations on the late splendid, glorious, and decisive victory obtained over the French, on the 21st of June last, near Vittoria, by his Majesty's army, under the command of Field-Marshal the Illustrious Marquess of Wellington, an officer, whose dauntless fortitude, whose transcendent merit and exalted talent enabled him, on the late memorable occasion, to exceed all that he had himself before achieved, and to obtain, on that proud day, a victory the most brilliant that ever graced our military annals.
