

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General, and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief for the time being of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

Whitehall, October 19, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto the Reverend William Van Mildert, Doctor in Divinity, the office and place of Regius Professor of Divinity in the University of Oxford, together with the place and dignity of a Canon of the Cathedral Church of Christ in the said University, properly belonging to the Regius Professor of the said University, being both void by the resignation of Doctor William Howley, lately promoted to the Bishoprick of London.

Commissions signed by the Vice Lieutenant of the County of Oxford.

1st or Western Regiment of Local Militia.

Thomas Higgins, Gent. to be Lieutenant, vice Hawkins, superseded. Dated May 18, 1813.

4th or Eastern Regiment.

Henry Slatter, Gent. to be Lieutenant. Dated April 20, 1813.

Whitehall, October 12, 1813.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that in the night of the 30th of August last, some evil-disposed person or persons did wantonly and cruelly maim and disfigure three mares belonging to Mr. Aaron Everard, of Naseby, in the county of Northampton, by cutting off the ears of all of them, and making deep gashes in the necks of two of them;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually cut and maimed the said mares), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FORTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Aaron Everard, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Admiralty-Office, October 4, 1813.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed on the 2d July last, it is enacted, that there shall be allowed to British Governors, Ministers, Consuls, and Merchants, residing in foreign parts, for the maintenance of all seafaring men and boys, subjects of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, that shall be shipwrecked, captured, or by other unavoidable accident, be driven or cast away, or that shall be discharged, as unserviceable, from any of His Majesty's ships, or vessels, at such foreign ports or places where such Governors, Ministers, Consuls, or Merchants reside; and to every Master or other person, having charge of a ship or vessel, taking on board and subsisting such seafaring men and boys, in the manner expressed in the Act 31 Geo. 2. cap. 10, such sum of money per diem as the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, from time to time, shall, in their discretion, direct;

Notice is hereby given, that the Lords of the Admiralty, have, by the authority of the aforementioned Act, directed the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, to cause the sum of one shilling and sixpence per diem, for the subsistence and passage home of each such seaman or seafaring boy, to be paid to any person or persons that may be entitled to receive the same, under the provisions of the said Act: observing, in respect to Merchants, that by the Act passed in the thirty-first of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for the encouragement of seamen employed in the Royal Navy," &c. it is enacted, that in those foreign parts where there is not a resident Governor, Minister, or Consul, two or more British Merchants are authorised to act, in providing for such seafaring men and boys.

J. W. CROKER.
