PROCLAMATION.

Sub poena preclusæ & perpetui silentii.

WHEREAS Henry Gottlieb Bencken, Merchant, of Riga, hath petitioned the Right Honourable the Magistrates of the Imperial City of Riga, that a Proclamation might be issued for the convocation of his Creditors, and in particular of all and every one whose claims or demands may be grounded upon the Petitioner's having been bail or security for others, and who have not acquired a special mortgage by inscription in the Public Records: And whereas this petition hath been granted by these presents, all and every one having or pretending to have, any claim or demand upon the said Henry Gottlieb Bencken, Merchant, of Riga, founded upon bonds, bail or sureties, contracts, accounts, or any other ground whatsoever, are ordered to lay their claims and demands, in writing, before the Honourable the Bailiff's Court (Vogteiliche Gericht) of this City, within six months from the date hereof, and at the latest upon the 27th day of February in the year of our Lord 1814, under the intimation that after the expiration of the above peremptory term, all and every claimant shall be precluded, and no unradicated claim or demand be admitted or heard.—Published in Riga Town House, the 27th day of August in the year of our Lord 1813.

From the Marshal's Office.

Sale by Execution.—First Proclamation.

BY virtue of a writ of execution granted by His Excellency John Murray, Brigadier-General and Acting Governor in and over the Colony of Berbice and its Dependencies, Vice-Admiral and President in all Courts and Colleges within the same, &c. &c. upon a petition of John Layfield, qq. John Dodson, and Co. of Lancaster, versus George Munro, under date of 26th January 1813; be it therefore known, that I the undersigned have caused to be taken in execution, at the instance of said John Layfield, qq. John Dodson, and Co. of Lancaster, the cotton estate, No. 21, situate on the Corentine coast, the property of said George Munro, with all its cultivation, buildings, stores, and further appurtenances and dependencies thereto belonging, and specified in the inventory thereof, lying at the Marshal's Office for the inspection of those whom it may concern.

Which said cotton estate, No. 21, cum annexis, I the undersigned intend to sell, after the expiration of one year and six weeks, from the 8th of August 1813, conformable to the regulations of the Court of Civil Justice, dated 1st January 1810, respecting the sale of estates by execution in this colony, in order to recover from the proceeds of said sale such sum of money as is heretofore the said estate, No. 21, has been taken in execution.

This first proclamation published by beat of drums according to custom.—Berbice, this 6th of August 1813.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

Burton on Trent, November, 23, 1813.
