From the Marshal's Office.

Sale by Execution.—First Proclamation.

Whereas I the undersigned, by authority obtained firstly from his Excellency Robert Gordon, Esq. Captain General and Governor in Chief of the Colony Berbice and its dependencies, Vice Admiral and President, in all Courts and Colleges within the same, &c. &c. and secondly by virtue of an authority obtained from the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, said authorities bearing date 26th, 29th, July 1811, and granted upon three different petitions, presented by Krieger and Scharhorst, Isaac Farley, and Mathias Rader, all versus plantation Lewis Manor, have caused to be taken in execution and put under sequestration, the cotton estate Lewis Manor, situate on the East Sea Coast of this Colony, with all its cultivations, buildings, slaves, &c. the property of the estate of Jacob Lewis, deceased.

Be it therefore known, that I the undersigned, intend to sell after the expiration of one year and six weeks from the 1st February 1812, the above mentioned cotton estate, Lewis Manor, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances and dependences thereto belonging; all conformable to an inventory formed thereof; and now lying at the Marshal's Office for the inspection of those whom it may concern, in order to recover from the proceeds of the sale of said estate, Lewis Manor, such sums of money as wherefore the said estate has been taken in execution, cum expences.

This first proclamation made known to the public by beat of drum, and further dealt with according to custom.—Berbice, the 20th September 1812.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

SOUTHAMPTON.

TO be sold by auction, by Order of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankruptcy against James Bailey, of London, by C. Sharp and Sons, on Wednesday the 25th of August 1813, at the Dolphin Inn, Southampton, between the hours of Five and Six o'Clock in the Evening,

A most excellent and commodious shop and dwelling house, situate in Bridges-Street, Southampton, late in the occupation of Messrs. Sutton and Co. Linen-Drapers. The premises are well erected, composed of the best materials, and in complete repair, ready for the immediate reception of a family. In the basement there are two very excellent kitchens and offices; on the ground floor is a commodious shop, well calculated for any business requiring room; and above there are three sitting rooms and six sleeping rooms.

Held by lease under the corporation of the Town of Southampton, for a term of which thirty-five years were unexpired at Lady Day last, at the tiffing rent of 4l. a year, and two couple of good fat capons, or 8s. in lieu thereof.

The house will covert into two comfortable convenient tenements, without much expence, there being already two entrances and staircases.

Further particulars may be had of the auctioneers, at their Estate Agency Office, No. 148, High-Street, Southampton, or at Messrs. Gale and Son, Solicitors, Bedford-Street, Bedford-Row.
