MEMORANDUM.

The removal of Assistant-Surgeon Hartzig, from the 1st Battalion of the Line of the King's German Legion to the 1st Foreign Veteran Battalion, as stated in the Gazette of the 2d of March 1813, has not taken place.

Whitehall, October 22, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto the Honourable John Reginald Lygon, second son of the Right Honourable William Lord Beauchamp, of Powyke, His Majesty's royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, in compliance with a clause in the last will and testament of Thomas Pindar, late of Owston, and of Bromby-Wood-Hall, both in the county of Lincoln, Esq. deceased, take, and on all occasions use, the surname and bear the arms of Pindar, instead of his present surname and arms of Lygon; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 22, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Edgell Wyatt, Esq. Captain in the Volunteer Cavalry of the hundred of Godley, in the county of Surrey, son of Richard Wyatt, late of Milton-Place, in the same county, Esq. deceased, by Priscilla his wife, daughter and coheir of John Edgell, Esq. and niece of William Edgell, late of Milton-Place aforesaid, Esq. all deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he may, from affectionate respect to the family of his late honoured mother, take and use the surname of Edgell, in addition to and after that of Wyatt, and that the said surname of Edgell may be borne and used by his issue:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

St. James's-Palace, October 26, 1813.
