SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1813.

Foreign-Office, November 21, 1813.

THE Baron Perponcher, and Mr. James Fagel, have arrived this day from Holland, deputed by the Provisional Government, which has been established in that country, to inform His Royal Highness the Prince Regent and His Serene Highness the Prince of Orange, that a Counter-Revolution broke out in part of the United Provinces on Monday last the 15th instant, when the people of Amsterdam rose in a body, proclaiming the House of Orange, with the old cry of Orange boven, and universally putting up the Orange colours.

This example was immediately followed by the other towns of the provinces of Holland and Utrecht, as Haarlem, Leyden, Utrecht, the Hague, Rotterdam, &c.

The French authorities were dismissed, and a temporary Government established and proclaimed, in the name of the Prince of Orange, and until His Serene Highness's arrival, composed of the most respectable members of the old Government, and chiefly of those not employed under the French.

Amsterdam, Nov. 16th, 1813.

THE events of last night have shewn the necessity of appointing without delay, an Administration in this great city, which, in its form and composition, may ensure the confidence of the good citizens; in consequence, the officers of the Schutterry (armed Burghers), have agreed to undertake the establishment of such an Administration, and a number of the most respectable inhabitants have been called out and invited by them to take upon themselves, at so critical a moment, the honourable and interesting task of effecting every thing that can contribute to prevent or stop the incalculable evils of anarchy.

The following Gentlemen have been this day appointed, desired and authorised to regulate and divide among themselves the functions, in the manner they will judge most expedient:

Mr. J. C. Van der Hoop.
 Mr. P. A. Van Boetzelaer.
 Mr. D. W. Elias.
 J. P. Charlé.
 J. Huydecoper Van Maarsseveen (absent).
 W. Boreel (absent).
 J. N. Van Eys (absent).
 Mr. C. Van der Oudermeulen.
 Mr. Van Loon Janszen.
 Mr. D. J. Van Lennep.
 H. Van Slingelandt.
 J. Hodshon (excused).
 Mr. D. Hooft (absent).
 G. Ten Sande.
 A. Mendes de Leon.
 J. A. Willink.
 J. J. Teyssset (excused).
 Mr. W. F. Mogge Muilman (excused).
 J. J. May.
 Mr. P. A. Brugmans.
 Mr. J. D. Meijer.

Mr. O. W. J. Berg (excused).
Mr. J. S. Van de Poll, and
Mr. A. A. Deutz Van Assendelft.

Amsterdam, November 16, 1813.

THE Colonel and Chief of the Municipal Guards, who has the great satisfaction of acquainting the public with the above circumstances, cannot let pass this opportunity, without admonishing his fellow-citizens in the most earnest manner to behave with temper and moderation; and at the same time, manifesting his expectation and wishes that the joy which will be excited by these events, may not induce or mislead the inhabitants to improper behaviour towards any persons whatsoever, or to pillage or plunder any private or public buildings; since the officers and all the members composing the Municipal Guard, are strictly resolved to repel, with all the powers of which they are in possession, all and any trespasses which may be committed, to the end that the perpetrators receive due punishment for their offences.

(Signed) The Colonel and Chief of the Municipal Guard.

G. C. R. R. VON BRIENEN.

In the Name of His Highness the Prince of Orange.
LEOPOLD, COUNT OF LIMBURG STIRUM, GOVERNOR OF THE HAGUE.

AS the blessed restoration is fast approaching,

I give notice to all the inhabitants of the Hague, that their wishes will soon be fulfilled, and that a Provisional Government will immediately be established to provide for every thing, until His Serene Highness shall appear among us.

In the mean time I invite all good citizens to watch for the preservation of peace and order. I promise to the lowest a day of rejoicing, at the public expense; but I warn every one who would pillage and plunder, that the heaviest penalties will be inflicted upon them.

ORANGE BOVEN.

Holland is free!—The Allies advance upon Utrecht.—The English are invited.—The French fly on all sides.—The sea is open—Trade revives.—Party spirit has ceased.—What has been suffered is forgiven and forgotten.—Men of consequence and consideration are called to the Government.—The Government invites the Prince to the Sovereignty.—We join the Allies, and force the enemy to sue for peace.—The people are to have a day of rejoicing, at the public expense, without being allowed to plunder, or to commit any excess.—Every one renders thanks to God.—Old times are returned.

Orange Boven!
