 such port or place shall have been appointed for the performance of quarantine or not, the Superintend-

 Officer of the Customs as shall be authorized by the Commissioners of the Customs, or any four or more before you arrived at the port or place where you took in your present cargo?"

- "Did you carry any bill of health with you to the port or place where you took in the cargo you have now on board? From what place?
 Were the said bills of health clean, unclean,

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the questions above set forth, in addition to the preliminary questions

DISPATCHES, of which the following are a copy and extract, have been this day received by Earl Bathurst, from Lieutenant-General Sir George Prevost, Bart.

*Head-Quarters, Kingston, Upper Canada,
My Lord, July 20, 1813.*

IHAVE the honour of transmitting to your Lordship, the copy of a report from Lieutenant-Colonel Clark, of the Militia Forces, of the result of an attack made by a detachment of troops from the centre division of the army serving in Upper Canada, placed under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Bisshopp, one of the Inspecting Field-Officers of Militia, for the purpose of destroying the enemy's block-houses, stores, barracks, vessels, and naval establishment at Black Rock, which I have this day received from Major-General De Rottenburg.

The skill and judgment of Lieutenant-Colonel Bisshopp, aided by the valour of the officers and men placed under his command, enabled him to accomplish this enterprise in the most gallant manner, when unfortunately for His Majesty's service, a concealed enemy, at the moment of their embarkation of the troops in their encumbered boats, threw in upon them a destructive fire, which deprived the country of some valuable men, and disabled Lieutenant-Colonel Bisshopp so as to leave me no hope of again benefitting by his services during the remainder of this arduous campaign.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) GEORGE PREVOST.

Earl Bathurst, &c. &c. &c.

SIR,

Chippawa, July 12, 1813.

IHAVE the honour to report to you, for the information of Major-General De Rottenburg, that the detachment under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Bisshopp, consisting of a detachment of royal artillery, under Lieutenant Armstrong, forty of the King's regiment, under Lieutenant Barstow, one hundred of the 41st, under Captain Saunders, forty of the 49th, under Lieutenant Fitz Gibbons, and about forty of the 2d and 3d Lincoln militia, embarked at two o'clock on the morning of the 11th instant, to attack the enemy's batteries, at Black Rock.

The detachment landed half an hour before daylight, without being perceived, and immediately proceeded to attack the batteries, which they carried with little opposition; the enemy heard the firing at their advanced posts, and immediately retreated with great precipitation to Buffalo.

The block-houses, barracks, and navy yard, with one large schooner, were burnt, and such of the public stores as could be got off were taken possession of and carried across the river by the troops: before the whole of the stores were taken away, the enemy advanced, having been reinforced by a considerable body of Indians, whom they posted in the woods on their flanks and in their advance; they were gallantly opposed by the whole of the troops, but finding the Indians could not be driven from the adjoining woods without our sustaining a very great loss, it was deemed prudent to retreat to the boats, and the troops recrossed the river under a very heavy fire.

I am extremely sorry to add, Lieutenant-Colonel Bisshopp fell, severely wounded, on our retreat to the boats: fortunately the detachment did not suffer by it, every thing having been arranged and completed previous to his receiving his wounds.

Inclosed are the returns of the killed, wounded, and missing, with the exception of those of the 49th regiment and militia, which have not yet been received.

I have also inclosed the returns of the ordnance and other stores captured.

I have the honour to be, &c.

ADDITIONAL GENERAL ORDERS.

Head-Quarters, Kingston, Adjutant-General's Office, July 15, 1813.

His Excellency the Commander of the Forces, has received from Major-General De Rottenburg, the official report of Lieutenant-Colonel Clark, of the 2d Lincoln Militia, of the successful attack made on the enemy's post at Black Rock, on the morning of the 11th instant, Lieutenant-Colonel Bisshopp being unable to write in consequence of the severe wounds he received. Lieutenant-Colonel Clark reports, that the objects of the enterprise were achieved with the utmost gallantry, and that by the judicious arrangements of Lieutenant-Colonel Bisshopp, the enemy's block-houses, stores, barracks, and dock-yard, together with a large vessel, were burnt, and all the ordnance and stores that could not be removed, were destroyed, and the detachment was on the point of reembarking without having lost a single man, when it was warmly attacked by a strong reinforcement of the enemy, aided by a numerous body of Indians, who had been enabled to approach under cover of the surrounding woods, and kept up a galling fire upon the boats. The detachment had thirteen rank and file killed; Lieutenant-Colonel Bisshopp and Captain Saunders, 41st regiment, severely wounded; Lieutenant-Colonel Clark, 2d Lincoln regiment, and Lieutenant Mompesson, 41st regiment, slightly wounded, and twenty rank and file wounded. The ordnance captured and destroyed, consist of three twelve-pounders, one nine-pounder, three six-pounders, and about two hundred stand of arms: eight large boats and scows were brought away loaded with stores.

His Excellency laments, that the severe wounds of Lieutenant-Colonel Bisshopp will deprive this army for a time of his gallant and able services; and is happy to learn, that the wounds of Lieutenant-Colonel Clark is not likely long to restrain the zeal and energy with which that officer has so eminently distinguished himself.

By His Excellency's command,

(Signed) EDW. BAYNES, Adj. Gen.

Extract of a Dispatch from Lieutenant-General Sir George Prevost, dated Head-Quarters, Kingston, Upper Canada, August 1, 1813.

I HAVE the honour to inform your Lordship, that the enemy continue to occupy the position of Fort George and its immediate vicinity, within which they are still more closely circumscribed than when I had the honour of addressing you on the 18th ultimo; the head-quarters of Major-General De Rottenburg having since been removed to St. Davids, about seven miles distant from that fort, and our advance posts being within four miles of it. The enemy's fleet, consisting of two ships, one brig, and eleven schooners, in all fourteen, sailed from Sackett Harbour on the 23d ultimo, and were seen off Niagara on the 27th, and off York on the 28th; and yesterday our squadron, powerfully armed, well equipped, completely manned, and ably commanded, left Kingston Harbour in search of it.

I have thought it expedient, to endeavour to call off the enemy's attention from this province, to the defence of their own settlements on Lake Champlain, by employing Captain Everard, and the officers and seamen of His Majesty's sloop of war

Wasp, lately arrived from Halifax, to man our gun boats, and the captured American vessels at Isle aux Noix, for the purpose of joining with a body of eight hundred picked men, in making a movement on that Lake, to arrest the progress of the reinforcements moving towards the American armies at Sackett Harbour, under Major-General Lewis, and at Niagara, under Major-General Dearborn. I have selected an officer of merit and enterprise for this service, and he has received my instructions to destroy the vessels and boats of every description along the shore, and such public buildings as are used for military purposes. He is also to bring away or destroy provisions and warlike stores of every kind which may fall into his possession; but all private property, and the persons of the unarmed and inoffensive inhabitants, are to be respected, and every care and precaution are to be taken to preserve both inviolate.

Admiralty-Office, October 12, 1813.

THE letters, of which the following are copies and extracts, have been transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq. by Vice-Admiral Sir Edward Pellew, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean.

SIR, Milford, off Porto Ré, July 6, 1813.

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you, that on the 28th ult. I left Melada, and on the 30th, assembled the Elizabeth and Eagle off Promontorio. On the 1st inst. the squadron entered the Quarrier Channel, and on the 2d, in the evening, anchored about four miles from Fiume, which was defended by four batteries, mounting fifteen heavy guns. On the 3d, in the morning, the ships named in the margin* weighed, with a light breeze from the S.W. with the intention of attacking the sea line of batteries, (for which the arrangement had been previously made and communicated) leaving a detachment of boats and marines with the Haughty, to storm the battery at the Mole Head, as soon as the guns were silenced; but the wind very light, shifting to the S.E. with current from the river, broke the ships off, and the Eagle could only fetch the second battery, opposite to which she anchored. The enemy could not stand the well directed fire of that ship. This being communicated by telegraph, I made the signal to storm, when Captain Rowley, leading in his gig the first detachment of marines, took possession of the fort and hoisted the King's colours, whilst Captain Hoste, with the marines of the Milford, took and spiked the guns of the first battery, which was under the fire of the Milford and Bacchante, and early evacuated. Captain Rowley leaving a party of seamen to turn the guns of the second battery against the others, without losing time, boldly dashed on through the town, although annoyed by the enemy's musketry from the windows of the houses, and a field-piece placed in the centre of the great street; but the marines, headed by Lieutenants Lloyd and Nepean, and the seamen of the boats, proceeded with such firmness, that the enemy retreated before them, drawing the field piece until they came to the square, where they made a stand, taking post in a large house. At this time, the boats with their carronades, under Captain Markland, opened against the gable end of it with such effect, that the enemy gave way at all points, and I was gratified at seeing them forsake the town in every direction. Captain Hoste, with his division, followed close to Captain Rowley, and on their junction, the two batteries, with the field piece, stores, and shipping, were taken possession of, the Governor and every officer and man of the garrison having run away. Considering the number of troops in the town, above three hundred and fifty, besides natives, our loss has been trifling; one marine of the Eagle, killed; Lieutenant Lloyd, and five seamen and marines, wounded. Nothing could exceed the spirit and disposition manifested by every captain, officer, seaman, and marine, in the squadron.

Although the town was stormed in every part, by the prudent management of Captains Rowley and Hoste, not an individual has been plundered, nor has any thing been taken away except what was afloat, and in the Government stores.

I herewith send a return of the property and vessels captured, and have the honour to be &c. &c.

THOS. FRAS. FREEMANTLE.

A List of Vessels, Stores, &c. taken and destroyed at Fiume on the 3d July 1813.

- 99 vessels, more than half of the smaller class were returned to the proprietors, 13 sent to Lissa, laden with oil, grain, powder, and merchandise; the rest were destroyed.
- 59 iron guns (part only mounted), rendered totally useless.
- 8 brass eighteen-pounders, and one field-piece, taken away.
- 500 stand of small arms.
- 200 barrels of powder.
- Rations of bread for seventy thousand men, and two magazines with stores, &c. burnt.

THOS. FRAS. FREEMANTLE.

SIR, Milford, off Porto Ré, July 6, 1813.

I HAVE the honour to inform you, that yesterday the squadron under my orders moved from Fiume to this place, and the Haughty was dispatched with prizes to Lissa.

Captains Hoste and Markland landed with the marines, and found the forts abandoned by the enemy, who had spiked the guns, and thrown the ammunition into the sea. The boats went up to Bocca Ré, where a convoy of thirteen sail were scuttled; one of them only could be recovered. Having rendered the guns, ten in number, entirely useless, burnt the carriages, and blown up the works, I have ordered the ships to their several stations.

I have the honour to be, &c.

His Majesty's Ship Elizabeth, off Omago,

SIR, June 8, 1813.

HAVING information that the enemy were sending three vessels, loaded with powder, along the coast of Istria, and seeing vessels of the same description within the town of Omago, I stood in there; and when the Eagle and Elizabeth were within gun-shot, I summoned the town, which they refused to receive.

After firing, some time, the marines of this ship, under Captain Graham and Lieutenant Thomas Price, and of the Eagle, under Lieutenant Samuel Lloyd, drove the enemy out of the town. They had about one hundred soldiers.

The boats under Lieutenants Roberts and Bennett, of the Elizabeth, and Lieutenants Greenaway and Hotham, of the Eagle, destroyed a two gun battery, and brought out four vessels, loaded with wine, that had been scuttled.

I am happy to say that only one man was wounded; and the conduct of all the officers employed on this service was highly creditable.

I have the honour to be, &c.

His Majesty's Ship Elizabeth, Fasano-Roads, June 20, 1813.

SIR,

HAVING information that some French gens d'armes, who organised the militia, and Commissaries that levied the contributions, resided at Dignano opposite the Prioni Islands; I landed fifty seamen, under Lieutenants Roberts and Bennett, the marines, under Captain Graham and Lieutenant Price, and the boats with cannonades, under Lieutenant Bernard. They took possession of the town at daybreak this morning, made the French prisoners, and disarmed the militia. A French surgeon that fired out of a window at our people was mortally wounded; this is the only loss on either side. Great praise is due to all the officers employed on this service, and nothing could exceed the steadiness of the men.

I have the honour to be, &c.

E. LEVESON GOWER.

His Majesty's Sloop Satacen, Port Ladro, June 18, 1813.

SIR,

UPON reconnoitring the coast and islands, on the station you did me the honour of appointing me to, the island of Zapano, and its harbour appeared the only place where there were vessels of any burthen, and from information received, it was supposed some of the last convoy with grain for Ragusa was still there.

As it was only guarded by a captain's party of about sixty men, last night, it blowing and raining excessive hard, I conceived it a most favourable time of attacking it; at nine P. M. I put off from the brig, with the boats, and at eleven landed, with the small-arm men and marines, to the number of forty men; and after a very difficult march of nearly three miles, we surprised and took prisoners the corporal's guard in advance, without their being able to give the alarm. We then instantly pushed for the guard-house, and commandant's quarters, which were carried by the bayonet, and took prisoners a captain, commanding the islands of Zapano and Mezzo, two serjeants, three corporals, and thirty-three privates, with all their arms and ammunition, belonging to the 4th regiment (the lieutenant and fifteen privates escaping), which completely put the whole of the island in our possession, and I am happy to say without loss, and only a few slight bayonet wounds. The determined conduct of the seamen and marines, headed by Lieutenants Holmes and Hancock, made all their resistance ineffectual.

I have the honour to be, &c.

His Majesty's Ship Havannah, at Sea,

SIR, June 29, 1813.

I HAVE the honour to report the capture of an armed convoy of the enemy's, consisting of ten sail, under the town of Vasto, on the morning of the 27th instant, by the boats of this ship, commanded by my First Lieutenant William Hamley.

The enemy being apprised of our approach the preceding day, had assembled in force, and taken every possible precaution to prevent our getting their vessels off; but having landed to the right and forced them from their guns (eight in number), we remained masters of the spot the whole day, until the vessels were rigged and got afloat. This little service has been performed with the spirit ever manifest in Lieutenant Hamley, my officers, and ship's company generally, and with only three men slightly wounded, while the enemy acknowledge six killed and seven wounded.

I have the honour to be, &c.

Eagle, at Anchor, off Farasina,

SIR, July 7, 1813.

PURSUANT to your orders of yesterday, the fortress of Farasina, mounting five eighteen pounders, was attacked this morning, at eleven A. M. by His Majesty's ship under my command, and after some resistance, was stormed and carried by a party of seamen and royal marines, landed under cover of the ship's fire, and headed by Lieutenant Greenaway, (the first lieutenant) Lieutenant Hotham, and Lieutenant Lloyd, of the royal marines.

On the approach of our men, the enemy abandoned their works, and fled to the heights immediately above them, from whence they were driven by the party under Lieutenant Lloyd, and separated in all directions.

A position was then taken by the royal marines, to secure the men while destroying the battery and its out-works; and at two P. M. the whole re-embarked, without suffering any other accident, than Mr. Hudson, midshipman, slightly wounded, after disabling the guns, and laying the whole works in a heap of ruins, except the church.

I am, &c.

His Majesty's Ship Undaunted, off

SIR, Marseilles, Aug. 18, 1813.

I HAVE the honour to inform you, that the batteries of Cassis have been destroyed, and the vessels as per margin, * brought out of the Mole, or burnt. In justice to the brave officers and men employed on this service, I beg leave to state a few particulars relative to their very meritorious conduct. Owing to light winds, the Undaunted could not take up the anchorage that I intended, therefore to Captain Coghlan, Sir John Sinclair, and the Honourable Captain Spencer, I am entirely indebted for the success that attended an enterprise, which for gallantry has seldom been surpassed. Four batteries defended the entrance of the bay, and two gun-boats were moored across the entrance of the Mole. The citadel battery could only be carried by escalade, but nothing could withstand the boldness of the gallant marines, led on by Captain Coghlan, who surmounted every obstacle opposed to them (and of whom Captain Coghlan speaks in the highest terms of praise). They literally drove the French before them at the point of the bayonet, pursuing them through the batteries to the heights that command the town, leaving it entirely at our mercy. The boats under the direction of Sir John Sinclair, then entered the Mole, and in less than two hours brought off the vessels.

I feel very greatly indebted to Captain Coghlan for his able advice, and for the zeal and ability manifested by him; likewise to Sir John Sinclair and the Honourable Captain Spencer, for their perseverance in sweeping their vessels in, under a heavy fire from the batteries, and placing them in the most judicious position to cover the marines, and to which I attribute in a great degree our small loss.

My First Lieutenant Tozer and Second Hownam, Lieutenants Wilson, of His Majesty's ship Caledonia, and Greenshaw, of His Majesty's ship Hibernia; Captains Sherman and Hussey, and Lieutenants Hunt, Dyer, Bluche, Maule, Reeves, Jarvis, Mallard and Ellis of the Marines, behaved with distinguished bravery. Lieutenant Tozer I lament is most severely wounded; his gallantry I have often noticed.

Lieutenant Hunt, of the marines, was the first who entered the citadel battery, by a ladder, under a galling fire; his conduct on this as on all former occasions, was very gallant.

I have the honour to be, &c.

SIR, Repulse, off Toulon, Aug. 18, 1813.

I HAVE the honour to enclose a list of the enemy's vessels* captured and destroyed by His Majesty's ships Repulse and Aigle; the two latter having sought refuge in the harbour of Vernazza, it was necessary, in order to get at them, to take possession of that town: this was accomplished by anchoring the ships close to it, and landing the royal marines, who, driving the enemy's troops out, occupied it, whilst a considerable body, hastening from the neighbourhood to its relief, were kept back by the fire of the ships; until the vessels were burnt, their crews having previously boarded them.

The enemy lost several men in this little affair, which was admirably conducted by Lieutenant Harris, of the Repulse, and fortunately without a casualty on our side. The royal marines, led by Captain Innis and Lieutenant Dixie, behaved in their customary gallant manner.

I have the honour to be, &c.

His Majesty's Sloop Wolverine,

SIR, October 7, 1813.

BE pleased to inform the Commander in Chief, that His Majesty's sloop this afternoon, close in with the town of Barfleur, captured the French national lugger, No. 961, belonging to the flotilla at Cherbourg, mounting six guns, commanded by Monsieur Berard, Ensigne de Vaisseau, with a complement of thirty-two men.

Admiralty-Office, October 12, 1813.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Pell, of His Majesty's Bomb Thunder, to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated off the Ower's Light, the 9th instant.

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you, for their Lordships' information, that in pursuance of directions from Sir Richard Bickerton, to proceed in His Majesty's bomb Thunder, to Woolwich, I weighed at six o'clock this morning from Spithead, and at half past eight, Ower's Light, bearing N.N.E. observed a lugger to windward, under easy sail; altered our course to near the shore, and took in the studding sails; the lugger immediately bore up and followed; at half past ten she came up on the larboard quarter, and hailed us to bring too, and strike; his decks were full of men in readiness for boarding. She put her helm up to lay us alongside, we put ours down and fired four guns, and a volley of musketry; she fell on board, and was carried in the most gallant style by boarding.

* St. Catharine, laden with iron ore, 60 tons; Colon laden with sulphur, 50 tons; St. Joseph, laden with onions, 80 tons; vessel, (name unknown) laden with planks, 70 tons.

The capture proves to be Le Neptune, belonging to Dunkirk, out two days from La Hogue, had made no captures; pierced for eighteen guns, sixteen mounted, with a complement of sixty-eight men, only sixty-five on board; the enemy had four men killed and ten wounded, five very severely, one since dead. I am happy to say, that we had only two men wounded.

Wounded.

George Jenks, able seaman, severely.
John Dixon, able seaman, slightly.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that in the night of the 30th of August last, some evil-disposed person or persons did wantonly and cruelly maim and disfigure three mares belonging to Mr. Aaron Everard, of Naseby, in the county of Northampton, by cutting off the ears of all of them, and making deep gashes in the necks of two of them;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually cut and maimed the said mares), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FORTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Aaron Everard, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty," it is enacted, that it should be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees of any of the goods, wares, or merchandize enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (B), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure the same under the joint locks of the Crown and the London Dock Company, in any warehouse or warehouses, erected or to be erected, situate within the premises of the London Dock Company, without payment at the time of the first entry of such goods, wares, and merchandize, of the duties of Customs or Excise due on the importation thereof; subject nevertheless to the rules, regulations, and restrictions therein contained; provided that no such goods, wares, or merchandize should be so lodged or secured, unless and until such warehouses or other works belonging or to belong thereto, should be so far completed that in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every respect for the reception of such goods, wares, and merchandize, and wherein the same might respectively be safely and securely lodged, and remain under the regulations and directions in the said Act contained; and the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, were thereby authorized and empowered, in writing under his or their hand or hands, to certify and make known his or their approbation of such warehouses, which certificate should be published three times at least in the London Gazette, and in two or more public morning newspapers usually circulated in London: And whereas the table marked (B) above referred to, is in the words following; viz.

"A list of articles which (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or not being imported from the West Indies,) may be secured in the warehouses within the premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without the duties due on the importation thereof being first paid," Brandy, Geneva, and other Spirits.

And whereas certain vaults for wine and spirits, and warehouses for other articles of merchandize, and other parts of the said works have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and are now in use: And whereas the vaults herein after mentioned, part of the said works, have been since completed;

We, being three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do certify, that in our judgement the fourth division of the vaults situate under the new tobacco warehouses at the east end of the dock, are so far completed as to be fit and ready, in every respect, for the reception of wine, brandy, Geneva, and other spirits.
