SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1813.

Admiralty-Office, November 26, 1813.

YESTERDAY His Serene Highness, the Prince of Orange, embarked from Deal for Holland, on board His Majesty's ship Warrior, of seventy-four guns, commanded by Captain Lord Viscount Torrington.

His Serene Highness was accompanied by the Earl of Clancarty, and followed by the respective suites of His Serene Highness and that nobleman.

On his arrival at Deal, his Serene Highness was received by a guard of honour, and waited upon by Vice-Admiral Foley, Commander-in-Chief, and the Captains of His Majesty's navy then at Deal.

The Vice-Admiral's barge, with an orange flag flying, conveyed His Serene Highness to the Warrior, and on his embarking in the barge, the flagship of the Commander-in-Chief, fired a salute of twenty-one-guns.

On His Serene Highness's going on board the Warrior, the orange flag was hoisted at the main-top-mast-head, and immediately saluted with twenty-one guns, by each of His Majesty's ships, and by those of His Majesty the Emperor of Russia, then lying in the Downs.

 Foreign-Office, November 27, 1813.*

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent has caused it to be notified by Viscount Castlereagh, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to the Ministers or Friendly Powers residing at this Court, that in consequence of information which had been received, that the provinces of East Friesland, the State of Knipphausen, the Duchy of Oldenburgh, and the Duchy of Bremen, were no longer under the dominion of France; His Royal Highness was pleased, in the name and in the behalf of His Majesty, to direct, that the Blockade of that part of the coast of Germany, comprehended within the above description, (which was instituted in virtue of His Majesty's Orders in Council, of the 24th of April 1809, and of the 17th of May 1809, and His Majesty's Orders in Council, Injunctions and Instructions, should be discontinued; with the exception of such posts, as may still be occupied by the troops of the enemy.

Foreign-Office, November 27, 1813.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, has been received by Viscount Castlereagh, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from Lieutenant-General the Honourable Sir Charles W. Stewart, K. B. dated Gottingen, November 4, 1813.

I HEREWITH have the honour to acknowledge to your Lordship, the reports which have this day reached me from the Silesian Army.

Before daylight on the morning of the 27th of October, the enemy had quitted the town of Eisenach, which was immediately after entered by Marshal Blücher's army, an advanced corps of which had been sent directly in pursuit, and came up with the rear of the enemy at the entrance of the defiles in the mountains, within about a German mile from the town. The blowing up of several ammunition waggons, the destruction or abandonment of baggage, and the capture of several stragglers, was the immediate consequence, but the enemy had penetrated far into the defiles, where the ground was not favourable for the advance of the cavalry, and it was only by following his march for the three subsequent days, that the precipitancy
