Expedition to Walcheren in the Year 1809.

Commissary in Chief's Office,
November 20, 1813.

THE staff, regimental officers, naval and marine brigade, employed upon the expedition to the Scheldt in the year 1809, who received issues of bat and forage money from Commissary-General Robinson, under the warrants of the Commander of the Forces, may, on application at this Office, and producing the proper proofs to substantiate their claim, receive a repayment of the stoppage which was deducted on account of property duty upon their respective allowances.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
September 29, 1813.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give notice, that at Salters-Hall, in London, on Wednesday the 6th day of April next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undernamed farm will be let on lease, to commence upon the 12th day of May next; for the term of sixteen years, that is to say, New-leaseth North Farm, in the parish of Hartburn, in the county of Northumberland.

Such persons as may be desirous of taking the said farm, are requested to deliver or send their proposals in writing, to John Dyer, Esq. at Greenwich Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof in writing shall not be later than on Tuesday the 5th day of April next; and all such proposals shall be received after that day, will be returned as inadmissible.

Such alterations and additional buildings as may be thought essentially necessary by the Receiver, and approved by the Directors of Greenwich Hospital, will be made as soon as conveniently can be after the commencement of the term, the tenant being at the expence of leading all materials.

Mr. Edward Bell, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will shew the farm; and Messrs. Forster and Wailes, upon being applied to at their office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne aforesaid, will give any further particulars which it may be necessary to require.

London Assurance-House,
