

light company of the 8th or King's regiment, the two flank companies of the 104th, under Major De Haren, and the provincial cavalry, under Captain Hall, the whole surrendered to His Majesty's forces.

To the conduct of Lieutenant Fitzgibbon, through whose address the capitulation was entered into, may be attributed the surrender of the American force.

To Major De Haren, for his speedy movement to the point of attack, and execution of the arrangements I had previously made with him, I am very much obliged.

I have the honour to enclose the capitulation entered into between Colonel Boerstler and myself, and a return of prisoners taken, exclusive of wounded, not yet ascertained.

I lost no time in forwarding my Staff-Adjutant, Lieutenant Barnard, to communicate to you this intelligence. He has been particularly active and useful to me upon all occasions. I take this opportunity of mentioning him to you, and beg the favour of you to recommend him to His Excellency. Sir G. Prevost, as an active and promising young officer.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) CECIL BISSHOPP, Lieut. Col.
commanding the Troops in advance.

Brigadier-General Vincent, &c. &c.

SIR, Township of Louth, June 24, 1813.

AT De Coris this morning, about seven o'clock, I received information that about one thousand of the enemy, with two guns, were advancing towards me from St. David's. I soon after heard a firing of cannon and musketry, and in consequence rode in advance two miles on the St. David's road; I discovered by the firing, that the enemy was moving for the road on the mountain. I sent off Cornet M'Kenney to order out my detachment of the 49th, consisting of a subaltern and forty-six rank and file, and closed upon the enemy to reconnoitre. I discovered him on the mountain road, and took a position on an eminence to the right of it. My men arrived and pushed on in his front to cut off his retreat, under a fire from his guns, which, however, did no execution. After examining his positions, I was informed he expected reinforcements, I therefore decided upon summoning him to surrender. After the exchange of several propositions, between Lieutenant-Colonel Boerstler and myself, in the name of Lieutenant-Colonel De Haren, Lieutenant-Colonel Boerstler agreed to surrender on the terms stated in the articles of capitulation. On my return to my men to send on an officer to superintend the details of the surrender, you arrived.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) J. FITZGIBBON, Lieutenant,
49th Foot.

To Major De Haren, &c. &c.
