WAR DEPARTMENT.

Drumming Street, November 1, 1813.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an extract, was yesterday received at Lord Bathurst's office, addressed to his Lordship by Field-Marshal the Marquess of Wellington, dated Vera, October 18, 1813.

THE enemy moved General Paris's division from Oleron to the neighbourhood of St. Jean de Pied de Port, as soon as our left made its movement on the 7th instant.

On the night of the 12th the enemy attacked and carried the redoubt in the camp of Sarre, which was held by a picquet of forty men of the army of reserve of Andalusia, who were taken, as well as one hundred pioneers. There is reason to believe that they were surprised, as the reserve for the support of the redoubt had not time to give the picquet assistance. This redoubt was certainly more distant from the line, and from the ground from which it could be supported, than I had imagined it to be when I had directed that it should be occupied, and it was so near to the houses of the village of Sarre as always to be liable to an attack by surprise, I have therefore not allowed it to be re-occupied.

After having possession of the redoubt, the enemy made an attack on the morning of the 13th, upon the advanced posts of the army of Andalusia, under the command of Mariscal de Campo Don Pedro Giron, with a view to regain possession of those works which they had lost on the 8th, which they constructed in front of the camp of Sarre. It was at first imagined and reported, that the real attack was on the side of the Hermitage of La Rhune; but it was confined entirely to the advanced posts of the army of Andalusia, and was repulsed by them without difficulty.

I had every reason to be satisfied with the conduct of Mariscal de Campo Don P. Giron, and the General Staff and other officers, and the soldiers under his command upon this occasion. I had again occasion to observe particularly the steadiness of the regiment of Ordeues, under the command of Colonel Hore.

Nothing of importance has occurred on any part of the line, but it appears that the enemy have been reinforced by considerable bodies of recruits, raised by the recent conscriptions.

I have received no reports from Catalonia since I addressed your Lordship last.

Admiralty-Office, November 2, 1813.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Lord Keith, K. B. to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Sultan, in Cawsand Bay, 30th October 1813.

SIR,

CAPTAIN Tobin, of His Majesty's ship Andromache, arrived here this morning with the French frigate La Traye, of forty-four guns, which he captured on the 23d instant, after a short action.

This frigate is the consort of the Weser, taken by the Rippon, Scylla, and Royalist on the 21st.

I enclose a copy of Captain Tobin's letter, reporting this capture, and am sorry to observe, that his First Lieutenant, Mr. Dickinson, is severely wounded.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) KEITH, Admiral.

Andromache, October 25, 1813, Scilly,

My Lord, N.N.E. Distance 22 Leagues.

AS the day opened on the 23d instant, the Andromache gave chase to a frigate under jury masts in the N.E. quarter; about four P.M. (the Saintes bearing E. by S. fourteen leagues) she opened a fire on us from her stern guns, which was not returned until a position was taken on her weather quarter, when, after a feeble resistance of about fifteen minutes, she struck her colours; indeed such was the disabled state of her masts previously to our meeting, that any further opposition would have been the extreme of rashness.

She is La Trave, of twenty-eight French eighteen-pounders and sixteen eighteen-pound carronades, only nine months old, with a crew of three hundred and twenty-one men (nearly all Dutch), one of whom was killed, and her Commander, Jacob Van Maren, Capitaine de Vaisseau and Member of the Imperial Order of Reunion, the Second Lieutenant, Oxholme, two Midshipmen (one of them since dead), and twenty-four seamen, wounded.

The Andromache has received no injury in her hull, nor ought to mention in her sails or rigging, while I lament to say, that Mr. Thomas Dickinson, the First Lieutenant, is severely wounded, and one seaman slightly.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) GEO. TOBIN, Captain.

To Admiral Lord Keith, K. B.

&c. &c. &c.

P. S. It seems, that La Trave had two men wounded by an English brig of war, on the 19th.

Admiralty-Office, November 2, 1813.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Otway to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated at Leith, the 29th October 1813.

THE Clio has sent in a small Danish cutter privateer, of three guns and twenty-two men, captured on the 22d instant off Hiteroe; had not taken any thing.

Admiralty-Office, November 2, 1813.

Extract of a Letter from the Honourable Captain Percy, of His Majesty's Ship Hotspur, addressed to Admiral Lord Keith, and transmitted by his Lordship to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Ship Hotspur, at Sea, October 26, 1813.

I BEG leave to inform you, that I have this day captured, after a chase of six hours, the American schooner letter of marque Chesapeake, of two hundred and sixty-five tons, five guns, and twenty-nine men, from Nantes.

Whitehall, November 2, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Lieutenant-General Sir Thomas Picton, K. B. Colonel of the 77th regiment of foot, and Representative in Parliament for the borough of Pembroke, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of an Honorary Knight Commander of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, with which His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal has been pleased to honour him, in testimony of the high sense which that Prince entertains of the distinguished conduct of the said Sir Thomas Picton on divers important occasions:

And His Royal Highness has been further pleased to command, that the said concession and especial mark of the royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in the College of Arms.

Commission in the South Hants Regiment of Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Hants.

Lieutenant Robert Rashleigh to be Captain, vice Butler, resigned.

IN pursuance of an Act passed in the forty-third year of His present Majesty's reign (43d Geo. 3. cap. 132. sec. 1.), intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouse without payment of duty;" we, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do certify and make known, that a strong brick arched vault, lately constructed by the West India Dock Company, within the surrounding wall of the west wing of the south side of the import dock belonging to the said Company at the Isle of Dogs, is in our judgement fit and proper in every respect for the reception of such goods, wares, and merchandise as are enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said Act of Parliament, marked A., and in which vault or warehouse such goods, wares, and merchandise may respectively be safely and securely deposited and remain under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do hereby declare our approbation of the said warehouse accordingly.

Given under our hands, at the Treasury-Chambers, Whitehall, the 29th day of October 1813,

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

THE Trustees of the Liverpool Docks give notice, that a Floating Light is preparing to be moored at the North West Spit of East Hoyle Sand Bank, in the entrance into the port of Liverpool; its bearings will be by compass. The present N. W. Buoy S. E. one mile distant; the Land Marks on Hilbre Island in one, bearing S.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E. five miles distant.—The Mockbeggar and Bidston Lights a little open to the Southward bearing S. E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E.

The Light will be Red, to distinguish it from all the lights upon the shore, and will be exhibited in a lantern hoisted at the mainmast-head of the vessel, and will be lighted for the first time on Wednesday the 1st December next, and will continue to be lit in future from sunset to sunrise.

By order,

John Foster, Secretary, &c.
Dock-Office, Liverpool, Oct. 20, 1813.

N. B. In the day time, from sunrise to sunset, a blue flag with the letters N. W. in white, will be hoisted at the mainmast-head, and in thick and foggy weather, either by night or day, a bell will be kept constantly ringing, to prevent vessels from running foul of the light vessel.

OFFICE FOR TAXES, SOMERSET-PLACE,

November 2, 1813.

Pursuant to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His present Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £56 and under £57 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes,
Matt. Winter, Secretary.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
June 26, 1813.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give notice, that at Salter's Hall, in London, on Wednesday the 12th day of January next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned allotments of common and other property will be let on leases, to commence upon the days, and for the term of years, hereinafter respectively mentioned; that is to say, Walker Shank Allotment, Newlands West Allotment, and Watch Hill Allotment, situate in the manors of Newlands and Whittonstall, in the parish of Bywell Saint Peter and county of Northumberland, for the term of sixteen years, to commence upon the 12th day of May 1814; also those complete and important works for the smelting and refining lead ore, called Blagill Mill, in the barony of Langley and parish of Warden, in the county of Northumberland, for a term not exceeding twenty-one years, or from year to year as may be agreed upon, to commence upon the 12th day of May 1814.

Such persons as may be desirous of taking any of the said allotments or mill, are requested to deliver or send their proposals in writing to John Dyer, Esq. at Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof at that place shall not be later than on Tuesday the 11th day of January next; and all such proposals as shall be received after that, will be returned as inadmissible.

In the present and all future lettings by the Commissioners and Governors of Greenwich-Hospital, the tenant will be required to pay one moiety of the expence of the leases.

Mr. Cuthbert Surtees, of Ebchester, will shew the allotments at Newlands and Whittonstall; and Mr. James Mulcaster, of Langley Mill, will shew Blagill Mill.

Messrs. Forster and Wailles, upon being applied to at their office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give any further particulars which it may be necessary to require respecting the allotments, and will communicate the conditions upon which Blagill Mill will be let.

Office of Ordnance, October 26, 1813.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Friday the 12th of November next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of Sweet and other Oils, Bottles, and other articles, for service of this Department, for a period of three years, from the 20th December next, determinable at the expiration of one year, upon notice of three months, at the option of either party.

Samples of the articles may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower; and further particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Oils, &c.;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 12th November, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Corporation of the Sons of the Clergy.

THE General Annual Court of the Governors of the Charity for the relief of poor widows and children of Clergymen will be holden at the Corporation-House, No. 2, Bloomsbury-Place, on Thursday the 11th day of November 1813, at one o'clock precisely, for the choice of Officers for the ensuing year, in pursuance of the charter.

J. M. Greenwood, Registrar.

From the Marshal's Office.

Sale by Execution.—First Proclamation.

Whereas I the undersigned, by authority obtained from His Excellency Robert Gordon, Esquire, Captain-General and Governor in Chief of the Colony of Berbice, Vice-Admiral and President in all Courts and Colleges within the same, &c. &c. &c. granted upon a petition presented by A. Houston, as empowered by letter of Kingston and McBean, of Demerary, under date of 14th April 1811, versus Thomas White, have caused to be taken in execution the undivided share in the cotton plantation No. 35, Correntine coast of colony, the property of the aforesaid Thomas White.

And whereas said undivided share of plantation No. 35, Correntine, the property of Thomas White aforesaid, has, on 17th February last, been put under sequestration.

Be it therefore known, that I the undersigned intend to sell, after the expiration of one year and six weeks, from the 17th February 1813, the above-named undivided share in plantation No. 35, Correntine coast, with all its buildings, slaves, cultivation, and further appurtenances and dependencies thereto belonging, all conformable to an inventory formed thereof, and now laying at the Marshal's Office, for the inspection of those whom it may concern, in order to recover from the proceeds of the sale of said undivided share of plantation No. 35, Correntine coast, the property of the now often named Thomas White, such sums of money, cum interest, and expences, as wherefore the same has been taken in execution.

This first Proclamation made known to the public by beat of drum, and further dealt with according to law.—Berbice, 13th June 1813.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

Capital Mansion-House, Fulling-Mills, &c. Bowbridge, near Strand, Gloucestershire.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Thomas Newcombe, of Bowbridge, in the said Parish of Stroud, Clothier, at the George Inn, in Stroud aforesaid, on Friday the 3d day of December next, at Five o'Clock in the Evening, subject to such conditions as will be then produced, the several desirable premises hereafter described, in one or more lot or lots, as shall be determined on at the time of sale,

All that capital mansion-house, with the messuage adjoining, replete with every convenience, now in the possession of Mr. Newcombe and Mr. Pattison; also the fulling-mill, situate near the same, containing two stocks and gig mill, together with the several spacious lofts for machinery, workshops, out-buildings, and gardens belonging thereto; and also all those several closes of arable, meadow, and pasture ground, and orcharding adjoining, containing in the whole by estimation about four acres, be the same more or less, and now in the possession of the said Mr. Newcombe.—The above-mentioned dwelling-house and mill are entirely new built, the latter has been fitted up at a great expence upon the most modern principle, and contain four rooms above the ground floor, each of which is 60 feet by 30.

All that tenement or dwelling-house, with the Blacksmith's shop and rooms over the same, used as three tenements, with the gardens to the same adjoining, and now in the occupation of James Weight, Ann Chandler, and Margaret Brown.

All those two cottages adjoining, together with the garden, now in the occupations of Charles Holder and Mary King.

All that cottage or tenement now in the occupation of Mrs. Newcombe.

The whole of the above-mentioned premises are situate at Bowbridge, near Stroud aforesaid, within one hundred yards of the Thames and Severn Canal, and altogether well worth the attention of persons concerned in the clothing manufactory.

For further particulars apply to Rowles Scudamore, at the Grauge, near Stroud; Mr. Clarke, Cloth-Factor, Basinghall-Street; or Mr. Martin, Wool-Broker, Coleman-Street, London (the Assignees); or to Mr. Newman, their Solicitor, in Stroud.
